Dear Sir:-

I am enclosing a letter from McGraw-Hill Book Company for Charlie Wilson, a former pupil of this school who I understand is now a pupil at Carlisle. Charlie ordered some books for aid in his engineer's course while here, and made payments regularly, drawing money for this purpose, but it seems that he failed to take up the balance of $6.00.

I also enclose in coin 15 cents which represents the balance carried on our pupils' cash accounts for Charlie, and a subvoucher for this amount, and will greatly appreciate it if you will give this amount to him and secure his signature on the subvoucher and return it to me.
