Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. Mr. Dana H. Kelsey,
United States Indian Superintendent,
Muskogee, Okla.

Dear Mr. Kelsey:

I transmit herewith copies of two telegrams that will go forward tonight. Marie Lewis, a Cherokee girl who is employed here as an assistant clerk in our Outing Manager's office, desires to go to Tulsa for a visit and I have arranged for her to accompany Katie Painkiller to that city. The latter will be furnished transportation as far as Sapulpa.

Being authorized by your telegram to provide an escort as far as St. Louis I am taking the liberty to withhold twice $20.60 to pay for Miss Lewis's fare to St. Louis and from that point to Carlisle. A sufficient amount is also being advanced Miss Lewis to pay for Katie Painkiller's incidental expenses and her own as far as St. Louis. The $167.00 that was deposited by Mrs. McDaniels to pay for tuition is being used to meet the expenditures that will have to be incurred to get the girl to her home, and the balance will be forwarded to you just as soon as I am advised what accounting I am to render for the files at your office.

I also submit herewith the bill that was received today to cover the amount due for the tickets that were furnished to Mr. Roach last night. He left at 11.30 for Lebanon, Tennessee, and he is due to arrive there at 5.06 tomorrow morning. I believe it is Mr. Roach's plan to go from the point of destination in Tennessee to his home.

Huckleberry Sheal finally decided that he wants to make a satisfactory record at Carlisle and when he asked for a chance to do so I gave him permission to remain. I yet believe that he will do well when no longer under the influence of the fellows who were sent away last night.

Trusting that the arrangements I have made for the proper care of Katie Painkiller will meet with your approval, I remain,

Very respectfully,
