Mr. Augustus Johnson,

Lawton, New York.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your card of recent date, this is to advise you that you cannot be given permission to return to Carlisle. The short time you remained here in 1913 indicates that you were then looking for a winter home and unless you can convince me to the contrary I must believe that you are again looking for such a chance.

Very truly yours,

HCM.

Supervisor in Charge.
