INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

I am writing to ask if it would be possible for Marjorie Jimerson, the girl who has been spending her vacation with me, not to return to school until the latter part of September. As I told you when here, she has never been a very strong girl, and while I think her vacation has done her good, I do wish she might remain a little longer.

Miss Ridenour:

I submit below for your information a copy of a part of a letter that has just been received from Mrs. Lincoln of Iroquois, N. Y.

"Marjorie has been telling me about your course in dressmaking which she is very anxious to take up and I am wondering if it would be possible for her to change from what she started in with last year to dressmaking. She is very anxious to do this if it can be brought about. Marjorie is handy with a needle and seems to enjoy sewing very much."

The above refers to Marjorie Jimerson, who will return to us soon from her home, and it is desired that Mrs. Lincoln's wishes in Marjorie's behalf be complied with.

Respectfully,

HCM.

I have been informed by the agent of the C. When the amount of $8.69 was retained here from the amount of $11.00 you forwarded for Marjorie Jamison's use it was not known that the new rate is $9.19. I have noted the request contained in your favor of May the 12th, and in reply thereto will state that I shall not object to your permanent release from this school.

I should have liked to see you continue with your academic work here, but because you gained the knowledge in sewing you were anxious to receive it is hoped you can be just as successful with that as you could have been if you had completed the academic course.

I extend you best wishes for success and I would be pleased to have you keep us informed of what you do, so that we can keep in touch with you and so that you will feel at all times that you can come to your former school home for whatever assistance you may require.

I have been talking with mother over my plans for the future.

I have been at Carlisle for two years after graduating from the Thomas Indian School, which completed the eighth grade. I secured the knowledge in sewing I strove to get there. I am thankful what Carlisle has done for me.

Before I can go on with anything,
May I have my release from Carlisle?
