Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Mildred has proved to be a great trial to Miss Fox, who has tried to train and help her. Mildred seems to lack average intelligence and is sometimes very insolent and disobedient to Miss Fox. Not being able to understand she surely has been a trial in many many ways. Miss Fox watches closely her taking care of her room else it would be in a most untidy condition. Miss Fox has given as great deal of time and attention to Mildred this winter and time may show some little improvement but the teaching is exceedingly trying and exasperating. A change ought to be made at the first opportunity.

As she is getting along so satisfactorily in our School Hospital the delay that will be caused by awaiting money for her incidental expenses will only fit her the better to take the trip home and in the meanwhile I desire to be advised by letter just what arrangements you desire to have made.

Mr. Lipp, Superintendent,
Carlisle Indian School,
Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir:

IN RE SHERIDAN MINORS.

I am writing you very urgently relative to Mildred Sheridan, Lucy Sheridan and Rose Sheridan, children of John Sheridan, an Omaha Indian. I am the legal guardian for the two younger girls and am interested in the welfare of the older one. Their father is an old man who has recently sustained an operation in the hospital at Sioux City, and been confined to his bed for the past three months, and is just able to be around now. He is very much grieved to learn that Mildred is afflicted with tuberculosis. He is especially fearful for the reason that he had two older children who contracted this disease when they were about the age of Mildred. He now asks that all three of the girls be sent home and he is very urgent and insistent in his desires. He states as his reason that Mildred should have treatment at once. There is a sanitarium in Iowa a little distance from here which treats tuberculosis cases for Indians and is conducted for that purpose, and I assure you that if the girl is returned she will be sent over there and kept in that sanitarium without delay and will remain there until discharged. His reason for asking the other two girls to be returned is that the girls are very much attached to each other, and he believes they will do little or no good in school when Mildred leaves because they will be lonesome and grieve for her and for him. He asked me to send you a telegram but I am sending this letter and asking that answer be telegraphed to me at once, and that Mildred and the other girls be sent home without any further delay. There are funds belonging to the children in their father's possession to bear the expense, and I wish you would wire me upon receipt of this letter because the father will not wait any longer, and is determined upon taking some decided action within the next few days.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:-

IN RE MILDRED SHERIDAN

I am sending Mildred Sheridan today $20 to pay her expenses on her return. I am satisfied that is sufficient if you are taking care of her transportation. Please arrange for her berths all the way through. She is very improvident and incompetent in handling money. Rachel Sheridan will meet her in Omaha if you will notify her at once when Mildred will reach Omaha. I have secured the promise of her father that she will remain but five days and will then go to the Sanitarium at Toledo, Iowa.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your night letter and to advise you that the entire amount of $20.00 you sent to Mildred Sheridan for her use to pay traveling expenses enroute home is being held here until she leaves on the evening of the 18th.

Arrangements are being made to provide a Pullman berth for Mildred's use between Harrisburg and Chicago. The Burlington officials are being requested to meet her in Chicago and to procure for her use a Pullman berth between Chicago and Omaha on the Burlington train leaving Chicago at 6:00 o'clock on the evening of the 19th, which is due in Omaha at 8:00 o'clock on Saturday morning, the 20th. Instructions are also being issued to have Mildred put on the train leaving Chicago at 11:00 o'clock on Friday night, the 19th, if she fails to get to Chicago in time to leave on the earlier train mentioned above. In the latter event she would not arrive in Omaha until 3:55

Herewith Treasury Warrant # 6860 in favor of Mildred Sheridan. This is her share of unpaid annuities due minors.

Kindly return $55.00 for Mildred's expenses in the Presbyterian Hospital and $25.00 for Dr. Walter G. Moody for services. The remainder may be given to Mildred or deposited to her credit as you see fit. I would advise that it be deposited as she is endeavoring to get assistance to come home.

Respectfully,

B. A. Marlowe
Clerk in Charge.
