INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

That no Indian pupil under the age of fourteen years shall be transported at Government expense to any Indian school beyond the limits of the State or Territory in which the parents of such child reside or of the adjoining State or Territory. (35 Stat. L., 781.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case; but in all cases where the parents are living they should first be consulted.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations or Indian schools to nonreservation schools.

Dear Sir:

I would like to know why did it you advance
my boy's fare, after you had expelled him. I am going to send this letter to Washington which I received from Mr. Pel.
I expect to hear from you soon. I have two more boys beside Samuel, ^{Pelony} and Samuel finished the school here.
You sent for him
last fall and O. H.
his ticket, and he was a right to that school.

You expelled him for nothing, he went there to go to school, We are indians and have alotments. This is all.

Remain as ever,

Dear Sir:-

This is to inform you that it has been necessary for me to confine your son Samuel to the guard-house.

Yesterday during the absence of the disciplinarian, who was sent to Washington in charge of a company of our boys who were to take part in the inaugural parade, Samuel ran away and went to Harrisburg, 18 miles from here. He was rested there, taken before an alderman, was convicted of trespassing and confined in County jail. The disciplinarian over this morning, said his girl, brought him back to school and put him in the guard-house.

Samuel has given more or less trouble ever since he has been here and we have about concluded that the best we can do for him is to return him to you, provided you furnish the money

He is constantly giving trouble at the quarters because of his annoying habit of talking more than he works. The Indian boys resent this constant long talking and his influence tends to demoralization. This school is primarily for Indians and those who have no public school advantages at their homes.

Samuel shows very little Indian blood and probably has never attended any but public schools. My opinion is that it was about time that he make place at this school for another.

The cost of his arrest, subsequent release and his return railroad fare, amount, to six dollars and ninety nine cents ($6.99). I will appreciate it if you send this amount in addition to his fare.

I regret that I had to
