Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. My dear Sir:

I regret very much to advise you, in reply to your letter of the 22nd instant, that your son Lewis is now in the Cumberland County jail in Carlisle with two other boys from this school serving a sentence of a ten dollar fine for trespassing on a neighbor's property, breaking down his apple trees and stealing his fruit.

The costs in the case are $6.14, and it is the Law in Pennsylvania that an additional sentence of sixty days in jail must be served if the costs in a case are not paid in cash. Will you let me know what you can do about sending the amount required to pay the costs mentioned?

This is also to advise you that your son will have to be dismissed from Carlisle just as soon as he is released from jail. The amount that will be required to pay for his transportation home should be placed on deposit with me.

Very truly yours,

HKM.

My dear Sir:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 5th instant and to advise you that on the 7th instant Supervisor Wyly also wrote to me in behalf of your son Lewis who has recently gotten himself into trouble at this school.

Lewis has been released from jail and the county has been charged with the costs in the case, and as it is the request of your boy that he be allowed to remain here I am giving him permission to go ahead with his work until Mr. Lipps returns to Carlisle. It will then be decided definitely whether the opportunity to remain here can be extended as much longer as is desired by you and your boy and recommended by the Supervisor.

It is only fair to let you know that your boy was probably influenced by Oce Forman and another older fellow who is yet in jail. Forman will probably be sent away from Carlisle this week because he admits that he has previously been in serious trouble.

Mr. A. S. Wyly,

Dear Mr. Wyly:

Upon receipt of your favor of the 7th instant, relative to a request that has been made by Mr. William E. Johnson of Rose, Oklahoma, to the effect that his son Lewis be allowed to continue with his work at Carlisle, it was referred to our Disciplinarian. It has been learned that Lewis is anxious to remain at Carlisle in order that he can prove to us that he is not a bad boy and that he wants to profit by what we can give him here.

In view of the fact that the boy has been punished for allowing older boys to influence him I am giving him permission to remain here until the request from Mr. Johnson and your recommendation can be brought to the attention of Mr. Lipps when he returns to school. It can then be determined whether it will be advisable to let Lewis remain here longer than for the period I am allowing him.

Trusting that such an arrangement meets with your approval, I am,

Very truly yours,

Supt. O. H. Lipps,
U.S. Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Mr. Lipps:

Mr. William E. Johnson, of Rose, Oklahoma, the father of Lewis Johnson, a Cherokee boy enrolled at Carlisle, called to see me today relative to a letter he had received from you, a carbon copy of which was sent to this Office, advising that Lewis was in the Cumberland County jail serving a sentence for trespassing on a neighbor's property, breaking down his apple trees and stealing the fruit. Your letter stated it would be necessary for Mr. Johnson to remit you $6.14, the amount of the costs in the case, and that he would be required to make a deposit with you to pay for Lewis' transportation home, as he would be released from Carlisle as soon as he was out of jail.

Mr. Johnson is very much surprised and chagrined at the conduct of his son and is extremely anxious that he remain at Carlisle if it can possibly be arranged for him to do so. He is of the opinion that Oce Foreman, a Cherokee boy from the Rose neighborhood, and who enrolled at Carlisle at the time

Lewis enrolled, is to some extent responsible for Lewis' misconduct. It appears that Oce Foreman has written home repeatedly that he desires to leave Carlisle, that he is dissatisfied with the school and that he expects to return home soon. Mr. Johnson also states that he has had six or seven letters and cards from his son, and that every time he has written he has expressed himself as being well satisfied and highly pleased with Carlisle. Mr. Johnson will send $6.14 to cover the costs in the case immediately after he hears from a letter which he states he wrote you some days ago, and will also send you a check for the amount to pay his son's transportation in the event you find that you cannot possibly permit him to remain at Carlisle.

In this connection, I will state I have known Mr. Johnson for years and know his financial condition. He is the father of a large family and has at all times been much interested in the education of his children. He has a daughter who finished at the Chilocco Indian School, and on this account he was desirous of his son finishing the course at Carlisle. He is a poor man and is unable to educate his children in a school where they would be required to pay board and tuition for their attendance.

I would thank you to investigate Lewis' case, and if it is found that he was over-influenced by the Foreman lad or by the other boy connected with this trespass, and you believe that Lewis has the making of a man in him and your school can be of some assistance to him, I would be very glad indeed if you could arrange to keep this boy at Carlisle.

Very respectfully,

My dear Sir:

Calling to your attention my letter of October the 11th, in which I stated that your son Lewis would be kept here until it could be determined definitely whether he should be allowed to continue with his work here, I now beg leave to state that his return home should be effected. Our School Disciplinarian has submitted a statement this day as follows:

"In reference to your request of Nov. 30th, in case of Louis Johnson, would suggest that he be sent home as soon as possible. He is not interested in his school work at all. I have given him every chance possible to make good, but fear he is a failure."

I would thank you to send a sufficient amount of money to pay for a ticket for your son's use and to let me know how I can cooperate with you to get him to your home.

Mr. Gehringer:

I have held a letter on my desk in regard to Lewis Johnson, one of the boys who was in jail in Carlisle this fall. His father was told at the time that it would have to be decided later whether Lewis could be kept here. Will you please report how the boy has conducted himself and whether you can recommend that he be kept here?

Some time ago Leslie Sundown had work done on his teeth for which a charge of 75 cents was made. Leslie told me one day that he had earned the amount in some neighbor's cornfield and I understood him to state that he turned that sum over to you to settle with the dentist. Please advise me so that the note calling attention to the charge can be properly endorsed and filed.

Very respectfully,

Dec. 10th, 1915.

Mr. W. E. Johnson,

Rose, Oklahoma.

My dear Sir:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 7th instant, stating that you can probably send some time next month the amount of money that will be required to pay for transportation for your son Lewis's coming home. That will be satisfactory and in the meanwhile we will do what we can to keep your son at his work and studies.

The exact cost of a ticket to Pryor cannot be determined today, but it will be about $32.50. It will be well to add a dollar or two to that amount so that it can be given to your son for expenses enroute home.

Hoping you will not have to inconvenience yourself because of Lewis's failure to make good and that we shall hear from you right after the holidays, I remain,

My dear Sir:

Upon receipt of your letter of the 9th instant further inquiry was made about your son Lewis, and it has been decided that he will be allowed to remain here until the close of this school year. That will afford you the opportunity to secure the amount that will be required to pay for his ticket home and immediately upon his arrival at home he can be put to work to earn what has to be advanced for his use.

Mr. Meyer:-

Louis Johnson is doing better, and I would recommend in view of the fact that his people are so very poor to give him this second or third chance.

I feel the burden is greater than his father can bear.

you to know if it would be possible for you to keep my son Lewis at school

very poor people and this is his last chance to get an education but if he will not comply with the rules of the school and does not try to learn or make good I guess he had better be at home, when he writes home he says

he likes out there fine
and does not want to come home. the assistant Supt writes and tell me that I will have to send the Money for him to come home or now if he has to be sent home will not make good let me know
at once what it will cost
I will try to get the money
by the 10th Jan 1916

I hoping to hear from you
by return Mail I am your truly

Is there no help for the widows son

Febr. 11th, 1916.

Mr. W. E. Johnson,

Rose, Oklahoma.

My dear Sir:

An amount of $33.00 should be sufficient to pay for a ticket for the use of your son Lewis, and just as soon as such an amount is deposited with me arrangements will be made to have him come home as you request in your letter of February the 3rd.

This very day another adverse report has been made regarding him and it will be appreciated if you can send money at once, but under no circumstances should it be sent direct to Louis.

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Superintendent.

The amount of $38.60 you forwarded here with your letter of the 26th instant has been duly credited with which to provide transportation for the use of your son Lewis and it is being arranged so that he can leave here tomorrow evening. Mr. Gehringer:

Louis Johnson is to leave for his home on train at 5:37 tomorrow evening, and his name is to be dropped from our school rolls.

He has money at this office for which he should call some time tomorrow afternoon.

As he has but a suit case to carry it will have to be arranged so that he can take the car in time to get to the station for the train referred to above.

Very respectfully.

HKM.

Superintendent.

Mr. W. E. Johnson

Rose, Oklahoma.

My dear Sir:

I thank you for your letter of the 6th instant,
reporting the safe arrival at your home of your son Lewis.

Referring further to your letter I must state that it will not be advisable to allow Lewis to return to Carlisle. His deplorable indolence and his utter unwilling-ness to do anything by which he could profit made it impossible to do anything for him and it is the consensus of opinion here that we cannot do anything to help him.

Very truly yours,

HKM.
