INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

That no Indian pupil under the age of fourteen years shall be transported at Government expense to any Indian school beyond the limits of the State or Territory in which the parents of such child reside or of the adjoining State or Territory. (35 Stat. L., 781.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case; but in all cases where the parents are living they should first be consulted.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations or Indian schools to nonreservation schools.

Her personal motherly interest in every Indian girl is equal to a real mothers interest. Any girl who makes her home with Mrs. McCrea is to be congratulated and may consider herself fortunate to be placed in a home with such excellent training and high ideals as Mrs. McCrea sets forth and these same ideals are carried out in regard to her own Childrens training.

Dear Mr. Dickens:

Jessie Daisy, one of the girls you brought to Carlisle at the Christmas time in 1912 and whose period of enrolment will not terminate this month on that account, has come to me with a request that I find out from you whether you would consent to let her come home for a visit.

If you believe that the necessity for her return home at this time is great enough to justify favorable consideration of her request I will be pleased to hear from you and will co-operate as you may recommend.

Dear Mr. Lipps:

Your letter of June 1st with reference to Jessie Daisy's returning home has been received, and in reply will say that Jessie's home surroundings are such as will not justify her coming home; and as the expense that would have to necessarily be incurred, were she to do so, is greater than she can afford I think it would be to her best interest that she be retained until her school term expires. Her parents are well, and there seems no special reason why she should come home for a visit.

Mr. Walter F. Dickens,

Dear Mr. Dickens:

I submit below for your information a copy of a self-explanatory report that was handed to me this afternoon by our School Physician, Dr. Rendtorff:

> "I recommend to you that Jessie Daisy be sent home. This child has a tendency toward hip joint disease, a condition which with rest, fresh air and the beneficial influence of the home surrounding may clear up. I feel that the routine work and drilling, combined with indoor study, are detrimental factors in her case and that active tubercular hip joint trouble may set in under these conditions."

In view of the fact that Jessie's three year period of enrolment at Carlisle will terminate at the close of this school year there can be no objections to sending her home as is recommended. However, before such action is taken I would thank you to advise me by letter or wire whether there is any reason why she should not be sent to her home at this time.

Mr. Walter F. Dickens,

Dear Mr. Dickens:

Upon receipt of your letter of the 21st instant in regard to the conditions at Jessie Daisy's home it was referred to our School Physician for his information and guidance. He too realizes the importance of keeping the girl at Carlisle for her own protection and good and has just written a statement as follows:

> "I suppose under the circumstances and with the view of working good and not harm it will be necessary for us to retain Jessie Daisy. I will treat her at the hospital whenever necessary and keep close watch over her condition. She has been excused from all heavy work and strenuous physical exercise. At present she has slight pain only occassionally, but walks with a limp."

I am glad to be able to report that further treatment here can be given and it is hoped an improvement in the girl's condition can be effected. In this connection, however, I must again call attention to the fact that Jessie's period of enrolment at Carlisle will terminate at the end of the current school year.

Assuring you that we will gladly do what we can to co-operate further in Jessie's case, and hoping to be advised about her return home at the close of the school year, I remain,

Dear Mr. Lipps:

I have your letter of the 16th instant relative to the case of Jessie Daisy. I am very sorry that Jessie should be afflicted in the manner indicated and regret to say that her home surroundings cannot benefit her morally or physically. I do not know, of course, what in the world you could do with her other than to send her home but if there is anything that can be done, I would advise to that end. Jessie, as I remember her, was a grown-up girl with a mind of a six or seven year old child. I have received several letters from her, both from Carlisle and her outing residence and she seemed to be the most hopeful of any of the pupils. I had ocassion, just before sending her away, to call her to the office and reprimand her. And had she not shown such a disposition as to want to do better, and seemed to really want to go to school, I would not have recommended her for Carlisle. I think Jessie is all-right but her home surroundings and influences are very much against her and if there is any other thing that can be done, I

...end that she be kept away as long as possible, the
...ger the better.

My dear Mr. Dickens:

When Jessie Daisy again came to my office earlier this week to renew her request to return home on account of the condition in her hip that had previously been reported to you it was brought to my attention that her period of enrolment at Carlisle will terminate at the close of the current school year and that then she will be entitled to return to her home. In view of the fact that she is anxious now to return home it is doubted whether she can be made to see that it is to her advantage to remain longer at Carlisle.

I write you as early in the year as this is so that it can be decided what to do for Jessie when she does return home.

My dear Mr. Dickens:

When Jessie Daisy was seen at this office this afternoon it was again pointed out to her that you are anxious to have her remain at Carlisle until her period of enrolment has terminated and that it will be to her advantage to stick to her school work for just a few months longer.

She stated that she did not make creditable marks in her school work last month because she has been worrying about some of her Canadian relatives who have enlisted to go to the war in Europe, but she has been urged to make a renewed effort to regain her former good standing and she has consented to do so. She will probably not renew her request to leave before the end of this year's work.

Dear Mr. Lipps:

I have your letter of the second instant, in which you say that Jessie Daisy has renewed her request to come home. Undoubtedly, it would be best for her to remain in school until the end of the term, but as she seems unusually anxious to return there is apparently nothing else for her to do. Such medical treatment, as may be required, can be given at the Agency hospital; and, if she cannot be persuaded to see the advantage of remaining any longer, I would be pleased to be informed as to when she intends to leave for Redlake.

My dear Sir:

Your daughter Jessie will be entitled to return home this year because her period of enrolment at Carlisle has terminated. We should have liked to keep her here longer, but she has had some trouble with her hip during this past year and so the rest at home should benefit her. It will be arranged, therefore, so that she can join the party of home-going girls who are to leave here on Tuesday evening of next week, June the 6th, and a ticket for her use to Bemidji will be provided.

Jessie should have enough of her money left when she arrives at Bemidji to pay for her transportation from that point and when she has come to your home please let me hear from you.

Sept. 4th, 1916.

Mr. Walter F. Dickens,
Superintendent, Red Lake Agency,
Red Lake, Minn.

Dear Mr. Dickens:

I have given the matter of allowing Jessie Daisy further school privileges my careful attention and have finnally decided to suggest that perhaps Jessie could be admitted to the Flandreau School.

As our school physician has requested that permission to have her return here be refused I cannot allow her to come here. For the last several months she was with us she must have annoyed our physician with requests to go home on account of the affection in her hip and because she felt she could not wait until her period of enrolment had terminated. As the same thing might be repeated here and the expense of transportation to come so great a distance is more than should be risked in taking a chance with Jessie the closer location to Red Lake of the Flandreau School should remove the latter objection. It might possibly be arranged to have Jessie pay for her transportation and to place on deposit an amount that could be used to pay her fare to come home if it was learned that her physical condition would not allow her continuation in school thrucut the year or her term of enrolment.

Only because you were so pleased with the wonderful change Jessie accomplished for herself while at Carlisle and because she made so excellent a record here do I take the liberty to offer the suggestion that she be allowed to go to Flandreau. The tubercular affection in her hip joint should not make her a menace to the students with whom she would associate and she would be a valuable addition to the student body of any school.

Hoping some thing can be accomplished that will give the girl further school privileges, I remain,

Very respectfully,

HKM. Superintendent.

Dear Mr. Dickens:

I thank you for your favor of the 25rd instant, advising me that Benj. Caswell came to your office immediately after he had heard from me relative to his return to Carlisle and arranged to start from Red Lake on Monday, the 4th instant. I am glad to know we shall Benjamin with us again for another term, as he is a splendid young man in every respect. I hope it can be arranged to send his sister on with him.

Noting in your letter that Catherine Vornwald has not decided what she wants to do about her return to Carlisle I am complying with your suggestion by writing her again in regard to the matter. I trust she will apply soon for another period of enrolment.

When that part of your favor was referred to our school physician in which the question of the return of Jessie Daisy is mentioned he submitted a statement for my guidance as is copied below:

> "Do not allow Jessie Daisy to return under any circumstances. Jessie was constantly a semi-invalid and will in no way be benefitted by her return here. Moreover children in bad physical condition do not make for the best interest of the school."

In view of the statement that is made it cannot be arranged to accept Jessie for an additional period. I regret, however, that her physical condition makes it inadvisable to allow her return and I do hope that she can be given an opportunity in some other way to improve herself further.

Thanking you for the assistance that has been given, I remain,

Dear Mr. Lipps:

I have your letter of the 21st instant with reference to the enrollment and return to Carlisle of Eva and Ben. Caswell. Ben. was over to see me very promptly after receipt of your letter, and advises me that he wishes to leave Red Lake on Monday, September 4th, for Carlisle. I had anticipated that he wanted to stay until after our Red Lake Fair, but he says that he is anxious to get back early in order not to miss the fore part of the term.

I suggest that you write Catherine Vornwald a letter urging her return. I have talked to her about it, but she seems to be a creature of varied desires, one day she is going to return and the next she isn't. I think she ought to go back. If there are no reasons why Jessie Daisy should not return to Carlisle I would be very much pleased to have Jessie return to you also.

Very truly yours,

Wm. F. Dickens
