INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case.

Dear Madam:

Replying to your letter of March 9th, requesting that permission be given your sister, Anna Boyd, to come home for a short period on account of the illness of her father, I have to advise that you should take this matter up with your superintendent, as in all such cases

Dear Sir

My father being very sick I am writing you for information as to whether you would allow my sister Anna Boyd to come home for a short period if we should pay her expenses. Please state the amount required for expenses. My father would very much desire to see his daughter before it is too late and if you will grant us this request we would appreciate it very much. Hoping to hear from you in regard to this matter by return mail.

I beg to remain

Mr. P. S. Everest,
Superintendent, La Pointe Agency,

Dear Mr. Everest:

I have noted in your favor of the 17th instant that you are in favor of letting Anna Boyd return home now for the summer months with the understanding that she will resume her studies at Carlisle at the opening of the next school year in September. On account of the serious illness of her father no objection to her going will be interposed and just as soon as the amount required to pay for her return transportation is placed on deposit with you or at this office it will be arranged to release her. Will you kindly have the form herewith filled out and returned to me after your approval has been noted thereon? Our record in the case will then be complete.

Very truly yours,

Mr. O. H. Lipps,
Sup't. Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Mr. Lipps:

Your letter of March 11th, addressed to Julia Boyd at Odanah, referring to the visit home of her sister Anna, a pupil in your school, has been referred to me for reply.

The father's serious illness is given as the reason for Anna's visit home. In this connection I am forwarding letter of Government Physician, Sincok, addressed to me, explaining the nature of Mr. Boyd's illness. I visited their home myself this week and personally know that Mr. Boyd is confined to his home a sufferer from tuberculosis in its advanced stage. He may linger, however, quite a long time yet and possibly may recuperate considerably as soon as warm weather sets in, but he is probably hopelessly sick and inasmuch as the family propose to meet the round trip expense of Anna's return home, it would be my recommendation that you excuse her at this time for the summer months with the understanding that she will again resume her studies at Carlisle in the fall.

Respectfully,

Sup't. & Special Disb. Agent.

A ticket for her use to Odanah will be procured for her.

It is assumed, of course, that you have a sufficient amount of Anne's or her parents' funds under your control with which a ticket for her return to Carlisle can be provided.

We hereby agree to pay all expenses, including round-trip railroad fares, sleeping-car fares, meals, lodging, stage fares, telegraph and telephone messages, and other incidental expenses connected with the visit. We further agree to deposit with the superintendent of the school sufficient money to defray all expenses to be incurred, and should the pupils, or any one of them, fail to return to school at such time as may be agreed upon by the parents or guardian and the superintendent of the school in which the pupils are enrolled, the amount of money remaining with the superintendent, necessary to the return transportation of the pupil or pupils so neglecting to return, shall be forfeited to the Government; provided, however, that in all cases where it can be shown that there were justifiable reasons for the failure of the return of the pupil the forfeiture of the funds shall not take place.

Miss Anna Boyd,

My dear Friend:

I am having enclosed herewith a copy of the mid-summer issue of our school ARROW in order that you can keep yourself informed about our activities during the time you have been absent from Carlisle. We have done the usual summer work and no great changes are apparent. Our students who have remained here during the vacation months have been busy, but have had an enjoyable time.

As you know a number of the young people at your home who are eligible for transfer to one of the larger nonreservation schools I enclose herewith several application blanks I would thank you to hand to those you could recommend for enrolment. If any others would be interested in any literature we might send to them their names and addresses may be listed on another blank enclosed, together with the other information that is desired thereon.

In this connection I must call attention to the fact that all applications for the enrolment of students who are members of your community must be approved by Superintendent ~~Edward~~ Be-
