INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Dear Friend:

As I told you while at Isoquois recently I would personally see your daughter Beulah immediately on my return. I saw Beulah on the campus Sunday morning and found her to be happy and in good health. She gave no indication whatever of being ill. I told her of my visit to New York, and she was pleased to hear that I had met her parents and sister. I have asked her to write to you.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Friend:

I have your letter of July eighth, and spoke to your daughter Beulah this morning. She tells me that she wrote a letter yesterday advising you that she had stopped running with the girl who had inspired her to do the wrong things which she did. I had another talk with your daughter several days ago, and she then promised me that she would be a good girl and would sicontinue going with the young lady here at the school who has been the cause of much of her trouble. Beulah is a good girl in my judgment, and since my talk with her, I feel very confident that she will do well.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely your friend,

My dear Friend:

Referring to your letter of July the 27th, which was addressed to our school physician, I have to advise that the following report has just been submitted to me:

"Beulah Logan has been to the dispensary complaining of pain in the bowels which is due to constipation. Otherwise Beulah is in good physical condition. Beulah has never made application here to go to the country. She told me this morning her mother did not allow her to go."

In view of the fact that this statement by our school physician is so favorable I hope you will not be caused further anxiety regarding the reports that are made you from time to time by your sister. Kindly assure your father and mother that Beulah is well cared for and that her health is closely watched.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

I have been wanting to write to you about my sister Beulah Logaw. I have had several letters from her in which she would tell me a little of herself, she seems to be sick so often or something ails her so she can't go out to the country and such as that. Of course if she is n't strong enough to work out it is well if she should stay at the school. But when she writes she only tell enough to excite my enough to make us anxious to find out the main trouble.

Will you please let us

My dear Madam:

Replying to your letter of February the 5th, in which you ask whether it can be arranged to let your son and daughter, Frank and Bulah E. Logan, return home for the summer vacation months, this is to state that it is usually required that all students continue in school until the termination of their period of enrollment, and as your children's term does not end this year favorable consideration cannot be given your request at this time.

I will also advise that whenever students are given permission to return to their homes for a vacation they have to pay for their transportation and are required to place a sufficient amount on deposit with which their transportation back to Carlisle can be procured for them.

Very truly yours,

My dear Madam:

Referring to the request that was brought to my attention in your letter of March the 31st and your daughter Alice's letter of April the 2nd, this is to state that arrangements have already been completed for your daughter Beulah to remain at the Outing home where she is now located, and because of that fact she should not be given permission to return home this summer.

Your son Frank is here at school just at this time, and although I believe it would also be best for him to remain here during the summer I will give him permission to go to your home for the vacation months if the required amount to pay for his transportation is sent to me.

Hoping you will let me know in what other way I can be of service, I remain,

Dear Sir:

I have writtten before to the school asking whether my brother and sister could return for this summer at home. My mother has also writtten but we have had no satisfactory answer. The reason we are very anxious to know if they can come is because we have to know ahead of time to get sufficient money for their transportation. The required amount of money will be sent in time or by the first of May.

The children are Bula Sogaw and Frank Sogaw.

I was a student of Carlisle for a term of five years and during the time I was allowed to return home summers if I payed my expenses. I did one summer and I heartily say that I was not unsettled

So will you please consider a definite answer soon.

This is to state that I have noted the contents of your favor of April the 21st and that I yet believe it will be for your daughter's best interests to remain at the Outing home where she is now located. It was at Beulah's own request that arrangements were made to have her continue in that home during this summer, so you can see that it is only co-operating with her when I say she should remain where she is.

Kindly think this matter over and then let me hear from you again.

As stated in my former letter to you I will arrange for Frank's return home for the summer if you provide the amount that is required to pay for his transportation.

over the map probably to see what our wish was

Dear Beulah

I will send this letter to you for you to see that it seems you cannot come home this summer I've written before this one asking him to have you come home, and he said it was best for you to stay where you are, and then I wrote again and ask him again to have you come so this is the reason he gave me is because you wanted to stay where you are this summer, so he thinks I'm asking him against your wish, so I think you had better write to him Mr Lepps and ask him to let you come home after vacation you can go back where you are, and ask the lady you are with to pay good word for you to him ask her if she wont let you go, till her that I wont you to come home for a vacation so now do this in a hurry, J R is coming home as soon as I send the money to him when we draw our money I suppose you thought if you didnt come home this summer you would stay where you are.

so Beulah I cant do any thing and ask him, till him if she can afford to have you come when you said till her only for you to ask and that is all I can do

Dear friend:-

I have your letter relative to your going home this summer and as you have asked me to make the decision for you, I would advise that you remain where you are now. This is the agreement you have made with Mrs. Peacock and I do not think it would be fair to her to make any change now.

While I know you would enjoy a vacation at home, there are other things to consider, that of expense, for instance. I am sure that your mother could use to good advantage, the money it would take to pay your fare to New York and back.

I hope you will be willing to abide by this decision and that you will spend a happy and profitable summer.

Remarks and recommendations of superintendent with reference to eligibility and need of Federal aid:

Superintendent.

NOTE.—One of these blanks should be filled out by each pupil at Government boarding schools, preferably with the assistance of the superintendent or some one designated to act as his representative. If the superintendent is of opinion from the information given that the pupil is entitled to enrollment he should so indicate by signing the blank in the proper place and filing in the individual pupil's folder. In the case of pupils concerning whose eligibility or need of Government aid there is some doubt, superintendents should make proper remarks and recommendations in the space indicated and forward the form to the Indian Office for consideration.

Mr O. Lipps

Supt. Carlisle Indian School
Carlisle Pa.

Dear Sir, -

Words cannot express my regret at being compelled to write you this letter and it has taken me the past two months to make up my mind to do so, but as I am being unbearably annoyed by one of the Indian girl in your charge thought I would appeal to you first before going further.

Bebulah Logan lives with Mrs Peacock on the corner op-posite, our homes are both surrounded by immense trees, in fact these trees extend along the White Horse Parkas far as the eye can reach and they begin dropping their leaves about from Sept 1st on, and of course they litter the lawn unfortunately we planted a hedge as a dividing line that is at the side & rear of our property, and as our home is on the south east corner, when the north west-winds blow we not only receive our own share of the leaves but all four squares around, however our neighbors have consideration & always have them burned as soon as they are raked, all except one, and for what reason I do not know that is Mrs Peacock all last Fall & all this past one she tells Beulah to rake them at an angle so that her hedge prevents them coming back but - they are placed on the Asphalt-slippery street - at such an angle that we get every one of which means something for the pile has been ten feet high, I thought the most lady like way out of it was to have Margaret burn them after dark when they were indoors which she has done three or four times a week all last year and these past months and every time Mrs Peacock has come out on the porch and called her every ugly name she could think and Beulah has tried to catch her things were looking serious and of late I would not let her burn them unless I was out on the lawn behind a tree but I never would let them see me as I think it beneath my dignity to fuss a neighbor, to-night we had a usual scene and Beaulah rushed at Margaret-like she would strike her I came to the end of the walk and told her to-let her alone, as Margaret-was so unnerved from the experience I came to the conclusion we had been tormented two years & it was long enough and I would appeal to you first-and if it ~~was~~ did not cease I would go further.

If you could find out what we do to cause them to annoy us this way just-let us know & I will only be too glad to have it stopped and at once.

as I cannot realize why any one would desire to pile up a lot of leaves for any other purpose & fly in a rage when the tormented ones burn them.

If I desired to make trouble there is quite a little I could tell have told long ago but Miss Johnston can vouch that I never said one word when she visited here, for instance last summer Beulah worked for Mrs Peacock's daughter who lives in Had donfield one day sometimes two, ^{every week} she had a lovely walk of one mile to take the car early in the morning as she walked to East-Collingwood and six squares after she left-reached Haddonfield, she came back the same way and I have purposely walked toward the car with Mr. Kunkel ~~to~~ and met her coming home after nine o'clock, ^{at night.} as it is very lonely along the park and there ~~are~~ is a house full of colored men ^{who} which are brought-up from the south every summer, I told Mr. Peacock I met her and said are you not-afraid for Beaulah to come along there that time at-night, he said some one may see her and inform the school and she said she would notbe responsible for any girls morals, she got-the girl for work & there were plenty more where she came from, but-my hint did this much good she always transferred & came around in the car afterwards but Mr. Lipps is it in the rules for girls to work for two families and are they allowed to travel on the trolley alone ~~are~~ are the rules not-the same for all the girls, and are the people who bend the girls to school only 3 days a week keeping their agreement? Do you think any woman who

Mr. O.H. Lipps,

Dear Mr. Lipps:-

Beulah Logan's school record for this year stands as follows; Entered school Sept. 8th - was absent Sept. 25th to Oct. 9th inclusive 11 full days. Absent again on Oct. 16th and Oct. 26th. The excuse for absence Sept. 25th to Oct. 9th was tonsillitis. The excuse for absence Oct. 16th - not given - probably due to bad weather, teacher says, as she was ill the previous week - thinks this was the reason she was absent. The excuse for Oct. 26th - neuralgia and toothache.

Tardy on Sept. 17, 18, 24th.

No tardiness in Oct.

Tardy, Nov. 2nd, Monday, was late in finishing washing - reported for school at recess. (Two in family, Mrs. Peacock and herself)

Mrs. Peacock tells me Beulah had an ulcerated throat. Dr. did not visit her but Mrs. Peacock went to the Dr. for medicine for Beulah.

Her subjects are rated as follows:-

Reading - Excellent

Arithmetic - Good

Spelling - Good

Grammar - Poor

Geography - Not well prepared

History - Not well prepared

Writing - Good

Conduct - Good

Departmental work is done. Beulah has different teachers. One teacher tells me the written work required for her department is quite well prepared. Another teacher tells me that Beulah has two study periods in school and yet her Geography and History are not satisfactorily prepared at all - her recitation give evidence of no time nor thought put upon them - told her teacher rather impertinently one day that she had no time to study. The teachers voice the opinion that she seems to want to simply fill in the time with little or no ambition - anxious to complete the required number of days and no more. Mrs. Peacock says she is rather indifferent to school but seems to have that manner every where.

Beulah does not speak the truth - This, I know, from past experience. Her teachers and Mrs. Peacock have the same opinion.

Her attendance for last year has gone into the state depart-records but her teacher informs me that she completed her 100 days although the first part was rather poor owing to repeated absences on Friday afternoons. She frequently inquired when her 100 days would be completed. The Friday afternoon absences I adjusted on one of my visits. Beulah had informed Mrs. Peacock that she was entitled to remain home on Friday afternoons when her name was on the Honor Roll,--A false statement.

There seems to be no reason why Beulah should not apply herself more diligently.

Beulah tells me that during the summer she frequently went to the home of Mrs. Latch, Mrs. Peacock's daughter, to care for Mrs. Latch's little child while Mrs. Latch went to the city--that while there she did Mrs. Latch's work--returning home in the afternoon or after supper never alone but with Mrs. Peacock or some member of the family. She has been there but once since school started and that was with Mrs. Peacock when they both went together for the Hallowe'en events, returning on Sunday.

It seems that an ill-feeling exists between Mrs. Kunkel and Mrs. Peacock--they live opposite each other on the same street. This feeling has existed for some time and is now extended to the Indian girls living in their homes. Margaret Swamp living with Mrs. Kunkel is no longer under our jurisdiction--Beulah Logan living with Mrs. Peacock is.

In this particular instance there has been some trouble caused by the leaves being raked into piles and left by the side of the road from where they were blown over on to Mrs. Kunkel's lawn. One party claims they were not burned but were left to blow--the other party claims they were not given a chance to burn the leaves, that their neighbors came over and burned them. Mrs. Peacock says Beulah is not at fault--whatever she, Beulah, has done has been at her, Mrs. Peacock's, bidding. Matters reached a climax last Friday evening. Mrs. Peacock ordered Margaret not to burn the leaves. Margaret did and answered impertinently. Hasty words followed on both sides. Beulah, to get even I presume, gathered up the ashes and threw them over on to Mrs. Kunkel's lawn.

Mrs. Kunkel claims this spirit of annoyance is fostered in Beulah by Mrs. Peacock and if so is certainly far from our ideals of a country mother's training. This fact I cannot prove but of this I am assured that should Beulah remain in this home (pleasant as the home may be to her now) developments may arise which would not be for Beulah's best interests nor for the best interests of Carlisle to be concerned in. I therefore recommend that Beulah be recalled to Carlisle.

Nov. 7, 1914.

Mr. H. O. Sippe,
Dear Sir,

This morning I received a heart broken letter from my mother, Mrs. Peacock of West Collingwood, concerning the visit of Beaulieu's agent and the questions asked mother and Beulah by said agent. These questions on their face, prove that your agent discusses the affairs of one patron, with those of another, and has been guilty of a decidedly cheap form of amusement, gossip. To say the least, the example is not a good one for Indians. For sometime past my mother, who attends strictly to her own affairs, has been annoyed by the presumptuous impertinence of some of the neighbors, plus one of your Indian girls who has come over to my mother's property, set fire to boxes that had been gathered from the lawn and tells my mother to "mind her own business." We have never written Carlisle about this as we considered it too petty for "grown ups" and knowing that some who meddled were sooner or later to die of consumption, and therefore not unusual physically, and we were sorry for them. But as your agent upon this last visit has felt at liberty to question Paulah concerning the private affairs of me and my husband, I feel forced to write for an explanation. I am convinced that your agent presumed to overstep the bounds of his position, because there was no one but a girl and an old lady to question her audacity. The questions concerning me were these, "When does Mrs. Blackman come home?" "How long does she stay?"

"Does her husband come with her?" As your agent and I have never met and have no interest in each other, I challenge her right to ask such questions concerning me or my husband. All those to whom I have showed these questions agree that there is a slur implied. My husband and I have been married ten years and are living amicably and peacefully at the Belleclaire Hotel, where he is manager and part owner. A letter to any reputable business man of New York will give you my husband's credentials.
What was the motive underlying such questioning? Personally, I am a vocal teacher by profession and have large classes here in N.Y.

For seven years, I was one of the faculty at the Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore. While there I taught for four years, the President's eldest daughter Margaret. I am not boasting when I assure you it will be a very easy matter for me to appeal to the "man higher up".
Beulah was questioned as to the bracelets she wore. Where does your agent think that a girl living in a reputable house, with reputable people obtained those bracelets that she wore openly? The gold one was a gift, bought expressly for Beulah.
The silver one was mine and given to Beulah. I have given Beulah a suit, dresses, bought her a hat, and my sister has bought her shoes and bought her little trinkets from the seashore. Without our help as to apparel Beulah would not be clothed decently to go to Sunday School.
She is supplied with reading matter and is taken to reputable places of amusement. When I come to Phila. Beulah and my mother meet me at the station. Sometimes we dine in the city and go to a reputable place of amusement.

Your agent retreats the permission granted by you to my mother, that she might love Beulah at my sister's when mother visited me or my married brother, in New York.
Again, I ask the reason why?
My sister is a married woman with a six year old child, attending school.
Her husband has been with the Fidelity Trust Co. of Phila., since he was sixteen years of age. He is 36 or 37 now, and is head of the Real Estate Department. Why should not

Beulah remain with my sister, who has had at different times, girls from your school. Your agents tactics leaves no other conclusion but that the integrity and character of my people are attacked. What prompts your agent to such a move? For whom is she a cat's-paw? Beulah was also asked whether she "did Mrs. Satchel wash". She are not "poor white trash" that make use of the strength of those placed in our care. My sister has a laundress who takes the washing home, a man to handle ashes and attend to the lawn, and a woman to clean once a week. My sister's family consists of husband, his wife and child. My mother has known and employed for years an honest respectable colored man, married, holding a high position in his church.

He is paid for taking care of our dog when the house is closed! Your agent asks Beulah whether she takes the dog to the colored man and brings him home. The colored man lives in Leonard and must walk back and forth with the dog. If your agents informants had watched the affairs at 502 White Horse Pike, they might have seen me and Beulah raking the leaves, when Moses the colored man brought the dog home. When I am visiting my mother, Beulah does nothing with which I do not assent her, as the change is a welcome one. Beulah has a good home with a lady who has four children, all respectable married and well educated. Beulah has plenty of good food, as you would know to look at her, a nice room and a good clean bed. I have had long conversations with her concerning the truthful attitude of a white man towards her, so far as marriage was concerned. I did this because the son of one of the neighbors, called Ben-lah on the phone and chaffed her about some Leaside boy. But Benlah thinks she recognized the voice. I am not certain of the voice but I did not hesitate to tell her frankly that the unmarried men in H. Callingswood were not selecting her as a possible wife.

I am sorry to trouble you with so long a note, but unless I can receive satisfaction from the head of Leaside school, I must make my appeal to friends whose influence will count, as I am determined that my Mother who is one of the most inoffensive women in the world, shall not be made miserable by busy bodies. My Mother's sole desire is to have her own home, which is so full of memories of my dear father. at West Collingwood she is near the Harleigh Cemetery and can visit his grave, where her life and most of her interests lie buried. Each of her children is in a position to have mother at his or her home, but she begs us to let her remain there, until she is not active enough to keep home and Beulah is there only as company.

My mother has never laid a stone in anyones way and since my fathers death, almost ten years ago she has suffered there unnumbered If your agent wishes to learn particulars about each member of the family, suggest that she consult those who have known my parents and family for years. Why not consult Mr. Childs, a millionaire whose wife sends mother cards and brings her gifts from the Orient. Why not ask Prosecuting attorney Haupt whose boys visit us yet he who has known us nearly twelve years greatly annoyed over this treatment accorded my mother and I assure you I shall ascertain what steps I can take legally to prevent the neighbor's Indian maid trespassing on our property.

Trusting that I may hear from you the motives underlying the agent's questioning and the names of those who prod your agent to ask questions about strangers.

Blanche Sylvia Blackman.

Dear Friend:-

Mrs. T. H. Peacock, 502 White Horse Pike, West Collingswood, New Jersey, one of the girls' patrons, was asked to send her girl, Beulah Logan, back to the school for reasons which we thought sufficient cause for her removal. She has refused to do this. See letter enclosed.

Will you see Miss Johnston, 3718 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, get all necessary facts and then get Beulah and return her to the school. You will have to use much tact and diplomacy as we do not want to get involved in any quarrel between neighbors.

You can pay Beulah's expenses and she can sign a check to reimburse you, on her return.

Dear Madam:

The correspondence in the case of Beulah Logan has again come to my desk, and I am writing you to assure you that no reflection on your home was intended in the action taken in Beulah's case. In fact, there is nothing in the correspondence to indicate in the least that Beulah was brought to the school because of unsatisfactory conditions prevailing in your home. Under all the circumstances there appeared to be nothing left for me to do but to have Beulah return to the school.

I am sure if you had a daughter and placed her in school under similar circumstances, that the least you would expect where any controversy arose would be that those with whom you had placed her would remove her from any connections with such misunderstanding. You understand my position as head of this Institution is that of acting father of the boys and girls placed under my care. My actions in the case of Beulah Logan were the same as though she were my own daughter, and I hope that you will not consider that my actions are in the slightest a reflection upon your home.

Replying to your letter of March the 15th, this is to state that your daughter Beulah can be given permission to return home for the vacation months if you deposit the required amount to pay for her transportation. I enclose herewith a blank upon which a formal application for the leave of absence may be submitted to me for the files at this office.

In view of the fact that our Commencement Week exercises are not to be held this year until the third week in May, from the 16th to the 21st, it would be advisable to have Beulah continue with her work here until the close of school. She could probably then come home the last week in May or not later than the first week in June. However, if you would prefer to have her come home right after the first of May your request will be given further consideration.

Hoping that I shall hear from you soon, I am,

Dear Madam:

I have received your letter of the 20th instant and have noted that you are planning to have your daughter Beulah return to Carlisle by the opening day of school on September the 7th.

In accordance with your request transportation is being placed for her use at Lawtons and you should not have any difficulty about arranging it so that the entire day of her departure from home may be spent in Buffalo.

The agent of the Erie Railroad at Lawtons can give you definite information regarding the time of trains from Buffalo to Harrisburg.

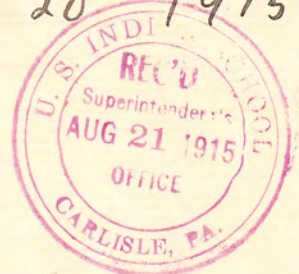

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Sir Mr Lipps

I got your letter asking me how I would like to have Beulah go back to Carlisle.

Well I want Beulah to go from Lawtons to Buffalo on the 7th of Sept on the 8.42 AM train.

and then from Buffalo to Harrisburg on the 7.55 PM I think if the time is not change since Frank Logan went back to Carlisle. on the evening of 7th Sept 1915 she will go from

New York Central Depot in Buffalo to Harrisburg on the 7.55 on the Penn RR I think and then from Harrisburg to Carlisle this is the way Frank Logan went back to Carlisle so I hope you can make it like that for Beulah Logan.

Your daughter Beulah was seen at this office yesterday and then requested that permission be given her to go home for the summer months. Herewith is enclosed a blank form upon which an application for her vacation may be submitted to be placed in our files.
