INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Information regarding pupils to test eligibility and whether in need of Federal aid.

Miss Mary E. Gray,

Box 94, Hogansburg, N. Y.

Dear Friend:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of February the 15th and to advise you that it will be referred to the Office at our Print Shop where your request regarding a subscription to the ARROW will be considered.

Inquiry has been made about the progress your sister Julia is making in violin music, and it has been learned that she is not being given special lessons. She is playing in the orchestra and is receiving general training there. Our instructor in music has also informed me that Julia does not have a violin bow of her own. If your father will send an amount of not less than two dollars a bow will be secured for her. I specify two dollars because it would not be advisable to pay less than that amount. However, whatever amount is sent will be expended to the best advantage.

Very truly yours,

My dear Sir:

Your letter of May the 24th was taken into consideration with your two girls and they again stated that they desire to return home for the summer months. I should prefer to have them remain here, but as you are anxious to have them continue with their school work the rest they could enjoy would probably benefit them and so I shall not interpose any objections to their going if you deposit what will be required to pay for your girls' transportation. Herewith is enclosed a blank upon which a formal request for the vacation may be placed on file.

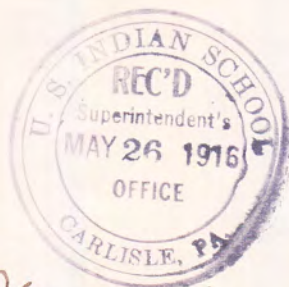

Hoping I shall hear from you soon how I can cooperate further, I am,

Dear Sir!—

As I was reading and looking over the reports I find that my two girls still there at school are doing splendidly. They seem to like the school and praise it in every way. I thought it would be a great change as well as a treat for them to come home for the summer months. I wrote and asked if they wanted to come of course they more than anxious to come and see us. With the understanding that they must go back in that fall they both agreed to do so other wise I would ^{not} send for them.

Julia $2.83

Minnie $1.07

I understand that I would have to pay the whole fare right down. But I thought there wouldn't be any harm done
if I asked about it, I would be so much obliged to you if you allow me to pay the one way for now. Of account of the two, it likes quite a bit besides they want to come with the same party. I could send it right away. I had every one of my girls have attended that school and never before have I sent for any one.
So kindly do me a favor
and let me know by return mail. Hoping to hear soon
Best wishes
