Mr. E. D. Mossman,
Superintendent, The Sisseton Agency,
Sisseton, S. D.

Dear Mr. Mossman:

Referring to your favor of November the 18th, this is to advise that there is some misunderstanding about the representation by the Lynd girls to their mother that they are expected to furnish their own clothing. The government provides everything that is considered necessary for the comfort of students, and I firmly believe that just a little more is furnished students here at Carlisle than in any other school. However, there are a number of wealthy students enrolled here who do have money of their own to purchase extra articles of clothing and a greater variety of styles than those furnished, but even such purchases are now being discouraged in order that there may be uniformity in clothes worn and to prevent dissatisfaction among those who can not afford to wear the finest shoes, coats and hats and who have to be content with what is furnished by the government.

You are advised, therefore, that if no money at all can be sent to the Lynd girls to purchase clothing they will be properly and comfortably clad. Will you please inform the girls' mother to that effect?

In this connection I beg leave to inform you that one of the Carlisle banks advised me this morning that they have been authorized to pay me an amount of fifty dollars for the use of the Lynd girls, but in view of the statements in your two letters of recent date that the Lynd family is in rather straitened circumstances I will arrange to have the amount returned if you so recommend.

Assuring you that I will gladly co-operate with you further as may be required to satisfy the Lynd family that their girls are well cared for and to reconcile the girls to the fact that they must not burden their parents with demands which are actually unnecessary, I remain,

Very respectfully,

HKM.

Supervisor O. H. Lipps,

Dear Mr. Lipps:

I write you again concerning the Lynde girls who recently went to Carlisle from this place. They wrote their mother that they were expected to furnish their own clothing. I write to ask if this is the case. This family is not in very good circumstances and can hardly afford this expense. If such is the case the parents will, of course, go hungry and send the money for the girls' use, but when they went to Carlisle they went with the understanding that their clothing would be furnished them and the parents would not have to bear the expense.

Please write and inform me as to just what arrangements have been made and what amount of money will be necessary for these girls.

Very respectfully,

G. D. Massman

Remarks and recommendations of superintendent with reference to eligibility and need of Federal aid:

Superintendent.

NOTE.—One of these blanks should be filled out by each pupil at Government boarding schools, preferably with the assistance of the superintendent or some one designated to act as his representative. If the superintendent is of opinion from the information given that the pupil is entitled to enrollment he should so indicate by signing the blank in the proper place and filing in the individual pupil's folder. In the case of pupils concerning whose eligibility or need of Government aid there is some doubt, superintendents should make proper remarks and recommendations in the space indicated and forward the form to the Indian Office for consideration.

My dear Mrs. Savage:

I was very glad to receive your letter of Oct. 30th containing information regarding your neices, Ethel and Delight Lynd. I was just thinking of them yesterday and wondering if they were in school or what they might be doing. Carlisle never had two nicer girls or better students than these two girls. In fact they were model young ladies in every respect.

I am greatly pleased to know that they are getting along so nicely. I am sure they will do well wherever they may go. Please give them my regards and tell them I would be glad to hear from them occasionally. Should I pass through your city sometime I shall take advantage of your invitation and stop long enough to meet you and to have a little visit with the girls.

Sincerely yours,

L/B

Superintendent.

My dear Mr. Lippes.-

Always remember
-ing your care and
kindness to my nieces
believe you will be interested in hearing from them, if even this one.

They both are still

here with Mr Savage & I - Delight works for The N.Y.C.
as typist on an Underwood
machine and Ethel is doing 8th Grade School work in Rosedale one of the best grammar schools
in the city.

She is a good student
and is intensely happy
in her work.

Should yourself or any member of the faculty ever come to Cleveland advise us and a call at our home would be greatly appreciated.

Mr Savage joins with the girls and myself in a most cordial greeting to you and your family.
Sincerely,
Mr & Mrs Savage

My dear Sir:

Replying to your favor of November the 16th, this is to advise you that the Lynd girls have referred an expense account of $5.20 to me for settlement, and though it has not been the custom at Carlisle for several years to reimburse individual students for money they expended for incidental expenses an exception will be made in their favor and they will be reimbursed for the amount mentioned above.

Very respectfully,

Dear Sir:

I write you concerning the expense account for the Lynd girls on their way to Carlisle at the request of their mother. I do not know the order of procedure but if it is proper to refund them their actual expenses, I will be glad to have to have you do it as the family is in hard circumstances and the girls have written for a trunk with padlock in which they can keep their clothes and treasures.

Please let me know if the school assumes this expense so I can tell their mother what is done about the matter.

Very respectfully,

Mrs. Ida J. Savage,

Dear Madam:

When I returned to my office yesterday morning your kind letter of the 12th instant and Acting Superintendent DeHuff's reply thereto was brought to my attention. Noting that Mr. DeHuff explained to you that in this school our work goes on as usual during the holiday season it seemed but fair to find out from your nieces direct what they prefer to do about accepting your invitation to spend several weeks with you. Learning from them that they are devoting extra time to their studies in order that they can be promoted the loss of several weeks time from school seems inadvisable and at their request I am conveying that information to you.

Trusting that you appreciate your nieces' position and that much good will result from their deciding to devote all the time they can get to their studies here, I remain,

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Superintendent.

Mrs. Ida J. Savage,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of the twelfth instant, in which you request that Misses Delight and Ethel Lynd be permitted to visit you during the Christmas vacation. We note particularly your statement that you do not wish them to lose any time here, but that you would like to keep them from two to four weeks.

I regret to say that it would not be possible for them to visit you without losing time from their classes. This is an industrial school, and we do not have such a thing as a Christmas vacation. Usually the length of the work day is shortened somewhat during the Christmas season, but the regular program of work and lessons goes right on.

I shall not make a decision in this matter, but shall leave it to be acted upon by the regular superintendent, who will probably be back here within a couple days.

Very sincerely yours,

JDD:SR

as can best be arranged.

The girls seem to be doing well, their
