INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Peter White who is living with Rev. W. Row has made a good impression in the acting field. The visiting agent has been asked if the could furnish any more boys like Peter.

A number of boys who are in country homes are requesting putting in their requests to stay for the winter.

Peter Barnaby has made a good impression on his Country father through his quiet disposition. He was given a horse to work that was very nervous and hard to control. Peter gets along so quietly with the animal that he has drawn the attention of those

My dear Friend:

I have just received a letter from Mr. Akain White of Gile, New York, stating that they have not heard from you for several months. As they are anxious about you I hope you can arrange to write at once.

I am replying to the letter and am informing Mr. White that this letter is being written to you. They will expect a letter from you and you should not delay about writing.

I hope the report you can make regarding your present home will be favorable and that you will not again keep your people waiting so long for a letter.

My dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of January the 16th, I will advise that your boy, Peter White, is now living at the home of Dr. Chas. Ley at Wycombe, Pennsylvania, where he is attending the public schools of that community.

I am writing him to the effect that you are anxious to hear from him and I am requesting him to write to you without delay.

It is hoped Peter's report regarding himself and the home in which he is now staying will be as favorable as the reports on Gile here, and that you will be pleased with what progress he is making.
