This boy is an orphan and came to us tagged in 1904. He has been an excellent student in both the academic and industrial departments and I am sure will make good at Carlisle. He completed the prescribed course here in 1914, and now wishes to enter Carlisle to continue with his education.

Mr. Herman J. Ross, Constable,

Dear Sir:

Your letter of February 2nd saying that you had Frank Kabogan in jail and asking us if we wanted him, was received last Saturday.

Owing to the absence of the disciplinarian I was not able to get in touch with you Saturday. The disciplinarian says that they do not want Frank Kabogan. We have been put to so much needless expense because of Kabogan's conduct that the only thing we desire is that you get him out of the country if you can possibly do so, as we have no further use for him here.

I thank you for having given me the information and for other favors in the past.

Very truly yours,

D:R

Chief Clerk in Charge.
