Paul wanted to remain in his outing home for the winter but we had information from Julia that you preferred to have him here so I sent for him to come in.

Mamie also returns from her outing home tomorrow so all your children will attend school here this winter. I am glad to tell you that all are doing well.

Dear Sir:

Paul Heaney, one of our pupils from your agency, comes to me with a request that you transfer some of his money here. You can send whatever amount you deem best and I will be glad to supervise his expenditure of the same.

Paul also has made a request to be sent home as he is not in very good health. I have asked the Doctor to examine him and make a report which he does as follows:

"I have Paul Heaney in the hospital since yesterday for the purpose of observing him. He has had several colds quite recently, but in my opinion there is nothing tubercular about his condition. I see no reason for sending Paul home at this time."
