My dear Mr. Wildshoe:

I take pleasure in stating, in reply to your letter of the 28th ultimo, that arrangements have been made for your daughter Rosa to take piano lessons and that she has begun the work.

In this connection I beg leave to state that your daughter seems to have made an entirely satisfactory start in her work at Carlisle and that I hope the reports she sends home from time to time in regard to this school and her work here will be the means of interesting other young people near your home in Carlisle to the extent that they too will apply for enrolment here.

With sincere regards, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Miss Dunagan:

Please note the contents of the letter herewith and let me know whether Mr. Wildshoe's request can be granted.

May I ask that a decision be reached before Monday, as I am leaving Monday evening to be absent a week and am anxious to reply to the letter before I go?

Sincerely,

Mary

Arrangements have already be made for her and she has started her lessons.

My dear Mrs. Wildshoe:-

I have your letter and am glad to inform you that your daughter, Rose arrived at the school in good condition a week ago yesterday. The glands of her neck are giving her some trouble but that is nothing serious and otherwise she is in good condition.

I note what you have to say about the girl who wanted to come to Carlisle with Rose. Mr. Colgrove was perfectly right in insisting upon this girl's return to Cushman. According to the new regulations, when a pupil once enrolls at one non-reservation school, she must stay in that school until she finishes the course. She can go home for her vacations or at the expiration of the term for which she enrolled but she cannot be enrolled at another non-reservation school. This is to do away with the habit of some Indian boys and girls of wandering around from one large school to another and I think it is going to be a pretty good rule.

With my kind regards to you and Mr. Wildshoe, I am

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

Mr. O. H. Lipps Supt.,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir,

I hope that my daughter Rosie Wildshoe has arrived safely in Carlisle, for I felt very uneasy about her on her way, and I hope that she may not get sick this winter. Rosie likes Carlisle school very well and spoke very grand about it, and we have tried to get some others to go back with her, but Colgrove wont help at all, one girl wanted to go very much with Rosie to Carlisle, she was to school last year in Cushman, and she did not like it, so Colgrove tried to force her back and refused her to Carlisle, he told her she signed, but she said she didn't, I believe the girl because she is not of age, I asked her uncle and aunt if they signed for Cushman they both ~~said~~ said no, they never signed nor did they wish to let her go back to Cushman but they both said if she wished to go with Rosie to Carlisle it would be alright so the girl really wanted to go with Rosie but Colgrove strongly refused her, saying it was too far; and I was told that Colgrove ~~said~~ said that Wildshoe ~~were~~ was very foolish to send their daughter to Carlisle, it was too far and too much expenes. You see by these words of Colgrove he proves he dont want to help any children to Carlisle school. so the girl I am talking of went to the Sisters school here at De Smet, afterwards this girl told me that the Supt: Colgrove didn't wont give her money because she did not go back to Cushmans. If we make a complaint to the Commissioner of Indian affear, he wont listen to no indians, but let Colgrove do as he pleases they are some other children who wanted to go to schools, but Colgrove wont help them only to Cushman school he says they should go. so they brought them to the mission school.

If Carlisle school was near here, I would send my small children there too, and I wonder if I am really foolish to think of this.

It is for the good of my daughter that she may learn and see beautiful things. that we have let her go when she wished to go to Carlisle.

Very respectfully
Mrs. Philip Wildshoe

Dear Mr. Wildshoe:

Your letter relative to your daughter's music lessons was received several days ago and turned over to Miss Dunagan, our music teacher.

She told me that she could make a place for Rosie at once so that she could continue her piano lessons. She further said that Rosie was interested in her music and was getting along very nicely. I am glad to give you these good reports about your daughter. She seems to be trying her best in very department and I think when she leaves Carlisle for good, she will have learned something worth while.

I received your answer, calling my daughter Rosa J. Wildshoe home, you are not a doctor, those doctors appointed by the Government to be in the Indian service are the ones most careless about Indian's health. they dont examine thoroughly.

Then you say for me to get Supt Colgrove approval. I have nothing to do with Colgrove, I know what I am doing I am the father of my children, taking the greatest care of my childrens health. I will hold you responsible, for my daughter health you take her to a town doctor in Carlisle Pa, to examine her lungs then you will find out. you say she is not sick. I know cases of Indian school children only when Indian pupil drops down helpless in sickness. then he is called sick

. My daughter Rosa J. Wildshoe will pay for the doctors examination you know one I dont trust on Government doctors, neither on their medecines, she was very healthy last year, now this year she has been sick almost the time she return there.
