Mr. James H. Eagle,

My dear James:

Your letter to Mr. Francis came at a very busy time for him and he had not time to consider your case before he had to leave for Fort Niagara, New York, where he will be located for a time as First Lieutenant in the United States Guards, National Army.

My advice to you would be to take up the matter of joining a military band yourself and then if any recommendation as to your character is needed, we shall be glad to furnish you with one.

Very truly yours,

Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:

Reference is made to your letter of July 18, 1917, (Ed-Emp 65571-17 GWB) regarding the appointment of Mr. James Holy Eagle, an Indian assistant at this school, as disciplinarian and band leader in the Indian Service.

I am enclosing herewith the formal application for appointment which has been prepared by Mr. Holy Eagle, as well as a sealed letter which was sent in with his application. I note the requirement of a detailed statement from me setting forth the qualifications of Mr. Holy Eagle for a position of this kind to accompany his formal application.

James Holy Eagle has a record here of being an excellent young man. He is a real Indian and shows it in his conversation and in his attitude towards life. Like most Sioux Indians here is a good worker. He is subject at times to sullen spells extending over a period of several days. He has never been held responsible at this school for the disciplining of students, and while acting as band leader here has had difficulty in controlling that organization. No heavy responsibility in discipline should be placed on James at first. He should be tried out where the responsibility is not heavy.

He has native ability as a musician and is an excellent performer on the cornet. He loves music and last Sunday gave a concert at which a march, the Carlisle Arrow, written by him was played. James is not a trained musician in any sense. All that he knows about bands and band music has been obtained from training in the band here, and while a capable instrumentalist his general knowledge of the responsibilities of band leadership is limited by his lack of experience. He was, however, in charge of the school band a great deal during Mr. Tyrrel's illness and until the outing party went out. Since that time he has organized a small band of ten or twelve members which has played during the summer months and does very well.

Mr. Holy Eagle has some skill as a printer and can do the mechanical part of the work. ~~However,~~ his lack of education limits him in other direction. I would recommend his appointment to a position of assistant disciplinarian and band leader at a small school as a try-out, but he should have close supervision for a time.

Very truly yours,

JF:R

Superintendent.

Mr. John Francis, Jr.,

Supt., Carlisle Indian School.

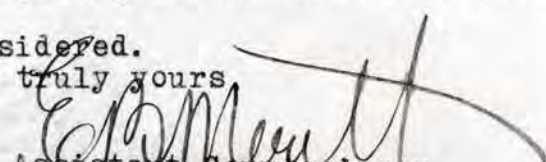

My dear Mr. Francis:

The Office is in receipt of your letter of July 6, recommending that Mr. James Holy Eagle, an Indian assistant at the Carlisle Indian School, be given a noncompetitive examination to test his fitness for appointment as disciplinarian and band leader in the Indian Service.

Indians are eligible for appointment to positions of this character without an examination of any kind. It is, therefore, suggested that Mr. Holy Eagle execute the inclosed form, wherever applicable, and return to this Office through you, accompanied by a photograph of himself taken within the last two years. A detailed statement from you setting forth the qualifications of Mr. Holy Eagle for a position of this kind should also accompany his formal application.

There are several vacancies in positions of disciplinarian throughout the Service, and provided you in all probability so recommend, a suitable opening can be found for which Mr. Holy Eagle can be considered.

Very truly yours,

Assistant Commissioner.

My daer Mr. Lipps:

I have a letter from Mr. Peel which gives the information that James Holy Eagle has signified his intention of taking the laborer's position at this place if offered him by the Office.

I would make you acquainted with the fact that owing to the matter of the per capita cost taking precedence over every other thing in the administration of this school, this position may be abolished this year. In fact, I believe it will be. I have put several things up to the Office and among them is a change in this position.

Under these conditions I am very sorry to say that I do not believe there will be a chance here for the young man just as this time. If I can work him in later I will certainly be glad to do so, for I am always very glad to get young Indian folk on the pay roll here.

Thanking you for attending to this matter so promptly for me, and trusting you may be able to satisfactorily explain the matter to James, I am, with best wishes,

I have a letter from Mr. E. K. Mr. Miller says that owing to the cut-down in appropriations, this position will likely be abolished so there will be no chance for you there just at this time.

I would advise therefore that you remain where you are until the end of this month. If you wish to come and see me about your future work at any time, I will be glad to talk with you.

It will be necessary to write to Mr. Miller that you will accept the offer he has made and then wait whether he will accept you, before we can make any arrangements for you to go. We will also have to get into communication with Mr. Dagenette about your fare out to California, that is whether he will be willing to advance the amount necessary. All this will take some time so my advice to you would be not to arrange to come back to the school until you hear from Mr. Lipps again. He will be back here next week.

My dear Mr. Miller:

The inquiry that is contained in your letter of June the 29th has been referred to James Holy Eagle, one of our Sioux young men who has been the assistant in our Print Shop during the last school year and who is now working at his trade in Shippensburg. As James is one of our best orchestra and band men and has taken charge as leader of the band during the absence of our regular band leader he should be a valuable man for you in the position you have to offer.

The liberty has been taken to advise James that you would probably not have an opening for him before September 1st and that he will be advised later whether or not you could consider him for the place. Just as soon as I hear what his decision is I will gladly cooperate further as may be required.

Noting that Pablo Herrera is doing so well I take this opportunity to extend thru you best wishes for his continued success and the hope that I will be called on from time to time to assist as may be desired.

My dear Mr. Dickey:

I am enclosing herewith a complete copy of our files on the subject of transportation furnished James Holy Eagle to the Carlisle Indian School, in the latter part of 1913. You will observe that according to this correspondence there is a possibility that you may know something about how James came into possession of the ticket on which he made this trip. Will you please write us at your earliest opportunity in full detail, setting forth everything known to you relative to this matter? The carbon copies enclosed herewith need not be returned.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Sir:

I regret very much to state, in reply to your letter of January the 28th, that I am not in a position yet to send you the remittance to cover the amount due you for transportation that was furnished at Valentine, Nebraska, in the fall of 1913 for the use of James Holy Eagle.

The matter is again being referred to the Superintendent of the Agency who has charge of finances belonging to James and to the Office of Indian Affairs at Washington, and it is hoped something definite can be learned soon.

The bill is too long overdue now and I will again make a renewed effort to effect a prompt settlement.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:-

we are today in receipt of check from The Treasury Department, Washington, D.C., for $30.06, covering ticket Valentine, Neb., to Carlisle, Pa., furnished Joe Muggins.

You will note, however, from our letter October 28th, that we are still outstanding payment for ticket furnished James Holy Eagle, and we would greatly appreciate advice as to when this will be settled.

Yours truly,

General Agent.

Dear Sir:

James Holy Eagle
Boarded the train at Valentine Neb. for Carlisle. He, however went to Pine Ridge and saw the Superintendent
Brennen, in person
and in my presence,
where he had fifty
dollars to his credit and arranged for his ticket.

Mr. Duncan arranged for the pupils to come to Carlisle, but I well remember James Holy Eagle who
saw the Superintendent, in person. He was permitted to join our party at Valentine and tickets were ordered definitely by the Pine Ridge Agency's office.

Relative to tickets,
when ready to start
for Carlisle with a party on Oct 17, 1913, I learned

That no tickets were available from Rushville to Carlisle
but an indefinite number had been placed from Valentine by order of Sup't.
Friedman. I therefore was directed by ~~Mr.~~ Duncan to pay cash fare for my party to Valentine and secure tickets at that point. Some one of the office force at Pine Ridge phoned to Valentine and ordered tickets which were handed me by the agent at that place. The Pine Ridge Agency then ordered James H. Eagle's ticket and I delivered it to him.

Very Respectfully
D. H. Dickey

My dear Sir:

Referring further to the unpaid charge for the ticket that was furnished James Holy Eagle in 1913, I submit below for your information a copy of a communication that was addressed to me yesterday by the Assistant Commissioner of Indian Affairs:

"Referring to payment of transportation furnished James Holy Eagle, please advise the representative of the Chicago and North Western Railway Company that the matter has been somewhat delayed but the Office will endeavor to expedite settlement thereof.

The Superintendent of the Pine Ridge Reservation is being called upon for an immediate report in the matter. Please reserve sufficient "Indian School, Transportation, 1915," to cover this payment of $30.06 in case it should be decided to pay from that fund."

Very respectfully,

HKM.

James Holy Eagle:

I submit below for your information a copy of a letter that was addressed to me from the Office at Washington on December the 12th:

"There is enclosed herewith a letter received from the Superintendent of the Pine Ridge Agency with reference to the application of James H. Eagle for his pro rata share of the tribal trust funds under the Act of March 2, 1907. Please take the matter up with James H. Eagle, advising him that the Office believes it to his best interest to retain these funds in the Treasury until such time as he is able to improve his allotment or is ready to begin work at a regular trade. Please also advise as to the debt which he states he owes to the School. You are also requested to make such recommendation as you deem advisable with the return of the enclosed letter at the earliest practicable date."

Very respectfully,

Mr. John R. Brennan,
Superintendent, Pine Ridge Agency,

My dear Sir:

On the afternoon of April the 9th a telegram as follows was received here from Ponca City, Oklahoma, for James H. Nagle, one of the Pine Ridge Sioux young men who was enrolled here in October, last:

"Ticket agent will furnish you two tickets. Leave Monday sure".

Since then two tickets have been made available with the local ticket agent for James' passage from Carlisle to New York City.

I have also learned from James himself that the signer of the telegram, "TIMONICO", is the band-leader who is recruiting a band for the Miller Brothers' 101 Ranch Show, and as the matter will again come up for consideration I would be pleased to have you advise by wire what action you would recommend.

Very respectfully,
