September 17, 1917.

Mr. Andrew Connor
Fort Riley, Kan.

My dear Andrew:

I was very glad to receive your letter of September 10, 1917. We have quite a number of soldier boys, some of them have managed to come back and give us a visit. George May and some of the soldiers have stopped to pay us a visit. Co. G went away last week. We took the band and boys down, and played them out of town to the tune of "The Old Gray Mare". James Wheelock is the director of the band, and the way it is improving is very wonderful. Mr. Duran has appointed new officers throughout the school battalion, and he has a very fine set of officers.

Nora Buffalo had appendicitis, and was operated on. For a long time we despaired of her life, but now she is getting along fine. Edward Williams is very low with pneumonia. I hope and pray he will get better.

Next week the band will play two afternoons at the Carlisle Fair. I will arrange to have the boys and girls attend it one afternoon. The next week the band will play at the Hagerstown Fair in Maryland. Our football team is fine. Glenn Warner gave us a start and Coach Harris is getting after him. We have to hold the first string back. They are filled with pep.

Jefferson Perry and Moses Thomas have been drafted, and ordered to report at their training camps.
Good-bye

Sincerely yours,

Superintendent.

Took Riley, Kan. Sept. 10, '17.

Dear Mr. Francis:

As it has been several days ago since I received your letter, I suppose you think I have forgotten dear old Corbille. However not, as I am still on the job. I only work about 14 hours per day. and as you can see or imagine how my chances are for writing. I was down town one evening and had a picture taken. but it was not satisfactory so I will have another taken later on. although I do not feel as if I would like to have my picture travel the country, after leaving the way I did.

I find army life a pleasure, although it grieves me to see how some have to be treated. Since I have joined the army I have found a helping hand, at every turn. And during my examination not even a cross word was spoken to me. I am a common clerk in our Canton today working, direct under the major.

I find my work very pleasant, as I have the pleasure of seeing the smiling faces of our men in my regiment most every day. Our regiment is composed of about 1600 men. Men of all classes, styles and natures.

Many are leaving every day for the foreign ports. But why and how we are kept back is not known. Some times we hear we are a going, and then the order is cancelled. so we are still remaining.

We have a large bunch of drafted men here now. The poor fellows, I rode up to their camp yesterday and it is a pity to see them. Thank God. I am not in the bunch. here we have all the pleasure and enjoyment that can be afforded us. up there guards are stationed all around. so no chance for their escape. we have had a few fall out and come up.

My partner, and I got a little separately he is in the 20th Cavalry and I in 20th S. Harington. Each Out in 13th. During our mingling here, every once in a while we run into an old Carlisle Student.

I understand my sister has went to Carlisle. Well, I see where our family is commencing to separate. I enjoy reading home letters as things must have change considerable, since they left home. which is 3 years and 3 days ago.

I certainly am glad I am in a place where I can repay the Government, for what it did for me. Although I can never repay the school. Should I leave here for the East I make drop in and see you before I complete my journey. We are all anxious to go at any moment's notice. Should they have a train ready and give the call. we all could be on our way out in a half an hour over,

We certainly put in one month of torture here during the latter part of June and 1st of July. We had no shade trees, and slept in tents, and eat right out in the sun on the ground. I did not notice it as bad. but the boys who was not use to such treatment suffered.

We have some fine officers here, men who are as kind to us as our mothers. The Major reminds me of my own father. And I don't have to get out so early as the others, am mostly under my own supervision, so if all men sailed under my colors we would all be free and happy.

We have a great many new officers, here and a great many old ones. and a bunch of new-comers were sent to Virginia. last week. We were changed from Cavalry to Artillery. and I understand totally changed back.

I was out on a mounted post yesterday. and I can thank myself for joining the Cavalry. As what a pleasure riding around is. although the Cavalrymen are classed as a rough bunch of rookies. but we are always ready at any moment's notice to hold up the right.

When I first was assigned I was used as a file closer. and when we were assigned to troops the re-enlisted men held places as corporals and sergeants. and several are falling and my days for promotions will soon be near.

All I will need is a start and time. my aim is high and if I am not over taken soon by weapons of war. I shall reach my aim. as chances are good. At Quins I did not make such a mark. but here I can plainly see good chances.

my age holds me down a little.

I try and get my picture taken soon and I'll send one. I guess my school days are over. now and traveling alone is just in order. however I am not afraid. although one more day in old room eleven. would look good.

Many of the boys are getting hurt. some sent home. etc. on account of tuberculosis. We had a tubercular test the other day and when he came to me all was necessary was a glance. and I was passed on.

Pardon me for writing on both sides of my paper. I was afraid of over weight. all we have to get for writing is stamps.

Well, I must close as time is flying. and Army life is kept on the go. I remain as a member of the 21st Century Student Council.

Camp Logan, Texas.

March 30, 1918.

Dear Mr. Francis:

Received your letter a week or so ago. and as ever was glad to be remembered, and attentions called to such matters. although my insurance was taken out, Dec. 9th, and since then I have acted as Insurance agent for our Company. Out of 168 men only 15 took out $5,000, & 3 deserters not insured and the rest of us took out the full amount.

Our weather is wonderful, and all are still moving onward, with the same ambitions, that we started our recruit days with. So you can imagine what a jolly band of regulars we are. The only disappointment we have has was the change from Cavalry to Artillery. But as we move on in life we should not mind such little things

For my part, I'd sooner be in this branch of service, as it's much higher than Cavalry & Infantry. We have a great deal of schooling to attend together with both mounted and dismounted drills. The majority of men down in this camp are from the militia and the regulars don't seem to get along with them. The first few nights they tried to run the regulars out of town, but didn't succeed very well.

We have our sympathies for the drafted men, and pity them more or less, so among them we have no troubles. We hit out on the target range with the 3 in. guns a regiment of regulars put it all over the militia. The Regulars reputation here is a bunch of military police beaters, etc. Well, we may be a tough bunch, but I am quite sure will be there at our post and serious on anyone else who is not am going to put it over on me.

My duties are on the scout detail and I am getting along fine. Here we are mounted and I suppose when we get over there, will be dismounted. I am sorry we are lingering along so much here, and our prospects for going over look poor for a month or two yet.

I suppose the competitive drills are over, and I am in doubt as to which companies I should side in with. Since I joined the army I can see how small our school drilling is compared to our Armies. We are among men who have had from 9 months to 30 years of service and what a pleasure it is for us young fellows to be with those old ones. Men who say, - Boys we are no older as you are for the coming events and are more than pleased to be with you.

That I must soon end my letter as I am in charge of quarters and will have to be in the orderly room for this afternoon.

I will have to ask the pardon of miss-spelled words etc. as I can plainly see where loafing in school takes. But however I am far better off than the majority of our supposed to be well educated men of this world.
I always thought that I have a hard time among the others in the army. But I am picked for office work and such many times.
The place I fall down on is that I am not a stenographer. Out side of that I get along good. When I get on Guard,
I am picked for the colonel orderlies. when I stand for a military examination
I make the marks easy.

Well I must close. hope you get that these few lines will find you as they have me.

Mr. Andrew E. Connor, Hdq. Troop,
21st U. S. Cavalry,
Fort Riley, Kansas

My dear Andrew:

I am in receipt of your letter of October 10, 1917. I am glad that you are getting along nicely and I thank you for your picture. It is fine for the use to which I expect to put it.

You may be interested to know that J. R. Wheelock is leader of our band. It is coming on fine, we're going to have another one. We also have a fine football team. We defeated Albright sixty to nothing, Franklin and Marshall sixty-three to nothing and were defeated by West Virginia twenty-one to nothing. The defeat came in the last five minutes of the game. The umpire claimed that Nick Lassa slugged a man and penalized us for twenty-seven yards and then penalized us for five yards for an off-side play. This got the boys mad and in the air and in the mix-up West Virginia ran over us. We play the Navy next Saturday and the Army next month at West Point. We have a real team and I suggest that you watch us smoke.

Take care of yourself, my boy. I know that you are like every other Carlisle boy and will do your duty to your country in its hour of need. I am always glad to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

Fort Riley, Kan. Oct. 10, 1917.

Dear Mr. Francis:

Received your letter a few days ago, and was glad to hear from you, and also about the school. As army life is far different than school, and we all enjoy it.

We read a great deal about the outside world, but don't see much. And War looks as good to day as when our nation was called to arms. Well, what is a grander sight, than to see us all ready for the fight, that are due to those who remain at home.

Many of our men go up and see the drafted men, and when they get back you ought to see how our fellows look at the situation. Here all are happy and full of fun. up there seemingly all are dead, and unhappy.

Having fine days, but cold nights which are noticed very much by us now, and thank God it does not extend to all. I am from Northern state and many here are from the sunny South.

As far as I know now, I believe we are to remain here until spring. and when their news come, many a head bent low as all are anxious for moving forward, and not lingering so long. A great many of our men are old timers, and all are as willing to go as the younger men. It is a pity to have so many of our dear old gray headed men in the army. although it is a pleasure and a comfort for us to talk to them.

We have a fine band here and enjoy their music. and when we march to their music, we have music.

I am still on my old post, and don't know how long I'll remain at it.
a couple of men got killed the other day
so we are doing some work.

Foot ball etc. is in full force here,
and all batteries have Victrolas etc. so We are not far behind times. All that is lacking, and lacking to all is peace.

Fall has come again, and just a thought where we will all be next fall. We have no pretty scenery around here like in other parts of the country. As far as I can see is nothing but Green homes like in summer time.

I'll enclose a picture of a 21st U.S. Cavalry recruit taken about a week ago. I don't know for sure where we will be able to write from again.

Our 20th band is playing now. It certainly is great. Pardon my errors and mistakes as I am called out frequently every few minutes.

Remain as ever a recruit,

Andrew C. Connor.

For the Company.

NOTE —The Company's charge is based upon the character of the property, of which its value is an element, and its value must be declared in writing by the shipper unless its character is otherwise disclosed. When goods are hidden from view by wrapping, boxing or other means and the company is not notified of the character thereof, the shipper's declaration of value may be made by notation, "not exceeding $50.00" or "not exceeding $50.00 or 50 cents per pound, actual weight."

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of the receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignor, the consignee and all carriers handling this shipment, and shall apply to any reconsignment or return thereof.

2. The rate charged for carrying said property is dependent upon the actual value of the property which must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and applies only upon property of an actual value not exceeding fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds. If the actual value is greater than fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or exceeds fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds, such actual value must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and excess charges for such greater value must be paid therefor in accordance with the lawfully published tariffs of the Company.

3. Said property is accepted as merchandise only, and the Company shall not be liable for the loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt, as the Company does not transport such articles except through its money department.

4. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for —

- a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage or evaporation.
- b. The death, injury or escape of live freight.

5. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by —

- a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.
- b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
- c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing or addressing.
- d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in Customs warehouse.
- e. The examination by, or partial delivery to, the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.

2. Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the Company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

6. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

7. If no express company has an agency at the point of destination, said property may be carried to the agency nearest or most convenient thereto and the consignee notified.

8. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the point of delivery or at the point of origin within four months and suits must be instituted within two years after delivery, or in case of failure to deliver after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed.

Unless claims are so made and suits so brought the carrier shall not be liable.

9. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper, the Company, may at its option, return the property to the consignor and collect the charges for transportation both ways.

10. The Company shall not be required to make free delivery at points where it maintains no free delivery service nor at any point beyond its established and published delivery limits.

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries

11. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the Company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations and customs of oversea and foreign carriers, custodians and governments, their employees and agents.

12. The Company shall not be liable for any loss, damage or delay to said shipments over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations or customs.

13. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assessable with foreign, governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers or depots, and there held pending examination, assessments, and payments, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the Company shall have become a lien on the property.

NOTE—The Company's charge is based upon the character of the property, of which its value is an element and its value must be declared in writing by the shipper unless its character is otherwise disclosed. When goods are hidden from view by wrapping, boxing or other means and the company is not notified of the character thereof, the shipper's declaration of value may be made by notation, "not exceeding $50.00" or "not exceeding $50.00 or 50 cents per pound, actual weight."

SPECIAL NOTE.

This form must be executed in duplicate when a child is transferred from a reservation to a nonreservation school. The Superintendent of the nonreservation school will retain the original for his files, and the duplicate shall be deposited in the reservation school records. The reservation superintendent should send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate as provided by law. All the blanks must be properly filled in every case.

If the information called for on any part of the blank is not known, that fact should be stated. No space should be left unfilled. Whether the parents are living or dead, their names must be given.

The person who signs the blank as consenting to the transfer should indicate his relation to the applicant by marking out the word "parent," "guardian," or "next of kin," leaving unmarked only the title appropriate to the signer.

INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

That no Indian pupil under the age of fourteen years shall be transported at Government expense to any Indian school beyond the limits of the State or Territory in which the parents of such child reside or of the adjoining State or Territory. (35 Stat. L., 781.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case; but in all cases where the parents are living they should first be consulted.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations or Indian schools to nonreservation schools.

Dear Mr. Light:

I have received the letter that was addressed to Superintendent Lipps at this school on the 18th instant by your Mr. Berkness in behalf of Andrew E. Conner, but before favorable consideration can be given the request for his enrolment there must be noted in the space provided for the purpose on the blanks I return to you herewith complete information regarding the young man's attendance at school and the academic work he has completed.

It will also be appreciated if information can be secured which would aid in considering the request in so far as the boy's conduct in the past is concerned.

Trusting it will not be an inconvenience to cooperate further in completing arrangements for the transfer desired, I am,

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Lipps,

I am transmitting herewith, in duplicate, an application signed by Frank Conner in behalf of his son Andrew E. Conner for enrollment in your school for a term of 5 years. I trust that you will be in position to permit the enrollment of this young man. He has no opportunities where he lives. He desires to add to his knowledge and to learn some trade that will yield him support for the time to come. If application is favorably acted upon, I shall be pleased to receive duplicate for my files.

Dear Supt. Lipps:

~~for the enrollment~~ I return herewith the application of Frank Connor for the enrollment of Andrew Connor in your school for a period of five years. I have caused to be entered therein, the school attendance of the pupil since 1908.

Find enclosed also, two letters of persons who have known this boy since he has left this school. They give him a good record and a good standing. I think you will find him better than the average applicant for enrollment in Indian Schools. He is not a "school tramp".

Very respectfully,

Wm. L. Sig. Jr.
Superintendent.

Mr. Andrew Connor,

Orange, Wisconsin.

My dear Friend:

Superintendent Light of the Hayward School has forwarded to me several very excellent recommendations in your behalf, and I am having it arranged so that a ticket will be provided you for your use to Carlisle by the North Western Company's agent at Spooner, Wisconsin.

I trust Spooner will be a convenient point for you to start from for Carlisle and that you can arrange to come on as soon as possible after the opening day of school on September the 7th.

Very truly yours,

HKM.

My dear Friend:

I have received your letter of the 23rd instant and take pleasure in stating that an application for your enrolment at Carlisle was forwarded here with a letter that was addressed from Superintendent Light's office on the 18th instant. I asked the Superintendent to let me have additional information regarding you and just as soon as that is received the application for your enrolment can be given further consideration.

I hope I can advise you soon that your enrolment will be effected.

Very truly yours,

HCM.

Dear Sir:

Received letter and blanks from your acting superintendent for my enrollement.

If I don't have to stand any expenses and stand good chances to enter Will be there,

My folks are in favor of my going, am Non-reservation Am 19 years old, Chippewa, Am not afflicted with tuberculosis or any disease which would be a menace to other pupils.

I am well all the time,
Have finished 8th Grade in our Common Graded School and am not able to go any further.
as I wish too.

I wrote to Mr Wm A. Light, of Hayward, and received blanks and filled them out and returned to him.

Will appreciate your help to enter, if neglected by Mr Light.

Yours truly,

From Andrew E. Connor

Dr. L. Webster Fox,

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dear Dr. Fox:

I am taking the liberty to send Andrew Conner, one of our young men, to you with this letter. He has suffered an injury to his right eye and any relief that can be given him will be appreciated.

Thanking you for the many favors that have been extended us, I remain,

Very truly yours,

HKM.
