INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. My dear Mr. Johnson:

Edward Ambrose has just been to see me and states that he has just learned of the death of his uncle, Dave Marcell, who died Jan. 26th. Edward states that his Uncle Dave was the only relative he had that took any interest in him and that he left all of his stock there with his uncle to take care of. He also states that so far as he knows, his own allotment is not being properly cared for as well as the allotments of his deceased father and mother and brother. He believes that now that his Uncle Dave is dead that his property will not be properly looked after and he is anxious to go home and look after it. His present thought is to return to Carlisle after a while and he is very anxious to go to the Ford Automobile Works to take the students' course there. I would be willing to let him go if he remained in school and qualified himself but after all, it seems to me foolish for a young man who has the amount of land that Edward owns to think of doing anything else than settling down upon it and farming and raising stock. He has never been thoroughly satisfied here although his record during the past year has been very good. He is very anxious to have you send him money sufficient to pay his way home.

Please consider his request and advise me what you think is for his best interests. Also, it might be well if you write him a letter giving him full information regarding his own allotment, and that of his deceased father and mother and brother and also advise him regarding his stock. He is very anxious to hear from you.

Very respectfully,

Superintendent.

My dear Mr. Johnson:

Please find enclosed herewith a self-explanatory letter that was brought to this office by Edward Ambrose.

The transaction that is referred to by Edward was allowed at his own request and when it seemed there was no other way to help Max Favel to get away from Carlisle. In view of the fact that Edward favored Max when the latter needed help it is earnestly recommended that you now assist as may be required to collect from Max the amount of $16.00 that is referred to in the enclosed letter.

It is only fair to state further that while Max was here at the time Edward missed his gold watch from his room and there is good and sufficient reason to believe that Max made away with it.

Will you please advise me if further assistance can be given from this end?

Very respectfully,

HKM.

Superintendent.

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Replying to your letter of the 15th instant relative to Edward Ambrose's request for monthly allowances of $10.00 in order that he may take piano and violin lessons, I have to advise that I would suggest that you transfer a reasonable sum to Edward's credit here and let us expend this money under supervision for his benefit. We expect to have a piano and violin teacher soon, and while we will give free instruction in the orchestra and band, we will make a nominal charge for piano lessons, -say about 25¢ per lesson, so Edward will not need anything like $10.00 for this purpose. For your information, I will state that Edward appears to be in earnest and shows every indication of making good.

Sept. 8th, 1915.

Mr. J. M. Johnson,

Dear Mr. Johnson:

When your letter of the 12th ultimo was referred to our Band Leader upon the latter's return to school from a short period of leave he stated that Edward Ambrose could not expect to get any good value for an expenditure of $75.00 for two clarinets. Now that Edward has also returned to Carlisle the entire matter was again taken up and it has been decided that for an amount of about $100.00 very satisfactory instruments could be purchased at the special prices that would be made us. It is respectfully recommended, therefore, that an amount of $100.00 be allowed Edward Ambrose to pay for the purchases above enumerated.

When Edward was seen at this office he asked me to recommend that an additional amount of about $50.00 be sent here for his use during the school year. As he accumulated but a small amount of earnings during the vacation months it is believed that such an amount should be allowed him and I would suggest that favorable consideration be given the request he has made for the additional $50.00. Edward has conducted himself properly here and is making a satisfactory record in so far as his work is concerned.

-2- Mr. J. M. Johnson, Superintendent.

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I have just had a talk with Edward Ambrose about the matter you referred to in your letter of September the 28th, addressed direct to Edward.

Believing that he can make very good use of at least one of the instruments he desires to purchase it is respectfully recommended that an amount of $51.75 be allowed him to make the purchase. That is a cost that has been specially quoted on account of the fact that the purchase would be made thru this school.

Edward is also anxious to have placed to his credit an amount that he can use to purchase clothing. Let me ask that $35.00 be transferred here for that purpose, unless it is believed that none of the money to his credit now should be allowed him for personal uses.

March 7, 1916

Mr. O. H. Lipps,

Dear Mr. Lipps:

Conditions in the Okanogan District have been unsettled since Mr. Emery's resignation but I have just transferred Mr. Talbert, the farmer from Nespelem, to that district and have instructed him to look after Edward Ambrose's cattle. Mr. Emery, with the consent of Dave Marcell, and, I believe, Edward's approval, had turned over the cattle to a responsible white renter by the name of King who was to care for them for the usual share of one half the increase. The temporary farmer submitted a different proposition sometime ago proposing that E. F. Schrock, a cattle permittee, look after them. I am not very favorably inclined to that proposition as Schrock has too many cattle of his own to justify his interesting himself very much in Edward's and I am instructing Mr. Talbert to see if some better arrangement cannot be made and to personally interest himself in Edward's behalf.

As soon as I hear definitely from Mr. Talbert as to the condition of Edward's cattle I shall write either you or him again.

I think as you do, that Edward's best opportunity lies in the land which he and his relatives own on the reservation. The Indians in the Okanogan District have splendid opportunities to become stockmen and it is gratifying to know the progress that some of the younger people have made in that direction in the last three or four years. There are several herds of from 40 to 60 head owned by young men not very much older than Edward. I question the advisability of attempting to make a machinist of Edward, not that he may not have the capacity for mechanical training, but because it would develop his ambition in a line which would probably prevent his ever making use of his opportunities as a farmer and stock grower. It seems to me that the best possible training for him would be a season's work for some wideawake, up-to-date Pennsylvania farmer. There are a number of young men in the Okanogan District whose influence over boys of Edward's makeup is not good and each year that Edward remains away from them the weaker their influence becomes.

For that reason, if for no other, it seems to me advisable for him to remain another year at Carlisle
but I would urge that he be trained toward, rather than away from, the farm.

Very respectfully,

Superintendent.

Mr. John M. Johnson,

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I transmit herewith a communication in which Edward Ambrose renews his request for permission to use some of his funds to purchase an instrument, and it is referred for such consideration as you believe should be given it. Edward can use one of the school's instruments while he is at Carlisle and an instrument of his own would be of greatest help when he is no longer enrolled here.

The price quoted is the special low cost at which the instrument would be furnished this school and excellent value would be given for the money expended.

Noting in Edward's letter that he wants to use an amount of $30.00 for general expenses this summer, I must state that an opportunity to earn money will be given him and he should not be allowed to draw any of his funds for the purpose intended.

-2- Mr. John M. Johnson, Superintendent.

Your letter of a previous date in regard to the arrangements you were making for the care of Edward's cattle was given him to read, so he understands fully what you are doing to protect his property while he is away from his home.

In this connection I take the liberty to state that Edward is anxious to take special violin lessons during the summer months at a cost of about 75 cents per lesson once each week. He should be able to defray the expense of such lessons from his earnings and at a later date you will be advised definitely whether he can do so or whether his account will have to be drawn on to settle the bill.

Another boy is also talking of coming to school. Both of them are band musicians.

For my part I am working very hard.

Mr. Fred C. Morgan
Superintendent Colville Agency
Nepelem, Washington

Dear Sir:-

Referring to your letter of the 4th inst relative to Edward Ambrose who has made application to you for some of his aunt's funds to see him through an Automobile School, I have to advise that this young man was given the best chance possible to get an automobile training when he was placed under the cutting with the Ford Motor Company, Detroit, Michigan over a year ago. Before he completed the prescribed course, he requested and was given a furlough to go to his home on business, he said.

Inasmuch as he has had his opportunity and did not make good, I cannot make the recommendation he desires.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE

Colville Agency, Nespelem, Wash.

December 4, 1917

Mr. John Francis, Jr.,
Supt. Carlisle Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Mr. Francis:

Edward Ambrose, an allottee of this reservation who has been attending the Carlisle Indian School during the past few years, came to the office yesterday with an aunt, named Eshen Teeias. Edward had persuaded his aunt that the proper thing to do in his case was to advance him $500 for the purpose of defraying his expenses in attending the Michigan State Auto School of Detroit, Michigan. Edward states that the tuition for six months will cost him $200 and that his room and board will cost him $50 per month, making a total of $500.

This boy is a stranger to me and I know nothing of his past record and I am writing you for a recommendation in this matter.

It appears that he recently left Carlisle to visit sick relatives near Toppenish, Washington. I have recently learned that he visited the reservation about the 4th of July. Edward stated that he desired to leave as soon as possible and the reason that he wanted to go back to Carlisle was for the purpose of securing a recommendation which he appeared to think was necessary to enter the auto school. After thinking the matter over I am inclined to believe that Edward desires to assist his aunt in spending some of her money. She has considerable money to her credit also is interested in several allotments on the Yakima Reservation.

I desire to assist this boy if he really means business and would appreciate a recommendation from you in the matter.

Very respectfully,

Fred C. Morgan
Superintendent.
