SPECIAL NOTE.

This form must be executed in duplicate when a child is transferred from a reservation to a nonreservation school. The Superintendent of the nonreservation school will retain the original for his files, and the duplicate shall be deposited in the reservation school records. The reservation superintendent should send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate as provided by law. All the blanks must be properly filled in every case.

If the information called for on any part of the blank is not known, that fact should be stated. No space should be left unfilled. Whether the parents are living or dead, their names must be given.

The person who signs the blank as consenting to the transfer should indicate his relation to the applicant by marking out the word "parent," "guardian," or "next of kin," leaving unmarked only the title appropriate to the signer.

The enrollment of Indian pupils in nonreservation schools is governed by the "Rules for the Indian Service, 1913," sections 12, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, 36, 112, 113, 114, 117, 118, 124 (b).

The Rules should be consulted before filling out the application blanks.

For the Company.

NOTE—The Company's charge is based upon the character of the property, of which its value is an element, and its value must be declared in writing by the shipper unless its character is otherwise disclosed. When goods are hidden from view by wrapping, boxing or other means and the company is not notified of the character thereof, the shipper's declaration of value may be made by notation, "not exceeding $50.00" or "not exceeding $50.00 or 50 cents per pound, actual weight."

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of the receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignor, the consignee and all carriers handling this shipment, and shall apply to any reconsignment or return thereof.

2. The rate charged for carrying said property is dependent upon the actual value of the property which must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and applies only upon property of an actual value not exceeding fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds. If the actual value is greater than fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or exceeds fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds, such actual value must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and excess charges for such greater value must be paid therefor in accordance with the lawfully published tariffs of the Company.

3. Said property is accepted as merchandise only, and the Company shall not be liable for the loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt, as the Company does not transport such articles except through its money department.

4. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for —

- a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage or evaporation.
- b. The death, injury or escape of live freight.

5. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by —

- a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.
- b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
- c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing or addressing.
- d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in Customs warehouse.

e. The examination by, or partial delivery to, the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.

f. Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the Company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

6. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

7. If no express company has an agency at the point of destination, said property may be carried to the agency nearest or most convenient thereto and the consignee notified.

8. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the point of delivery or at the point of origin within four months and suits must be instituted within two years after delivery, or, in case of failure to deliver after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed.

Unless claims are so made and suits so brought the carrier shall not be liable.

9. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper, the Company may, at its option, return the property to the consignor and collect the charges for transportation both ways.

10. The Company shall not be required to make free delivery at points where it maintains no free delivery service nor at any point beyond its established and published delivery limits.

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries.

11. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the Company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations and customs of oversea and foreign carriers, custodians and governments, their employees and agents.

12. The Company shall not be liable for any loss, damage or delay to said shipments over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations or customs.

13. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assessable with foreign, governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers or depositories, and there held pending examination, assessments and payments, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the Company, shall have become a lien on the property.

Mr. Meyer,

In reference to Henry Greenleaf
I have no record of his work, he was last winter detailed to the tailor-shop, but Mr. Nannast not being here I could not ascertain his record.

Respectfully,

Sir:-

I respectfully advise you that Henry Greenleaf, student of your school, who ran away from his country home is in Howells, New York. I just learned this today and hope the information will assist you in returning him to school, if you desire to do so.

Very respectfully,

Oscar Beckner

Principal.

Henry Greenleaf went to the country May 28, 1915 and deserted July 3, 1915. Complaints about his unsatisfactory conduct came to the school within two weeks after he was placed out. I attach the letter which came from his employer.

My dear Sir:

Your letter of the 1st instant was received here this morning and when Henry Greenleaf was seen at this office about the protests of his mother against his enlisting in the United States Army he stated that he has not contemplated taking the action reported by his mother.

Evidently there is some misunderstanding somewhere and it will be appreciated if you can assure the mother that Henry does not seem to have any desire to leave this school at this time.

Remarks and recommendations of superintendent with reference to eligibility and need of Federal aid:

Superintendent.

NOTE.—One of these blanks should be filled out by each pupil at Government boarding schools, preferably with the assistance of the superintendent or some one designated to act as his representative. If the superintendent is of opinion from the information given that the pupil is entitled to enrollment he should so indicate by signing the blank in the proper place and filing in the individual pupil's folder. In the case of pupils concerning whose eligibility or need of Government aid there is some doubt, superintendents should make proper remarks and recommendations in the space indicated and forward the form to the Indian Office for consideration.

I hereby certify that Henry Greenleaf is shown by the records of this school to have been born in 1894. The records do not state the place of his birth. He is a member, however, of the Chippewa tribe of Indians of the Red Lake band and his post office is given as Ponemah, Minnesota. Ponemah is situated on the Red Lake Reservation and it is probable that he was born there as stated.

Dear Sir:

Henry Greenleaf, one of the boys from this school who intended to enlist in the United States Navy, took the question of his enlistment up with his mother. She does not want him to enlist but wants him to come home.

Henry's enrollment has expired. He advises me that he has not been sworn in and he wishes to go and see his mother in Minnesota. If he does this he will leave here with the home party on Monday, June 11, 1917.

Please advise me before Monday whether Henry has so obligated himself to the Navy that he cannot go home and if it be possible to arrange for him to report to a recruiting office in Minneapolis and be sent to one of the ships where Carlisle boys are.

Dear Sir:

Confirming telegram of June 6th, copy attached, you are advised that upon receipt of your telegram concerning the enrollment of Henry Greenleaf, the matter was taken up by telephone with the Principal of the Cross Lake School, in which district this family resides. As soon as the mother could be reached by messenger she was interviewed by Mr. Breckner, Principal, who advised over the telephone that Henry's mother stated in effect that she had sent him to Carlisle to get an education and not to serve in the army and desired him to be permitted to return home for a vacation, after which she would be willing to have him return to Carlisle for further schooling, if he desired to re-enrol.

Our records, however, show that Henry is passed twenty one years of age and legally competent to make his own decision in the matter.
