Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Lydia has been well satisfied in this home and has done her best for Mrs. Sawyer. She was placed in two different homes since September but because of her desire to return to Carlisle she did not do well. Since her transfer to Mrs. Sawyer's home she decided to apply herself and has made good.

The Sawyer family are plain, raising comfortable people and Lydia fits very well in this home. Her school attendance has been regular. Her school work is about the average. She is rather reserved in school and does not do as much oral work as she should.

Lydia attends the Methodist Church which is nearer her home than her own Episcopal church and because another Indian girl living near her attends Methodist also. Family attend Reform Church.

Lydia Plenty Horse, one of the Rosebud girls enrolled here, has come to this office with a request that you be asked to send back to her here the payment check in the amount of $20.00 that is made out in the name of Eliza Bear-in-the-Woods. Lydia claims that she is known by the name in which the check was drawn and that it was returned to you this summer while she was at one of our Outing homes and it could not be determined here for whom the check was intended.

Will you please have me advised so that Lydia can be informed accordingly?

Dear Sir:

I have your letter saying that the parents of Eliza Millie Bear In The Woods or Eliza Millie Plenty Horse have not heard from their daughter for some time and are anxious to know who she is. We have no girl here by either of these names but I judge she must be our Lydia Plentyhorse. Lydia is in an Outing home this winter and has not been doing very well but her health is all right as reported by Miss Johnston, the visiting agent.
