INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter relative to the return home of your son John Beaulieu and have to state that sometime ago this matter was taken up with Mr. Hinton who thought that it would be best for the boy to remain east this summer. He suggested that we place him in an outing home which we have done. He is now living with Mr. Samuel Hibbs, Langhorne, Pennsylvania. This is a good home and I think John will be contented to remain there through the summer. He is working on a farm and will be paid wages according to his ability and experience.

Trusting that you may understand that we have tried to do the best we could by your boy,
