Dear Guy:-

Your letter to Mrs. Denny where you request that the balance of your money be sent you, has been referred to me for reply.

Before sending you a check for all that is due you, $95.00, I want you to reconsider your request. This is a large amount of money and you want to take good care of it. It is just as safe in the Carlisle Bank where it is now, as it would be in a bank where you are. It is drawing interest all the time. If you need a part of it for any expenses which you may have now, I will be glad to send you a smaller check. Let me hear from you again.

Your trunk came in from Bucher's and was checked to your mother several days ago. I did not have to pay any express charges so am sending you the balance due you after taking out $.50 for the Arrow, from the dollar which you left with Mrs. Denny. I hope this is satisfactory to you.

With my best wishes to you, I am
Very truly yours

And so we are just having a good time every day now for a while I don't know after six month. Very day this week the new ones are just come in too. I hope some more will come here from Jackson Co.

But I hope you will be glad to hear from me now. And I hope I will be glad

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter regarding the conduct of Guy, and am ~~very~~ ^{sorry} to learn that his conduct has been so bad. He returned to the school the afternoon of the morning you called the school on the phone, but never said that he had left. He reached here in good condition, and his story was that he did not want to remain out all winter, and that he had some little trouble with you.

Mr. Denny the disciplinarian has had a talk with him, and Guy acknowledges his guilt. He is now under discipline.

Will you please send his clothing by express, the charges prepaid from his wages in your hands?

Very truly yours,

Superintendent.

Dear Sir :

For some time I noticed that Guy was a Changed boy. A few weeks ago he was very ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ disrespectful to my old father.

The morning he left a young man that helped us fill silo came with a pack of tobacco which had engaged the night before. He said that that was the third pack he had brought in about a week time. That was the first knowledge we had that he used tobacco.

Last Friday night the Red Cross had a festival about one- fourth mile from here. Guy and myself were there. I have learned since he left, that he slipped away to a hotel and got filled with liquor. I did not speak to Guy that evening after he left home to go to the festival, so did not notice anything myself.

Another young man told me after he had left that he, Guy, showed him a bottle of whiskey at church on Sunday night. On Monday we noticed that there was something wrong with him. On Tuesday his conduct was such that I said something to him when he said that he would leave.

His trunk is locked and he has a new pair of trousers and a new pair of rubbers and some other clothing not packed. How shall we dispose of this ?

I sincerely regret that Guy should turn out like this . He went to church regularly . But I think he got into bad company who influenced him.

Yours truly,

W. P. Bucher
