Dear Sir:

I have your letter enclosing another from your son Charles Henry, one of our outing pupils.

The home to which Charles was sent was one selected by himself. He was there last summer and liked the home and when a chance came this spring for him to return there, he was anxious to do so. He had a chance to go and work at his trade, and also had a chance to work in the shipyard, but he chose the farm home.

I had a long distance telephone from Charles' employer on Monday, who said that he had deserted from her home. I do not know where he is at the present time, but my opinion is that he has gone to Hog Island, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Inclosed you
will find letters
from my son Chas

Now out working on his vacation
it seems that he is very much dissatisfied with his work, and more so
with his wages

He says he is intitled to more wages, which I know he is so

As you will mediate steps to improve his condition
specially his wages.
This is second time
he has written me
in regards to the matter, hoping this

Medford, New York
July 28, 1911

Dear Parents;

I will now take pleasure in answering your most welcome letter which I received today and must say I was certainly glad to hear from you.

Still this leaves you well at present and hope that these few lines will find you the same.

Every thing seems to be getting along fine here at present only I sure don't get to work hard yet and the worst of it is that I don't get enough pay. Say have you heard that Carlisle rose closed, I heard that it was closed and they were going to make a hospital (for wounded soldiers) out it and that they were going to send all of the students to other Indian schools I saw it in the paper also and I guess it is pretty true too and if it is where do you want to go, to Chicago I suppose but I don't want to go there

Say I wish you would write to this man but be sure and don't tell him that I said to write just tell him that I said I had to work hard and was not satisfied with the wages I am getting

Say it would not hurt anything if I was to go and get a job of my own they would not do anything to me at school and if I would show that I made some money they would be proud.

Why this man's own son would not stay and work for him he is so mean, and so he went and got a job where he makes $5 a wk.
and I can do the same thing and if his own son can't stay here what in the world can be expected of me. and I wish you would write to him soon

If Carlisle is closed I will have to have some clothes to go to another school week.

Say I want to join the road reserves ~~and~~ but if you don't want me to I will not suppose that after the war some one asks me "what did you do" and I ~~could~~ ^{would} say "I didn't do anything" I have not got the fever but I would like to join

I want to get a suit and some before I go in to Carlisle. I don't want to go in looking like an old dirty rag. I can get it here and I would love to have so and I guess for the much more to get me a few decent clothes and if it is closed for good I guess that they will let me have my ~~share~~ summer's wages it will not be much anyway

I could go out and make more in one month than I could make in 3 months here

Well how is everything and every body getting along around mine now a days anyway?

I was glad to hear that the crop was looking good.

get the
to gain
and some doubt we erty
an

has papa and uncle
come back from harvesting

I guess I have said enough for this time so I will close and turn in as it is late

Be sure and ans. soon please I don't have very much time to myself around here but I always find time to ans. your letters soon, so will you please do the same

I have your inquiry regarding your son Charles and have to advise that I do not know his present whereabouts. He deserted from his outfit home sometime in July. He was apprehended by Mr. Dickey, the outfit agent, who started to Carlisle with him but he escaped while in Philadelphia. We have heard nothing about him since.
