Dear Madam:-

This is to inform you that it was necessary to have Daniel Madrano's eyes examined for glasses and that this examination cost him Five Dollars. The glasses cost him Two Dollars and Twenty One Cents, making a total of Seven Dollars and Twenty One Cents ($7.21) which he owes.

As the government does not pay for this kind of work except in cases where the pupils are positively without funds and have no way of getting money from home, I write to know if you will pay this bill for your son. You should make the check for Seven Dollars and Twenty One Cents ($7.21) payable direct to me as superintendent and I will see that the bills for Daniel are paid.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

Daniel Madrano,

Dear Daniel:

I have your letter saying that you want to continue the study of music and would like to be sent to whatever school your instrument is sent. As we have had no requests from any of the Western schools for our band instruments I am still holding them at this school.

Our arrangement for all the Oklahoma children was to send them to Chilocco as that school is nearest their home. This is where you are scheduled to go, unless you have any special reason for wanting to be sent elsewhere.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

This a letter from you to Mr

that the musical instruments are to be sent to other Indian schools. Mr Bell If you would kindly tell me where my large BBb bass horn is going to be sent I will try to follow it to that school
I have intended to enter in at Phoenix Ariz. Do you think that if I should go to Phoenix could it be possible to send the instrument there?
I am very anxious to complete my musical education be drafted into the Army and perhaps have something to rely upon.

Just one more question I want to ask. some time ago I went another year at Carlisle and now that the school has closed for a time I wish to have that application omitted I have another year yet and I would like to go home
