Dear Madam:

Telegram received on my return to the office. I most certainly regret that there has been this misunderstanding in the matter of our pupil, Bessie, as it was impossible for me to comply with your request on account of being away from home and out of reach today.

We presumed that the father had the privilege of assigning his daughter when her term at the school was fulfilled, and acting on this presumption, we, of course, took it for granted that she was to remain with us and that there would be no question as to her remaining with us.

Bessie herself asserts the same, saying that she had only signed for five years and since this time was up she was free, and did not have to return to the school as she had a mother's care with every privilege of education, which even the school could not give her.

Enroute (Stenographer did not finish letter before train time)

I am indeed very sorry that these conditions have arisen. As a father entirely on the above presumption when Mrs. [unclear] took her on the family's vacation trip I trust you have heard definite word from her father by this time and I wrote to him when he requested that I should keep Bessie that he arrange this definitely with the school as the school has always treated us so kindly that we did not want even a cause for an issue which now confronts us. On account of the strenuous work for last 1 1/2 years I must have a little rest. Unless anything unforeseen happens I shall have no further communication will read me at home or office after Sept 15th. Yours truly Theo Dimmick

Gentlemen:

We received a letter from Mr. Henry Standing Baer father of Bessie Standing Baer pupil you have placed in our care requesting that we retain Bessie instead of sending her back to the school,

The term of five years for which he had signed for her having expired, instead of the school returning her home on account of this expiration he wishes that she remain with us and continue her education in the schools of Philadelphia.

You will no doubt receive a letter direct from Bessie's father if you have not already done so to this effect.

Dear friend:-

I have your letter suggesting that your daughter Bessie be allowed to remain with Mrs. Hancock of Burlington, New Jersey. Miss Johnston, the girls' field agent reported that Bessie would likely be unwilling to have a change made in her outing home this fall but that this change was made for her best interests.

We thought it best to place her in a home where she could attend a well graded public school. She has this advantage in Oak Lane. We want Bessie to go right ahead in public school until she graduates, if this is your wish for her also. We knew she would not like to leave her good friend Mrs. Hancock, but it was thought best in the end to make a change.

Dear Sir:-

Had your request to have your daughter Bessie remain with Mrs. Theodore Dimmick of Oak Lane, come through this office in good time, much anxiety on the part of Bessie and Mrs. Dimmick and annoyance on our part, could have been avoided. Complying with the instructions from the Indian Office, I had arranged to send your two daughters to the Haskell Institute, Lawrence and requested Mrs. Dimmick and Mrs. Shuster to return the girls to Carlisle. Mrs. Shuster complied with instructions and I have sent Olive to Haskell. Mrs. Dimmick has Bessie in her home yet and says she will keep her. I will note your request to have her remain there and will drop the matter of her transfer to Haskell.

Nettie is still at Toledo, Iowa, in the Sanatorium.

My dear sir:-

Please kindly refer to the Matron in charge of the girls that I have sent to my daughters some fine pieces of goods for their dresses, and I would like to have her kind assistance and see that they make good dresses for them and they ~~do~~ do not lose them. Last year, at school where they were they were robbed of or stolen from them of pieces I send them. I wish the kind Matron would send me bill for trimming for the dresses, when estimated. I am happy to learn that my daughters are contented with the school.

Yours Truly
