INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Dear Sir:

We ^{have} not heard from my dear sister Louise Taylor.

We would like to know how she is. We are afraid she is in the hospital to break this news to her.

"Our dear mother has left us she passed away last Wednesday fifteen minutes after two o'clock p.m. June 13, 1917
she was sick four days,
died with pneumonia

She was not unconscious she know when she was dying and did not suffer much. She was well prepared for eternal life. She had no fear of death. So please talk to my dear sister and tell her what to think.
 Mother is happy now with our sisters and brothers that have gone before her.
 Tell her not to worry. I will write to her as soon as I can.
 You being there you could break the news to her much better and using your judgement would be much better than my writing

to her with the news from Mrs Lizzie M^c. Clellan to Louise Taylor.

Thanking you in advance for your favor.

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter saying that you would like to have your daughter Louise, returned to you. As I stated in my previous letter, Louise's term of enrolment does not expire until next summer and if she should be allowed to go to you, she would have to go on leave, which leave would expire the first of September. As you would be required to pay her car-fare both ways, it would be quite an expense to you especially when the time she would spend at home would be so short.

I know that the loss of your wife makes you feel as though you would like to have about you all those who are nearest and dearest to you and I appreciate your feeling fully and yet taking all things into consideration, do you not think it best to allow Louise to finish her term and return to you next spring? She likes her outing home and I think would be satisfied with whatever decision was made in her case.

Very truly yours

Dear Sir:

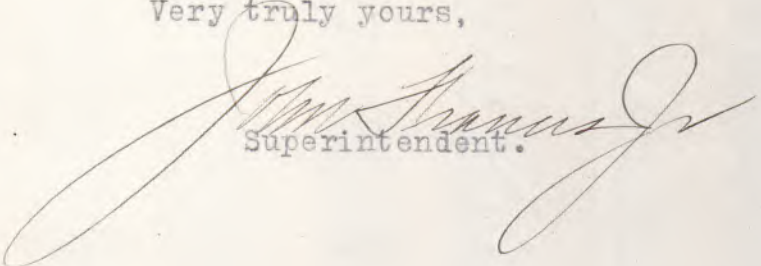

I have a letter today from Mrs. Turner, the lady for whom your daughter Louisa is working this summer, saying that Lousia wants to go home as she thinks you need her since the death of her mother. Will you please let me know if you do need her as you know her time is not up until next year.

I realize that just now she feels very lonely and wants to be at home with her own people, but if you do not need her I think that in many ways it would be best for her to remain here until she has completed her term.

Will you please let me hear from you as soon as possible as Louisa is quite worried and anxious.

My dear Madam:

When your letter of the 17th instant came to me this morning inquiry was made whether your daughter Louise has planned to remain at her outing home during the coming summer months. I learned that such plans have been made and that it has been arranged so that she can continue to earn a little money while at the same time her training in a good home is going on.

In view of the fact that you would not be able to pay for Louise's transportation home it would not seem fair or advisable to take her away from the opportunity she now has, although I should like to favor you by letting her visit you. Under the circumstances, therefore, favorable consideration cannot be given your request.

Will you please think this matter over and let me hear from you again, because this is the time your girl is preparing herself for greater usefulness and so that she can do more for you when her school days are over?

Assuring you that your daughter is making satisfactory progress, I remain,

Dear Sir:

I now drop these few lines and ask you if you would let Louise Taylor Come ^{home} this summer. I do wish that she would come home for the summer and then she can go back to school again next fall. Of course we can not afford to pay her car fair but we would pay her fair back next fall.
As I am getting worse I can't do much work with one arm.
Lousia knows how I am.
and my husband is not well

and is not able to do much this winter only do the chores and we lost quite a bit of money last fall on account of the frost. We must have good money every year on our fruit. and so if ^{we} have any luck at all next fall we will have money.

And so I would like to have you furnish her a ticket
I am sick, I am just that sick to see her. I am getting
old. and would like to see her very much. I may not live much longer.

Lousia is my youngest

My dear Madam:

Your letter of the 7th instant has been received here and it is noted that you are yet anxious to have your daughter Louisa at home for the summer vacation months. By referring to your former letter it has been learned that you could not provide the required funds necessary to procure a ticket for her use and under the circumstances it is yet believed that Louisa should remain where she is.

Let me suggest in this connection that you write direct to your daughter about the condition of the health of the members of your family. She is living in the home of Mrs. C. S. Turner at Unionville, Pennsylvania.

NOTE.—One of these blanks should be filled out by each pupil at Government boarding schools, preferably with the assistance of the superintendent or some one designated to act as his representative. If the superintendent is of opinion from the information given that the pupil is entitled to enrollment he should so indicate by signing the blank in the proper place and filing in the individual pupil's folder. In the case of pupils concerning whose eligibility or need of Government aid there is some doubt, superintendents should make proper remarks and recommendations in the space indicated and forward the form to the Indian Office for consideration.
