INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case.

Mr. George W. Row
Yardley, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

I am sorry to learn that your two boys have deserted. I have written to the Commanding Officer at Fort Slocum, New York and I am in hopes that both boys can be returned to the school. I do not think it advisable to return them to the cutting. This will be considered later, however.

If they do not return to you, I will ask that you return to the school by express, charges collect, the clothing they left there. Did they earn enough in the week they worked to reimburse you for the fare you advanced for them ?

I regret that I will not be able to send boys in their places until June. If there should be one to transfer, we will have you in mind.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.
