My Dear Neice,

I am just sending a short letter to say I am well and hope you are the same. Mary was telling me that you girls were near together and were having a good time. I am glad you girls have such nice places and hope you will always have such nice homes. I received the pictures Mary sent me; you girls look fine in it. I would like to see you girls now, I suppose you have grown to be big girls.

My sister Margaret wrote and told me that Marion had arrived home and was getting along well. I am glad she went home so she can help Mother this summer, but I hope she will give up school. Frank said he was going to send her back to Carlisle, in the fall. Did you hear about school being turned into an Army Hospital? I saw it in the paper and was very much surprised. If that's the case you people will have to go home till the war is over. I hope they let you girls stay out in the country instead of sending you home, don't you? When we get back to the states again I am going to see you and I am sure Peter will go with me. Won't that be great?

Do you play the piano yet? I hope you do so when I get home I shall have you play for me. I still have my violin and I play on it every day. I play a great deal better now. I hope you will be able to play with me when I get home.

On the 4th of July, a bunch of fellows went on our leave for seven days and we had a fine time. We went to a summer resort down in the southern part of France and it was the most beautiful place I ever saw. We had all the swimming we desired and took some fine trips up to the mountains. One day we took bicycles up with us and when we were ready to come back we coasted back to town of about 13 miles. There was always something doing and we were on the go all the time. We celebrated the FOURTH in that town and we had lots of Ice-Cream, everyone enjoyed themselves. On the way back we stopped at Lyon and celebrated the FOURTEENTH. It was there that a fine new bridge was named after our president. They named the bridge "PONT WILSON". The Americans were the first ones to cross it. We were very proud of it. Peter went on his leave after I had come home so I did not get to see him. I hope you girls had a good time also. We are once more back into harness and in four months we shall be able to go again.

Don't forget that I am always to hear from you and to know how you are. Give my love to Mary.

Best love to you,

I am,

Your Uncle,
Joseph.

That's me chief.

My dear Miss Johnson,

I was late with my letter to Mr. Peel which has caused his trouble.
I wrote Mr. Peel yesterday which I supposed he received, He did not hear from Nannie's mother until last Thursday, we have had a series of circumstances as my letter did not get written, I would grieve me terribly to let Hattie go this year in all probability it would mean her downfall. I have written Mr. Peck what a sad home she came from. Please do not let him interfere with her progress. How unfortunate Mr. Francis is away. It did not occur to me that he would want to see ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{letter}, please read it! you will see the picture it suggests. If Hattie works, she will stay home. The father drinks gamboles - and Hattie would have the flint pit. We must get her on in school as fast as possible so she can do something worthwhile for herself. I hope you will get out to see us again. What times we are having, the return of the wounded is bringing things home plus. Charles will shelter many a poor suffering boy. How nice it would be if the large girls could train for nurses & stay there. Hoping to see you from you again,

I am

Sincerely yours,

Ellen Comfort.

My dear Miss Johnson

Another letter. Of all I have written, there is nothing else to say.

Excepting, that Hattie wrote to her father this morning. Mary Cooke told Mr. Lazenby that Hattie's mother is a very bad lot - I will apply to the Cruelty & Children Society. You I will let her go there.

If Mr. Peel will not listen to what I say about Hattie's I will put the case in Dr. Fox's hands - You know he always says, What I say goes. He was indignant at Carlisle for sending Irene Short out with that awful disease of the eye.

They had one awful time with her and might have caught it. Was the man no concern for the welfare of the Indians? I will certainly make things hot for him.
Please let me hear from you personally.
Yours E. L. C.

I do not remember signing any name to the letter I wrote you this morning.
My son has a permit into every Government office in Washington he is doing all the G. O. lighting for the Government that is specifying for it I certainly will find a way of having Mr. Peck have all that is coming to him if he compel Mattie to go before she has all done for that purpose

Dear Sir,

I wrote to my mother, and this is what she said, "that I could decide my self." And I have decided to stay and go to school here for the winter.

Mr. Ed.

I am forwarding Hattie's Mother's letter. They have left their home and gone to Mass. in search of work. They both drink.
The Mother is such a bad character, she wasn't worth it's here will explain to you the wonderful progress she made last year - we hope to give her the same help this year. There is nothing but good care, and good reading will save Hattie from a life of sin. To let her go now would be ruinous. Ask you most earnestly to let things remain as they are this year. Physically she needs constantly looking after. Dr. F. says her throat will have to be operated on sooner or later. They thought it better to leave it until she got over the effects of her ear. We have worked ^{hard} with Hattie, and with your cooperation hope to send her back "fit" for some of the great work the times are demanding. Respect, Ellen Combs glad to be rid of her.

Lattie came from a bad home - but has responded wonderfully to better things - still she is not yet able to stand alone morally, mentally & physically. Another year here will fit her for an Indian High School. Miss Johnston

my dear Daughter:-

Just a few lines I am going to write to you to day. received your letter & I was very glad to hear from you once more, it is more like summer around here but we are having a very rainy weather. we cant plant any thing. I am afraid it will be very hard this summer on food you children are all lucky that if hard times comes along you will not feel it at all. as you always said in your letter that Marion Cooke she is coming home. I have heard about it some time ago that she was coming home. it seems very funny that her grandma wanted her to come home she was willing to come. & that isnt her mother but if some one had a mother & wanted her daughter to come & see her folks. she is not willing to come. so if god is willing to let us see one another some day. your children will have to stay in school until you get thro school so you all can come home & see us. but not before. so this will be all fore this time. From Father & Mother. so I send our best regards to you. good bye xx

My dear Miss Johnston After having had Mr. Peck's permission to keep Mattie, why does he demand her return. Something is inevitably wrong.
Laying everything else aside it would be next to criminal to send her away in her present condition. Her fate will be that of poor Lucy's.

You know it is a matter of conscience with me to send the girls out from here physically well as far as possible.

I know Mr. Pul will not prevent Hattie from getting the attention she needs when she understands the situation. Dr Fox is out of town now. When he returns I will have him examine her again.
The lump in her throat is growing & she has great difficulty in swallowing without some liquid to help the food down, also great difficulty in sleeping - can't get to sleep sometimes for hours. You see Miss Johnston I am not keeping

Hattie here³ out, of possibility - It would be inhuman of me to send her away, unless it would be a hospital. She is not in any condition to live in any school until she is attended to. If Hattie's father wants her it is only to make a drudge of her. He's a very drunken man - Can-hale can easily protect her from him - Conditions here are immoral too What is there in the world of greater importance than the health & morals of a young girl. How could her father get her without her consent when she signed for five years. Hattie's voice is very weak when lying down - the lump presses against her wind pipe & will one of these days cause suffocation - the loss of one Indian girl might not matter to the world, but you know I believe in saving them. Please let me hear from you as Mr. Francis always did what he thought best for the girls, but I'll 3-and agreed with you, put it up to Mr Peel to do the same.

I do sincerely hope Mr Peel will see that I am doing the right thing for Hattie.

Sincerely yours.

her ears and if her condition is as reported in

Dear Mr. Francis:-

Do you wish Hattie Tarbell to remain under the Outing this winter in Mrs. Comfort's home? If after considering the following you so desire will you notify either Mrs. Comfort or myself by Thursday morning.

The home is all right - school advantages excellent - Hattie was in Room 4 1/2 in Carlisle.

During the three summer months Hattie has taken various sums of money. $4.50 is known definitely. You have her July report. She has used innumerable ways and means to cover and deceive. The child hardly seems to know what "truth" is. Hattie wants a good time by hook or by crook. A good time is her aim. She has an agreeable disposition - is not pouty nor sullen.

Father Caranough, at Mrs. Comfort's request, made a call on Hattie on Friday and gave her a strong talk. Mrs. Comfort feels that what Hattie needs now is a close following up by much personal help and influence. She thinks punishment would not reach her at all.

Hattie says she is very sorry for her misconduct and I told her she should stay with Mrs. Comfort and prove by her actions that she was sorry. She says she wants to remain with Mrs. Comfort but I presume, this may be because of the fear of the disgrace upon reaching Carlisle.

MISS LIDA M. JOHNSTON, Girls' Agent.

MR. D. H. DICKEY, Boys' Agent.

Would Carlisle with all the enthusiasm he best for her now?
 Would she forget the lessons of the past few weeks were she to return with all the excitement?

Hattie is boy-struck as is evidenced by these numerous calls from the boys this summer and her voluminous correspondence. A sample is enclosed.

From a physical standpoint:- Hattie has a large goitre which Dr Fox said early in the summer should and could be removed soon. It looks bad and causes difficulty when she swallows. The poor child has to leave the table to wash the food down her throat. Sometimes it chokes her at night.
 One ear is quite deaf. She also has a habit of walking in her sleep. Mrs Comfort had her eyes attended to very soon after she came out.

To return to the boy visitors:- Warren Large, Lewis Bero and Richard Bluffing Bear were the other visitors. Eli Washington and Richard Bluffing Bear also called on Isabel Rose. Her country mother sought advice from Mrs. Comfort. Isabel was in no way to blame.
 I understand these same two boys, Eli and Richard, also called on Minnie Loren at Orienton, N.J. I will not be able to see Mrs.
 Smith as to whether or not she has reported it.

Very respectfully,
 Lida M. Johnston

This certifies that a Mastoid operation has been performed on Hattie Farrell by me - It will be essential that she is treated by me for at least a year yet, to be thoroughly cured of her condition. Robert F. Ridpath

Mr. Charles Tarbell
Hogansburg, N. Y.

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter dated August 26th asking that your daughter Hattie be returned to you. In reply I have to say that Hattie is still in the home of Mrs. Ellen Comfort, Noble, Pennsylvania. She insists upon keeping Hattie in her home and Hattie does not object. Our school is permanently closed now and we will have no more jurisdiction over Hattie. If you want her, you will have to get her from Mrs. Comfort's home. I have made every effort to have her returned to Carlisle, except to use force, but have failed.

Very truly yours

Trav. Aud. in Charge.
