INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employe of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations, or Indian schools, to nonreservation schools.

Important—Only those students who desire to come to Carlisle because they have a definite purpose in view will be admitted. Applications for enrollment must be submitted in all cases for consideration before transportation can be made available. Time will then be taken to find out the records students have made in the schools previously attended, and to secure recommendations as to their moral character and their worthiness for further attendance at a Government institution.

Dear Mrs. Bitler:

I am in receipt of your letter saying that Agnes Littlejohn has decided to remain with you. I am glad to know this as I believe she is making a wise decision. If at anytime you need any advice regarding her you can address the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C. Miss Johnston expects to be located in the Indian Office, Washington, and will likely be consulted regarding the girls who are remaining under the outing.

You can retain the money that is due Agness and help her take care of it. With best wishes to you, I am

My dear Mr Seal

Replying to your letter about Agnes Little, she would say I was obliged to wait until she was better before consulting her about staying with me. She came home from the hospital yesterday ^{and} it is necessary to have the wound dressed every other day, but so far she has gotten along well. She was very glad to get back ^{and} we are feeding her and nourishing her up.

Agnes is glad to stay with us ^{and} I assure you we are glad to have her. I think if she can remain with me we can do lots for her. She wants to take up dressmaking ^{and} I am going to see that she has this ambition gratified. I promise you that we will do every thing for her good, for the time she has been with us we see a marked improvement. I think if some kind person would always help the girls there would better characters developed.

Now will you please instruct me what I shall do regarding Agnes finances. Shall I send the money she has earned?

during the summer with my report to the school?
Also what about her hospital expenses? I will not count any of the expense of taking her backwards & forwards to Phila. etc. - am glad to do that for her sake.

She understands that she must pay her expenses home when she is ready to go. ^{and} I promise you that as long as she is in my care I will look after her ^{and} give her every opportunity to make good.

Very Truly Yours

them, in return of their kindness,

Dear Madam:-

You did right in taking Agnes Littlejohn to the hospital for special treatment. I note that you will watch over her carefully and that she can return to you until she is able to travel. We all appreciate your goodness to her.

What does Agnes intend to do after the first of September? She is entitled to go home, if she wishes. Will she do this or is she willing to be transferred to Lawrence, Kansas to tenter the Haskell Institute?

We thought she might want to remain with you and attend school. If she does this, you will understand that hereafter she will be entirely in your care and that when she is ready to go home, she may have to pay her own way there.

Mr. Peck, Dept. Carlisle Indian School.

My dear Mr. Peck

I am writing particulars about your pupil Agnes Littlejohn. Agnes had a gathered ear ^{and} our physician here attended, until the mastoid became involved ^{and} he said it was necessary for her to see a specialist at once. I took her to The Jefferson Hospital myself ^{and} saw her comfortably settled ^{and} will taken care of.

Agnes Owl one of your pupils is a nurse there ^{and} she also will do all she can.

Our family are all very much interested in Agnes ^{and} we are all grieved that she is so unfortunate. Just as soon as she can leave the hospital she can come back here ^{and} do nothing but rest ^{and} get in condition to go back to school or be able to travel, in fact anything we can possibly do for her we will.

I did not know where to locate Miss Johnson ^{and} if I have not acted wisely I trust you will forgive. My principal thought was for the girls good. If Miss Johnson is in

Ocean City I can make a further explanation

Very Truly Yours
