INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

Mr. George Pease,

Dear Friend:

Your letter and the package containing a pair of moccasins were sent to Mr. Francis, now Lieut. Francis, at Fort Niagara, New York. You may have heard from him before this letter reaches you, but I do not know that he will tell you anything about the changes which are to take place at Carlisle this year.

Our school will be closed the last of this month and the buildings turned over to the War Department for war purposes. I am very sorry that this will prevent your return with a party. I am anxious, however, that you continue your school work, and would suggest that you enroll now at one of the other large Western schools, either Chemawa, or Chilocco might be preferable as you have already served a term at Haskell, or perhaps you might want to return there and complete the course which you began. Whatever you do, do not give up school yet.

With my best wishes to you, I am

Very truly yours,

D-E

Lodge Grass,

July 14, 1918.

Rev. John Francis Jr.
Indian Vocational School, Carlisle,
Pennsylvania.

Dear Friend;

I thought I would write to you this evening as I'm in town. I came down from the
ranch where we are putting up hay. During the past two weeks we put up 250 tons of hay and still have about 400 tons of hay to get
up. Men are very hard to get so it makes working very slow. There is only four men helping me with my folks hay. I am expecting William Kennedy to come over. He wrote me a letter the other day

asking if he could get work here, and I wired
him to come immediately
if he wanted to work.

I sent a pair of moccasins by mail and
expect you received them
by this time.

The Crows have a very good prospect of some grain as I see that a few have some good looking grain.

The Lodge Grass district appears to be the sugar beet district of the Crow Reservation, Sheridan Wyoming, a neighboring city, is the sugar beet center and they furnish the men to work these sugar beet farms.

I am expecting to take a good bunch of Crows back with me this fall to Carlisle and wish you would send over agent, Mr. Asbury at Crow Agency, Flanks of application, and a good facsimile letter that you

int to see more Crows
own there to Carlisle, I'll recruit for you
after the haying and harvesting is done. I hope it gives me a
day to secure sufficient number to at least
represent the Crows, that have been there in the previous years. It seems they are afraid to go to Carlisle, because of the rate of death, which Carlisle was in her younger days.

I haven't met any of the Carlisle's return

Students of late years
but there are few of her early day students
and they are the leading principals of the tribe.

If a few more go off
to school, maybe we can finally get some where on the road towards prosperity.

I am going back to the ranch in the morning for I came down for provisions and repairs
and if I stay in town,
very long, the probabilities are, that my men will quit me.

Hoping that I find time again to write to you and surely to my friend Mr. Shambaugh
I will close for this time.

Your Friend,
George Pease.

May. 8, 1918.

Dear Sir :

I asked Supt. C. H. Asbury to write you but for fear he may forget to do so, I thought I would write too.

I would like George Pease my son, to come home for the summer to help do the ranch work and would like for him to go back in the fall to finish the school.

I would also like to have my boy Wallace, in school next year. He is now past fourteen years old, Last year I tried to get him in school but he was under school age.

Please answer

Yours respectfully
