Mr. David Nailor,
R. F. D. #4,
Carlisle, Pa.

Sir:

Certain information has come to me which casts suspicion upon you for having sold hard cider, or other liquor, to Jacob Jackson, a boy with Indian blood and student of Carlisle School. While I have no direct evidence against you at this time, I feel that it is only fair to warn you of the rumors and to notify you that to sell or furnish this boy any intoxicating beverages whatsoever is a serious offense under the Federal Statutes, and that, as a United States Officer, it is my duty and I propose to prosecute any person who I find guilty of this offense.

Sincerely yours,

JF-E

Superintendent

Jacob Jackson,
c-o S. W. McKeehan,
Carlisle, Pa.

My dear Jacob:

I have been giving a great deal of thought to your case. I am very much embarrassed by the evidence I have received that you have been using intoxicating beverages. You were sent to Carlisle for the purpose of making a real man of you and a person who gets intoxicated is but little more than a brute.

I was somewhat surprised to find a boy on the Outing in Cumberland County because it has been found in the past that they did not do so well so close to Carlisle. I was informed by Mrs. Denny that you had been left there because of your good record and the belief that you were a steady boy. You are in a place where you can do incalculable harm to the school by reason of the fact that your behavior reflects on the reputation of the school. When you first came to Carlisle I am advised that there was some drinking among the students; this, however, has been stopped, we do not tolerate it for an instant. To take a drink of liquor means separation from the school and you have to live up to the same rules, or I will see that you are returned to where you came from to carry on your foolishness, and not do it around this school.

I am in sympathy with your desire to purchase the horse and I think the bargain offered you is a good one, but if it becomes necessary for me to return you to your home, I do not want you tied down with a horse, so I must have some understanding of what you propose to do in the future.

I am sending you herewith a pledge of the Lincoln Legion. You are young and there is no reason why you cannot cut out your nonsense and live a life worth while to yourself and everybody else. If you care to sign this pledge, you may return it to me. I am notifying some persons that I propose to enforce the law if you are furnished liquor. You see your foolishness makes trouble, not only for yourself, but for everyone else.

Sincerely yours,

JF-E

Superintendent

Mr. S. W. McKeehan,
R. F. D. #4,
Carlisle, Pa.

My dear Mr. McKeehan:

I have this day written Jacob concerning the use of intoxicating liquor by him. I have also written to a neighbor of yours in this regard. I am taking this opportunity to ask you to warn all persons living in your vicinity that Jacob is a ward of the United States Government and that the sale of intoxicating liquor, including hard cider, to an Indian is a serious offense under the Federal Statutes. You may advise them that, as a United States Officer, it is my duty to prosecute any persons guilty of such an offense and that I propose to do it; I hope it will not be necessary.

In regard to the purchase of the horse, I must settle up the use of liquor, or hard cider, with J Jacob before I let him have the horse, because I cannot permit him to remain in the vicinity of the school and disgrace it, and if he is sent away the horse would be a burden.

Sincerely yours,

JF-E

INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Dear Madam:-

The following is Mr. Bruce's letter in answer to my inquiry relative to Jacob Jackson's going home..

"As regards the case of Jacob Jackson I would advise that he stay at his country home and continue to work for those people who are interested in him.

You might advise his people to keep Jacob interested in Church work. If his weakness is drink, this is a poor place to come back to."

In view of the above it seems best for Jacob to remain with you indefinitely.

Very truly yours

Dear Sir:-

I must bother you again with the case of Jacob Jackson. As you may know the Carlisle School is to be permanently closed the first of September and the question arises what to do with Jacob. I had him in my office today and asked him what he wanted to do, whether to go home or to remain where he is now. He said it did not make any difference with him. Jacob is not very bright. He is happy and contented in his home here. His only trouble is drink. The people with whom he lives are kind to him and take good care of him and his money. We are not sure whether it would be wise to take him from this home and send him to conditions which might be worse. Will you please advise us? As the time is short before we have to make some decision in his case, I would appreciate a prompt reply.

My dear Mr. Peel,

I met Jacob Jackson in town the other day and he was very much exercised because you had requested him to pay for that ticket to Nyando, N.Y. which he did not use. I never heard him talk so sanely about anything as he did about that ticket.

He says that Mr. Duran took it from him when he decided that he was not going home. I remember that when the bill for this ticket came to my attention late in the summer, I asked Mr. Duran about it and he told me that he turned it in to me. My recollection is that this ticket was turned in by me to Mr. Bender. I think I explained this at the time. My recollection also is that this was one of the tickets, I returned on a Sunday as the following day, the rates were advanced. This is all memory work however and my memory is not very good these days. The trouble is I have nothing in the way of books and records to refer to.

I promised to write and tell you this for Jacen. With best wishes to you, I am

If you can continue his name on the roll kindly do so. He has good qualities and with little encouragement will make good. If he returns there will be bad influences which may ruin him.

I wish you would let Jacob come home at once as I must have him.

Received the report of Jacob and greatly appreciate the good record and every advance he is making.

I am Sincerely
Loran Jackson
