INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Important—Only those students who desire to come to Carlisle because they have a definite purpose in view will be admitted. Applications for enrollment must be submitted in all cases for consideration before transportation can be made available. Time will then be taken to find out the records students have made in the schools previously attended, and to secure recommendations as to their moral character and their worthiness for further attendance at a Government institution.

Dear Madam:-

Relative to your letter requesting the return home of Russell King, a pupil of this school, I have to say that there will be no objection to his going home to spend his vacation, provided you deposit with the school funds enough to pay his fare home and to pay for his return in September. I enclose a Vacation Request blank which you can fill out and return to me. You probably understand that none of the pupils will be allowed to go home until after Commencement which takes place the latter part of May. The home party will leave about June 1st.

I want you to know that Russell is making a very good record at this school. I am glad to know that he likes it here too.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

Dear Madam:

Your application for the enrollment of Russell S. King has been received and approved and I have this morning written to the General Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad to place a ticket at Irving, N. Y., for his use to Carlisle. Will you please let me know when to expect him here? He should not delay in getting to Carlisle now as the work is well on here and he should be here to take up work with his class.

Very truly yours,

Dear sir.

Just what are the conditions, parents, or guardians must comply with, in order to have students return home for the summer vacation?

I would like Russell King, home for his vacation, and would like to know soon, as I would not be able to get ready on, to, short notice.

Have been very much pleased that Russell likes school so well, and with his work there He is quite enthusiastic, over it.

In fact your time as Sept has been very satisfactory to the students, and we only hope that your successor may prove the same.

Russell's school work has been very pleasing to me. Here, as well as, there, and hope he will make the best of his opportunity from June to Sept to enable him to visit his home. We hereby agree to pay all expenses, including round-trip railroad fares, sleeping-car fares, meals, lodging, stage fares, telegraph and telephone messages, and other incidental expenses connected with the visit. We further agree that said pupil shall be returned to the Carlisle school on or before the last day of the leave of absence.

We further agree to deposit with the superintendent of the school sufficient money to defray all expenses to be incurred, and should the pupils, or any one of them, fail to return to school at such time as may be agreed upon by the parents or guardian and the superintendent of the school in which the pupils are enrolled, the amount of money remaining with the superintendent, necessary to the return transportation of the pupil or pupils so neglecting to return, shall be forfeited to the Government; provided, however, that in all cases where it can be shown that there were justifiable reasons for the failure of the return of the pupil the forfeiture of the funds shall not take place.

If the pupil neglecting to return is from a reservation, the superintendent of the reservation shall certify to the reasons for the nonreturn of the pupil or pupils. If a pupil's home is not on a reservation, then the certificate of some reputable, disinterested citizen of the community may be requested as to the reasons for the nonreturn of the pupil or pupils.

Supt. John Francis Jr.

Dear Sir: — I have been troubled for some time since my arrival home with the question "Will I be allowed to return in the fall." It is my earnest desire that I be allowed that privilege for this is my Senior year and I have been working toward that for two years and now I realize it is possible that my goal may not be attained. My brother went into the service a few days after I arrived home, that is my reason for leaving in such a manner and I now ask your pardon.

I have been working steadily since the 15th of June, and had been preparing to return. I am supporting myself and doing my best,
and I promise to do the same
if I am allowed, by your word to come back to old "Cashel."

Hoping to receive an affirmative answer, and could you give me any information on the proposed raise in the course of study. Sincerely,

I am in receipt of your letter dated March 20, 1918, in which you state that sometime in February you sent your son Russell King, five dollars, which he says he did not receive.

Will you let me know the exact day you sent Russell the letter containing the money also whether you sent cash, money order or check. Did you have your return address on the envelope containing the money ?

If you will let me know these facts, I may be better able to help locate the letter.

My dear Mr. Peck:

Having received information that Carlsde is to be turned into a hospital, I would like to receive some information from you regarding what is to be done with Carlsde's students, and when the outgoing students are to be called in. If the students are allowed a farewell social I would like to be there and meet my friends once more, before they scatter over the country. Especially my classmates of the Junior year. When I left Carlsde I had not found out my final mark in English. I would be very much pleased if you found out and told me. Perhaps it would be of interest to you to know that two Parkside boys joined the Marines a few days ago, namely Clifford Halftown, and Geo. Swanson.

Joe. Eldshield and Dana Black

Another thing that is worrying me is my trunk, which I left there, and Mr. Kenney has it now. I wrote to him about it but rec'd. no answer. I have some things of value to me in it, and would like to know

We are arranging to transfer our pupils who are on the roll to other schools in the west but no provision has been made for deserters. If they wish to continue their schooling, they will have to look out for that themselves. The New York children, like you who have access to public schools, will be sent to their homes provided their parents agree to send them to these schools.

Unless a greater value is declared and stated herein the shipper agrees that the value of the shipment is as last above set out and that the liability of the company shall in no event exceed such value.

3. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for—

- a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage, or evaporation.
- b. The death, injury, or escape of live freight.
- c. Loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers, or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt.

4. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for loss, damage, or delay caused by—

- a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.
- b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
- c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing, or addressing.
- d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in customs warehouse.
- e. The examination by, or partial delivery to, the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.
- f. Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

5. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

6. When property is destined to a point at which no express company has an agency it should be marked with the name of the express station at which delivery will be accepted. If not so marked it will be carried to the express station nearest the destination point and arrival notice given consignee.

7. Except where the loss, damage, or injury complained of is due to delay or damage while being loaded or unloaded, or damaged in transit by carelessness or negligence, as conditions precedent to recovery claims must be made in writing to the originating or delivering carrier within four months after delivery of the property or, in case of failure to make delivery, then within four months after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed; and suits for loss, damage, or delay shall be instituted only within two years and one day after delivery of the property or, in case of failure to make delivery, then within two years and one day after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed.

8. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper the Company may at its option return the property to the consignor.

9. Free delivery will not be made at points where the company maintains no delivery service; at points where delivery service is maintained free delivery will not be made at addresses beyond the established and published delivery limits.

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries.

10. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations, and customs of over-sea and foreign carriers, custodians, and governments, their employees and agents.

11. The Company shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or delay to said shipments over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States, which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations, or customs.

12. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assessable with foreign governmental or customs duties, taxes, or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers, or depositories, and there held pending examination, assessments, and payments, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the Company, shall become a lien on the property.
