SPECIAL NOTE.

This form must be executed in duplicate when a child is transferred from a reservation to a nonreservation school. The Superintendent of the nonreservation school will retain the original for his files, and the duplicate shall be deposited in the reservation school records. The reservation superintendent should send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate as provided by law. All the blanks must be properly filled in every case.

If the information called for on any part of the blank is not known, that fact should be stated. No space should be left unfilled. Whether the parents are living or dead, their names must be given.

The person who signs the blank as consenting to the transfer should indicate his relation to the applicant by marking out the word "parent," "guardian," or "next of kin," leaving unmarked only the title appropriate to the signer.

The enrollment of Indian pupils in nonreservation schools is governed by the "Rules for the Indian Service, 1913," sections 12, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, 36, 112, 113, 114, 117, 118, 124 (b).

The Rules should be consulted before filling out the application blanks.

Mr. A. S. Wyly,
Supervisor,
Muskogee, Oklahoma

Dear Sir:

I have your letter, dated May 11th, saying that you are enclosing a letter from Mrs. Betty Anderson, the aunt of Impson, a pupil of this school. There was no letter enclosed.

Impson expressed a desire to go under the outing and was placed on a farm about the 15th of April. He is not attending school just now, but is working for regular wages.

On account of the great demand for boys on farms, due to war conditions, I allowed over one hundred boys to leave school early in April to work on farms. Perhaps, if you will explain our outing and reason for sending boys to farms early this year to Mrs. Anderson, she may be satisfied.

Impson is living with people whom he knows, as he has worked out before in that neighborhood, and as far as I know he is contented.

Very truly yours,

D-E

Dear Mr. Francis:

I am enclosing a letter just received from Mrs. Betty Anderson, the aunt of Impson Anderson, Choctaw Indian boy attending your school. You will note Mrs. Anderson says that Impson is working on a farm and he is not going to school, and that she wants him to come home to assist her in farm work.

I would be pleased to have you write me at once about Impson, as his aunt evidently thinks that he is not attending school at all.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mrs. Frances:

Again will write you a few lines tonight as I have nothing to do, I have written you before about coming home but fail to hear from you.

As I said before I wanted to go home but I didn't like to run away just to go home but if I don't hear from you this time, I'll have to go I suppose but if you let me go I'll come back in the fall
I must close which the Company agrees to carry upon the terms and conditions printed on the back hereof, to which the shipper agrees, and as evidence thereof, accepts and signs this receipt.

Russell Davis Shipper. Geo. H. Knight For the Company.

NOTE—The Company's charge is based upon the character of the property, of which its value is an element, and its value must be declared in writing by the shipper unless its character is otherwise disclosed. When goods are hidden from view by wrapping, boxing or other means and the company is not notified of the character thereof, the shipper's declaration of value may be made by notation, "not exceeding $50.00" or "not exceeding $50.00 or 50 cents per pound, actual weight."

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of the receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignor, the consignee and all carriers handling this shipment, and shall apply to any reconsignment or return thereof.

2. The rate charged for carrying said property is dependent upon the actual value of the property which must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and applies only upon property of an actual value not exceeding fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds. If the actual value is greater than fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or exceeds fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds, such actual value must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and excess charges for such greater value must be paid therefor in accordance with the lawfully published tariffs of the Company.

3. Said property is accepted as merchandise only, and the Company shall not be liable for the loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt, as the Company does not transport such articles except through its money department.

4. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for —

a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage or evaporation.

b. The death, injury or escape of live freight.

5. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by —

a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.

b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.

c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing or addressing.

d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in Customs warehouse.

e. The examination by, or partial delivery to, the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.

f. Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the Company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

6. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

7. If no express company has an agency at the point of destination, said property may be carried to the agency nearest or most convenient thereto and the consignee notified.

8. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the point of delivery or at the point of origin within four months and suits must be instituted within two years after delivery, or in case of failure to deliver after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed.

Unless claims are so made and suits so brought the carrier shall not be liable.

9. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper, the Company, may at its option, return the property to the consignor and collect the charges for transportation both ways.

10. The Company shall not be required to make free delivery at points where it maintains no free delivery service nor at any point beyond its established and published delivery limits.

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries

11. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the Company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations and customs of overseas and foreign carriers, custodians and governments, their employees and agents.

12. The Company shall not be liable for any loss, damage or delay to said shipments over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations or customs.

13. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assessable with foreign, governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers or depots, and there held pending examination, assessments, and payments, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the Company shall have become a lien on the property.

NOTE—The Company's charge is based upon the character of the property, of which its value is an element and its value must be declared in writing by the shipper unless its character is otherwise disclosed. When goods are hidden from view by wrapping, boxing or other means and the company is not notified of the character thereof, the shipper's declaration of value may be made by notation, "not exceeding $50.00" or "not exceeding $50.00 or 50 cents per pound, actual weight."

Dear Sir:

I have Impson Anderson's request to be allowed to go home this coming vacation period. As he gives no special reason for wanting to go home at this time, I think it best that he forego the trip this summer. He seems to be getting along nicely with you and likes his home, and I see no reason for making a change.

Dear Mr. Frances:

I will now take the greatest of pleasure in writing you a few lines tonight ~~may~~ have nothing to do.

I'm well, and hope you are the same.

I want to ask something of you nothing out of your reason, but just to it. I have been here at the school 3 yrs and I want to go home once out of 5 yrs at least you no I paid my fair down the school and I'm quiet sure I can afford to paid it back so I want to know something about this right away. A. M. Gregg at Ada, Okla. said he would get my money to you so I could come home. For I want to go home in the right way, not do like some the boys are doing running away, but if you don't let me I'll have to do something like ~~some~~ those other boys generally do running away, so I trust that you will let me come home at any time for I sure do want to ~~come~~ go home.

I could of gone home by taking things to my own hands but I thought I would ask it of you

I heard they sent for me to come home and work on some farm but I didn't know any thing about it any one of those people around here can tell you that I don't mind work, I like my country home just fine but they said if you didn't have any objection

Dear Sir,

I am writing
to you in regard to Inpsow Anderson.
He tells me that his folks at home want him to come home this summer. They have been writing to him frequently, making him dissatisfied.

I understand he is writing to you to get your permission to go home. I thought possibly a little persuasion on your part would induce him to stay.

He says he is perfectly satisfied here and we all like him very much. I would like to keep him as long counting on him and it would put me in a hole to loose him

If those people would stop writing
he says he would be all right

Would suggest that possibly it would be better if he did not know I wrote this letter

Thanking you for your kindness I am
