School Physician.

INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

CARLISLE INDIAN PRESS CARLISLE PA.

Important—Only those students who desire to come to Carlisle because they have a definite purpose in view will be admitted. Applications for enrollment must be submitted in all cases for consideration before transportation can be made available. Time will then be taken to find out the records students have made in the schools previously attended, and to secure recommendations as to their moral character and their worthiness for further attendance at a Government institution.

Dear Madam:-

Replying to your letter concerning your son Amos, I have to advise that he has entirely recovered from the bruises received in the Penn Indian game.

I write you at this time as an accident to one of our other boys has resulted fatally and we thought you might hear of it in the papers and think it was your boy.

I am glad to give you a good report about your boy and hope you will not worry about him any more.

Very truly yours

Chief Clerk in Charge.

Dear sir.

am writing this letter to you tonight. to find out how my son Amos Jones
is getting along. it was a shock to me to here. he has a broken jaw. But as I have always worried ever since he told me. he joined the football team But never said any thing in the letter to stop him. as I thought it was a pleasure to him.
as I have always tried to make the best of every thing

as I have said in the other letter I wrote to you. May God help my Dear Son. to pull through alright. and I only hope he doesn't play any more he is too young anyway. I think. my heart just aches so would you kindly write and let me know at once how he is getting along. he wrote a good letter to me on the other trip he made so I imagine he has settled his mind. again hope to hear from you soon

Respectfully

Dear Madam::

I am in receipt of your letter dated October 22,1917 in which you state that you have sent $15.00 to your son Amos so that he may come home.

Amos was in the office to see me this morning and I told him that I had no authority to send him home. You have signed an application for his enrolment for a period of three years and unless been duly enrolled for that length of time. Unless there is a very special reason for his return home at this time, I cannot let him go.

If you have any special reason for wanting him home, I should like to know it and I will be glad to consider the matter further.

Amos looks well and seems to be getting along all right.

Very truly yours

Dear Madam:-

I have your letter concerning your son Amos and have to advise that he seems contented to remain here now and complete his term.

He played in the game of football against the University of Pennsylvania last Saturday and was quite badly bruised up but he is up and about again.

I hope I may be able to give you continued good reports about your son hereafter. I thank you for your cooperation in his case.

Mr Francis Supt.

Dear sir.

Excuse me for not answering your letter any sooner.

As I expected my son Amos Jones to give me an answer after you wrote to me.

I wrote as good letter as any mother could, and beg'd of him to stay and told him. that we didn't have any Excuse for him to come home. as I did send The money to come home with.

I must have misunderstood
Mr David Hill. about children coming home.
if they paid you back
the car fare. you paid
fore going out there.
and of course would have been perfectly pleased if he could have came home.
as I have missed him
very much. he is certainly a great help to me. he has help me so much ever since he has been able to work. But when he askid me to help him fill out his Blank

I was very much plearsid
as it is his own good.
Education is never any to much for any one. how I wish I had. the chance
children has now day's.
so Mr Francis kindly forgive me. if I have done wrong by sending that money. for Amos to come home with. and will you kindly let me know. how he's getting along. as he hasint answerd my letter

as I say. he may feel spunky at one. by not helping him out any further I am looking after my boy alone. and it is some time kind of hard for me. But hope and pray To God that my son will be good. will you kindly help me out. all you can and just give him a good talk. please and will be patiently waiting for an answer.

Sincerely
Mrs Maggie W Jones

My dear Mrs. Jones:

This afternoon I sent a letter to you about the condition of your son Amos, but at that time had not read Mr. Dickey's letter.

I can fully appreciate how worried you must have been after reading the report in the Philadelphia papers about your boy. All that happened to him was that he hurt his leg a little and that isn't very serious. He came home with the Football team and is in good health, except for his sprain. All the newspaper article about a fractured skull and a broken leg is perfect nonsense. Don't you worry for a moment about your boy.

Dear Sir:

Your letter received and I am glad she got home all right but I dont see why you came after her when I paid her fare both ways. she did not want to go and neither did I just on account of her neck she got it from that school and no kids not one of them did want to go. That why I say I am glad that they got back all right. This is all

Dear Madam:

I have your letter asking that your son, Amos, be allowed to go home this summer. This is to inform you that Amos is now in one of our Outing homes with Mr. L. F. Nicholas at Mt. Bethel, Pa. As he went out with the understanding that he was to remain through the summer, I do not see how I can comply with your request to have him home. He signed to go out of his own accord and he also signed an agreement with Mr. Nicholas to remain and work for him through the summer.

When Amos first went out he was not very well. I asked the Outing Agent, Mr. Dickey, to visit him and report his condition. Mr. Dickey has not yet done this, but as soon as I hear from him I will write you again.

Dear Sir:

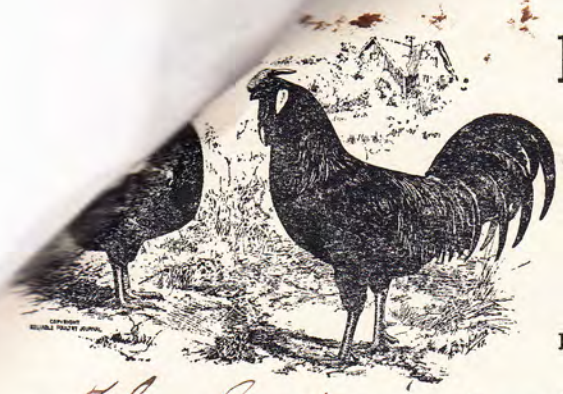

I am returning herewith the check for $16.25 which you sent to pay the wages of Amos Jones. As it is not likely that Amos will return to you, I will ask that you will deduct from this amount the fare that you advanced for him this spring, and the express charges on whatever clothing he left with you. You can then send me a check for whatever balance is due him.

I am sorry that I will not be able to send you another boy in his place.

Dear Sir:- I was to Delaware N.J. this morning my nearest Station and where ever went the most. The agent sold another man he was with a ticket to Scranton, and I talked with a girl ever knew and was with sometimes and she said she thought he went home he said he prayed all night to see his mother and if he got to see her he was coming back. The girl said he was awful nervous and shook hands with them when he went and the tears rolled down his cheeks and the conductor told him if he was going on this train to hurry up.

Mr Francis Jr

Dear Sir:- Amos Jones left this place last night- in the night- some time took with him his best- clothes and one suit-case the other suit- Case and his working clothes are here yet. He got a letter from his mother yesterday and he has been wanting to go home for some time and I imagine there is where he went His mother wrote a letter to him one time and told him to show it to me and he did she wanted him to come home or wanted me to send him home and I told him I could not do it without the consent of the School. He had been doing good work this week and got along first- straight with him he ask me for $5- 00 yesterday down in the field to buy a pair of shoes I came home and went away got- caught in the rain and did not get home until late and it was too late to go to town and I did not give it to him and he did not ask for it. he got ready for bed and his clock stopped and he ask me what time it was I told him and that is the last I heard of him he was not a bit grouchy or cross since last week so I think he would not of left on that account I have lots to work and would (over) liked to have kept him if I could and was trying every way possible that I knew of. and do not like it when they leave. as I think you would imagine it was partly my fault and you do not feel like putting another one here again but if you are willing to put one here again I will gladly send you his fare and thank you very much for it. If there is anything you would want to know about him or that I can do to help you about it do not hesitate to ask it of me I will do all I can to help you about it. For the Company.

NOTE —The Company's charge is based upon the character of the property, of which its value is an element, and its value must be declared in writing by the shipper unless its character is otherwise disclosed. When goods are hidden from view by wrapping, boxing or other means and the company is not notified of the character thereof, the shipper's declaration of value may be made by notation, "not exceeding $50.00" or "not exceeding $50.00 or 50 cents per pound, actual weight."

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of the receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignor, the consignee and all carriers handling this shipment, and shall apply to any reconsignment or return thereof.

2. The rate charged for carrying said property is dependent upon the actual value of the property which must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and applies only upon property of an actual value not exceeding fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds. If the actual value is greater than fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or exceeds fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds, such actual value must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and excess charges for such greater value must be paid therefor in accordance with the lawfully published tariffs of the Company.

3. Said property is accepted as merchandise only, and the Company shall not be liable for the loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt, as the Company does not transport such articles except through its money department.

4. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for —
   a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage or evaporation.
   b. The death, injury or escape of live freight.

5. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by —
   a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.
   b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
   c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing or addressing.
   d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in Customs warehouse.
   e. The examination by, or partial delivery to, the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.
   f. Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the Company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

6. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

7. If no express company has an agency at the point of destination, said property may be carried to the agency nearest or most convenient thereto and the consignee notified.

8. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the point of delivery or at the point of origin within four months and suits must be instituted within two years after delivery, or, in case of failure to deliver after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed.
Unless claims are so made and suits so brought the carrier shall not be liable.

9. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper, the Company may, at its option, return the property to the consignor and collect the charges for transportation both ways.

10. The Company shall not be required to make free delivery at points where it maintains no free delivery service nor at any point beyond its established and published delivery limits.

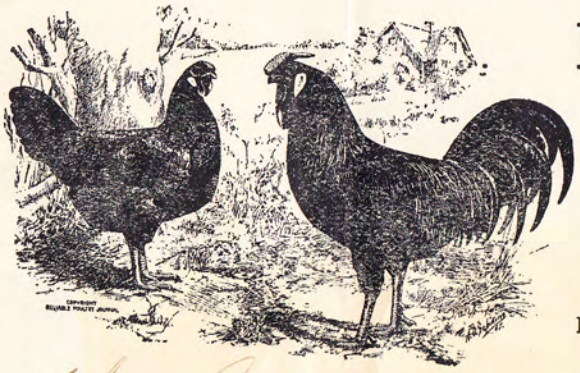

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries.

11. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the Company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations and customs of oversea and foreign carriers, custodians and governments, their employes and agents.

12. The Company shall not be liable for any loss, damage or delay to said shipments over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations or customs.

13. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assessable with foreign, governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers or depositories, and there held pending examination, assessments and payments, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the Company, shall have become a lien on the property.

NOTE—The Company's charge is based upon the character of the property, of which its value is an element and its value must be declared in writing by the shipper unless its character is otherwise disclosed. When goods are hidden from view by wrapping, boxing or other means and the company is not notified of the character thereof, the shipper's declaration of value may be made by notation, "not exceeding $50.00" or "not exceeding $50.00 or 50 cents per pound, actual weight."

Dear Sir:-
Would you please send me the money that I earned last spring while I was out in the country working for Mr. Lew Nicholas, Mt. Bethel, Pa.

As the school is going to close my mother told me that I had better stay and work
in a shop.

Will now close.

Respectfully
Amos Jones
