That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservations, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservations. Dear Mr. Peel:

Harry Ritchie, a member of the Potawatomi Bank of Indians, who was attending the Carlisle Indian School last year and returned home for the vacation, brought to this office your letter, addressed to him, of the 5th inst., notifying him of the action taken by the Department in discontinuing the Carlisle school, and asking to what school, if any, he wished to be transferred.

I am enclosing herewith a communication from Harry addressed to you, stating that he wishes to be transferred to Haskell Institute. This I recommend be done.

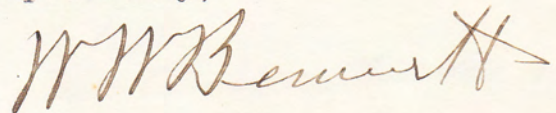

There was also attending the Carlisle School a boy from this agency by the name of James Crawford, who did not return home during the vacation, but was
