Myrtle Ferris's Plea for Equal Suffrage, given at the joint meeting
of the Susans and The Invincibles, January 18th.

Resolved, That women should be granted Equal Suffrage with men
by an Amendment to the Federal Constitution.

Now, Judges, Women should be granted, and will be granted equal suffrage with men by an Amendment to the Federal Constitution, because of the following reasons: We would have a better form of government if women were granted equal suffrage with men; for, Now, Judges, men have always defended and minimized evil.

They have upheld one wrong after another and have taken the stand that it is impossible to get rid of them. But women have worked day and night against them and finally have had the satisfaction of seeing many of them conquered. Intemperance is being conquered and will be conquered much sooner if women are granted equal suffrage.

Now, Judges, There are good women and bad women, but on the whole the influence of women is admitted by everybody to be ennobling and inspiring.

Now, Judges, There is no logic or justice in refusing to extend equal suffrage to the women when it is given without the slightest restrictions to the commonest aliens. The women are working for the good of this country. The aliens are working for their own ends, therefore why not ^{extend} equal suffrage to women?

Now, Judges, One of the reasons why the American colonies rebelled was that they had taxation without representation, and the Declaration of Independence says expressly that it is a self-evident truth that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. Yet, Now, Judges the women are taxed without representation and they have to submit to a government to which they have not given their consent.

Now, Judges, I shall quote in part the Declaration of Independence: "We hold these truths to be self evident, That all men are created equal, That they are endowed by their Great Creator with certain unalienable rights, That among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, That to secure these rights governments are instituted among men deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." Now, Judges, Are we living up to the "self-evident truth of the Declaration of Independence when we do not grant equal suffrage to women although, they are under the laws of this government? The government is the loser for not granting women equal suffrage for in not doing so it is being indifferent to the sun obling and inspiring ideas ready to be presented by fifty-eight million women.

How. Judges, We are now launched in a life and death war to make the world safe for democracy, and shall it be written in future history that we did not believe in letting democracy begin in the house? That we did not believe in granting women equal suffrage although they make up the better half of the population of our country?

How. Judges, It is unfair and un-American that the fifty-eight million women of this country should have to obey the laws - many of which affect them seriously - when they have no part in the making of those laws.

How. Judges! The time is now at hand when women should be granted and will be granted the equal right in making the laws for this great democracy. It shall then truthfully be a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

SPECIAL NOTE.

This form must be executed in duplicate when a child is transferred from a reservation to a non-reservation school. The Superintendent of the nonreservation school will retain the original for his files, and the duplicate shall be deposited in the Agency records. The agent will then send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate as provided by law. All the blanks must be properly filled in every case.

NOTE.—Age limits, fourteen to twenty years. Preferably fourteen to eighteen. Students must be at least one-fourth Indian, preferably full Indian. Special cases beyond the age limit will be given consideration. An industrial course only can be taken and the term reduced to three years, in exceptional cases.

INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations, or Indian schools, to nonreservation schools.

Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Miss Beach, Myrtle's former Sunday-mother had been paying Myrtle $1.00 per week during school attendance so Mrs. Simpson continued the $1.00 per week after Myrtle was transferred to her although Mrs. Simpson says Myrtle is really not worth that amount as far as actual service. But she has a most excellent disposition, never resents correction and is most helpful and kind to the little girls. She entertains them with beautiful nature stories and Mrs. Simpson says Myrtle has a remarkable "pure mind" and she is glad to have her with her children.

Personally Myrtle is rather untidy. Mrs. Simpson hopes to overcome this to some degree.

L. M. Johnston, Acting Agent.

Remarks and recommendations of superintendent with reference to eligibility and need of Federal aid:

Superintendent.

NOTE.—One of these blanks should be filled out by each pupil at Government boarding schools, preferably with the assistance of the superintendent or some one designated to act as his representative. If the superintendent is of opinion from the information given that the pupil is entitled to enrollment he should so indicate by signing the blank in the proper place and filing in the individual pupil's folder. In the case of pupils concerning whose eligibility or need of Government aid there is some doubt, superintendents should make proper remarks and recommendations in the space indicated and forward the form to the Indian Office for consideration.

March 2nd, 1915.

Mr. Jack Peniska,

Niobrara, Nebraska.

My dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of February the 27th, this is to advise you that our Girls' Outing Agent saw both your daughters at their Outing homes last week and she has reported that they are well and getting along very satisfactorily.

Myrtle is in the home of Mrs. R. G. Simpson at Drexel Hill, Pa., one of our very best patrons and a lady who is actively interested in doing the best possible for the girls who are entrusted to her care. In this connection I must explain that Myrtle's monthly home letter was sent in early in February, but as it was not accompanied by the usual report card the letter was inadvertently held here too. I now enclose it herewith.

Belle is in the home of Miss E. D. Edge at Downingtown, Pa., with another girl from this school. Miss Edge has an old country house and is a remarkable woman in every respect. She takes a personal interest in the girls she has with her, and has had for years, so that Belle could not be any more fortunate than to live in the home of Miss Edge and to be under her influence.

Miss Edge spoke to our Outing Agent about Belle's engagement to be married, but it is claimed by the latter that the young man lives at Niobrara and that she is anxious to complete her studies here before she takes up the more serious responsibilities.

Assuring you that I will be pleased to have you write to me at any time about your daughters, so that we can work together to do the best for them, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Miss Myrtle Peniska,
Niobrara, Nebraska

Dear Myrtle:

As the Carlisle School as a school for Indians, will be closed September 1st we will not be able to consider the enrollment of any more pupils.

I am sorry that we will not be able to give a Carlisle diploma to one who has worked so faithfully as you have to get one. We are transferring our pupils to the large schools in the West the last of next month, and I would advise that you get in touch with the Superintendent of one of the large schools so that you can continue your school. Mr. Blair, as well as several of our Carlisle employees, are being transferred to the Chiloece School.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:-

I shall write you
a letter in regards as
to securing applications
for my youngest brother
Joseph Beniska

He has heard so much about Carlisle
and its wonderful
opportunities that now
his greatest wish
and desire is to be
a Carlisle student.

Although I am only

A year older than
he, I feel, since having spent five years at Carlisle, that I can use
my influence in helping
him in the right path
while the beginning is
yet new.

It is my dearest
wish to get him away
from present surroundings
before he is influenced by anyone. for although
this is a pretty fair
play, it is by no means
a place wherein he can
make something of himself
I shall return to Carlisle this Fall to resume

my studies in junior class and I shall feel very grateful to you always if you will allow my brother to return with me.

I am asking this because I wish future happiness for my Seventeen year old brother and I also ask it because I love him dearly and wish him to

to obtain the Carlisle Education which will make him a more efficient and worthwhile citizen.
