Gentlemen:

The police of this city have turned over to us a boy by the name of Joseph Oldshild, who was picked up loitering around the Reading Terminal Station in this city.

The boy claims to be a student of your school and was placed on a farm at Hightstown, Penna. This boy is desirous of being returned to the school, and we have learned that this is his second departure from this same farm. We would therefore desire to know just what disposition you want made of him, as we can accommodate him for a day or two.
