My dear Mrs Denny,

I have a thought to write to you to day, for its Sunday and ~~not doing~~ nothing, just sit around.

I reached home safely and Im happy as ever just the same as to use to be when I was there at Carlisle.

I am living with my dad Mr P.H. Merton, and he certainly is a nice dad for me.

I am sure Carlisle is longed by now for every body west away but a few pupils there I am sure.

But myself I do not know where I should go but shall know after while for school but I do not want to come back to the same school as I was before.

So I'll tell you what I am going to do. I have <sup>2</sup>known that you are a Susan, before and I am glad to tell you that I am one of your sister Susans too.

I am going to write to Mrs Foster to, when I get through with your letter.

Have many of the teachers went away for their ~~vacations~~?

I must close with love &
good wishes.

I am yours truly

Judy Kanard.

Good by answer.

Judy was placed 6-17-16 with Mrs. Schelling as became. Judy did not prove satisfactory and was transferred on Aug. 18th to Mrs. Goodin.

In Mrs. Schelling's home, Judy was not satisfied and evidently did her poorest. She complained of poor health - did her work poorly. Mrs. Schelling has fancy drags and Judy disliked to care for them.

When she was transferred to Mrs. Goodin's home she did all was required and in a most satisfactory manner. There was not a word of complaint. She did not fit in the first home and did in the second. There too, in the second home there were two sick children and Judy helped in the care of them.

Dear Sir:-

Your inquiry regarding Judy Kanard, your ward now attending school here, is received. Our school physician has the following to report regarding Judy,

"I have Judy Kanard in the hospital at present treating her for swollen glands. Her condition otherwise is good and there is really nothing that need cause worry or alarm. It is very evident that Judy is homesick."

There does not seem to be any cause for alarm just now according to the doctor's report. If anything develops I will write you again.

Dear Madam:- I am in receipt of your letter regarding your daughters Judy and Louisa and have to advise that both girls are in good health and getting along nicely at this time. I referred your letter about Judy to the matron who says that there is no reason for you to worry about Judy's marriage as there is nothing of this in view just now. Mrs. Ewing says there is no special young man in whom she is interested now. The girls if they wish to go, will be allowed to go home upon the expiration of their term this coming June.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

Miss Henry,

I do not think there is immediate danger of a wedding in the above case.

Dear sir:-

You are the manager, students of the Carlisle Indian school.

I have daughters there attending school,
Louisa + Judy Kanard and one of them
under age, Judy.

And Judy seems to be have went out with no permission to my knowledge.

I experienced that she has an engagement to marry to a party there.
Kindly I beg you to advise her to come home this summer as their time expires.
Principle reason for this to you, I can't give her my words, for she cannot accept them.

Please persuade her to return.

Yours respt

Mrs. Kanard.

Dear Sir:-

I hand you herewith express receipt for $3.12 and copy of the telegram which was sent to the agent of the Adams Express Company at Penfield, Pa. the charges on which were 25¢, and would thank you for a check to cover these items.

I understand that Miss Johnson made the statement that Judy should stand this expense and I certainly do not agree with her because I cannot understand why she should be held responsible when the error in shipping directions were made by either Miss Johnson or Mrs. Shellinger.

In my estimation the fact that Judy left the Shellinger residence has nothing to do with it. From all reports I should not blame her for wanting to make a change.

Yours very truly,

SWG/CVK

Dear Sir:

Mrs. Shellinger of Secane was erroneously instructed to forward Judy's trunk to Penfield, Pa., by Adams Express. The trunk should have gone to Penfield, Delaware County, Pa., by local express since the Adams Express Company has no office at the latter point.

I have just telegraphed the company at Penfield, Clearfield County, Pa. to forward the trunk, all charges to follow and I do not propose to stand the additional expense due to the misdirecting of it.

Yours very truly,

Dear sir,

The trunk of Judy Kanard which was at my house at Secane, Pa., is in the office of Adams Express Co., the agent called on Mrs Schellenger yesterday to know what disposition to make of it, the address that Mrs Johnson gave for its delivery, the agents can't find.
Will you please communicate with Mrs Johnson,
for it has been over a week now, and Judy ought to have her trunk.

Mr. O. H. Lipps,
Supt. Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Mr. Lipps: -
Judy Kaward has her trunk and I have reimbursed
Mr. Gordin with my personal checks - one for $3.12 trunk express, the other for 25¢ telegram charges.

I did make the statement to Mrs. Gordin that Judy's conduct was the cause of her transfer therefore Judy should stand the expense that we did not compel a girl to remain if she did not like her home but we did insist on a girl giving her reasons and doing it in a square open way. I made several visits to Judy and she never had any reasons for her mis conduct till she got into another home.

Judy was another of the "doubtful" ones at Carlisle as I was not surprised at the report from Mrs. Schellenger. However, now she seems to be doing finely. She looks clean and neat, has a happy look and a sprightly step when she comes to the door so I know the change was for the good. Mrs. Gordin may move about the middle of the month to the city and may write for permission to take Judy with her for the remainder of the month - until the girls return.

The matter of Judy paying for the trunk express from her money at Carlisle may wait until Judy returns to Carlisle.

Very respectfully, Lida M. Johnston.
