Supt. Osage Agency

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Alex Pappin, requesting that her son Frank, a pupil of this school be sent home at once, as they are farming this year and need his help.

I have been denying all requests of parents to have their children returned to them before the close of school. I want to be sure that I would be doing the right thing to refuse in this case so refer it to you first for your advice and recommendation.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

Supt., U.S. Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Answering your letter of April 10, 1918 with reference to request of Mrs. Alex Pappin for the return of her son Frank, now a pupil in your school, in order that he may assist in farming operations, I desire to say that it is believed that the boy should remain at Carlisle until the end of the school term. His parents are amply able financially, to employ farm labor should they require any, and you will be justified in denying the request.

Respectfully,

Superintendent.

Dear Madam:-

Your son Frank is getting along nicely in school here and it does not seem advisable to take him out of school at this time. I am anxious that all the children remain here until after the final examinations are held so that they may be properly graded when they return to school in the fall.

For Frank's own good, it would seem to me the thing for you to do would be to let him stay here until school closes and hire what help you need on your farm.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

Supt. Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

My son Franklin Pappin is one of your pupils. He took with him a fine cornet that we paid $75.00 for. The other day he wrote me that he had traded with a boy for it. I wrote back and asked him to pay the boy back and get his cornet, that I didn't want him to trade it. He wrote back that the boy had let him have $5.00 on it. I sent the $5.00 to him and told him to pay the boy back. I hate to bother you with his little troubles but it is so easy for boys to do these things that they shouldn't. I will appreciate very much if you will see the other boy and ask him to let Franklin have the cornet back and if there is anything to pay on it please advise me and I will send the money direct to you.

Thanking you very much,

I am, his mother.

INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

That no Indian pupil under the age of fourteen years shall be transported at Government expense to any Indian school beyond the limits of the State or Territory in which the parents of such child reside or of the adjoining State or Territory. (35 Stat. L., 781.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case but in all cases where the parents are living they should first be consulted.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations or Indian schools to nonreservation schools.
