INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

Mr. John Francis, Jr.,
Supt. Indian School.
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Mr. Francis: -

In the case of Elizabeth Redone I think there is no real cause for alarm. Elizabeth is naturally reserved and rather nervous in the presence of strangers. The other matter, too, I believe is all right judging from evidences and what Elizabeth told me. She looks as well as she ever did. I am glad the patient is so careful and concerned. Would that all the patients were as careful.

Very respectfully,
Lida M. Johnston.

6-26-18. Sea Isle City, N. J.
M. J. July 20, 1918.

Miss Johnston,

There is something that is worrying me, something which I hope is my imagination. Still as you are the one to help me I am writing to you.

Elizabeth has not to my knowledge been unwell since she is with me - and that is since May 12th, is it not? Even that would not annoy me so much knowing that some young girls are so irregular. But she does act queerly at times. For instance when my husband and I are alone she waits on the table beautifully, but if I have any company whatever she refuses to wait on able, says it makes her nervous - and I can see it does. Then again, when I da came to Mrs. Loveland I sent her to the station to meet I da with little Francis Black, Mrs. Loveland's granddaughter. When she came home she was ill, swayed and nearly fell, I thought the child was going to faint. But that passed and she came to help me with supper about a half-hour later.

I would not want to worry you unnecessarily, but I am worried about her myself. Elizabeth is a good girl. She does her work well and is extremely kind to my little boy. I should hate to lose her for down here it is an impossibility to get help. We are trying to do everything to make her feel at home

them satisfied that she likes is - are not mentioned any of this to her, but she has admitted
she has not been unwell.

Will you kindly let me
know if you think my fears are unfounded? If you are in Philadelphia why not make a trip to Sea Isle? I have several guest rooms and
shall be glad to have you come stay with me a few days.

Hoping to hear from
you,

Very sincerely,

Ella Duerr Buckley
