Dear Sir:-

Replying to your letter saying that you are in need of a single man for the position of shoe and harness-maker at $540 per annum, I have to say we have had one of our students here under consideration for several days but have finally decided that it would not be for his best welfare to recommend him for the position. He is a boy of splendid character and can do the actual work in a shop himself but I fear he would fall down as an instructor. He is a Pueblo and like many of his tribe, he has a very poor command of English. He is in the fifth grade and has three more years before his term expires. I doubt too the wisdom of sending a warm climate boy up into your cold country, especially at this time of the year. So I think that Charles Brown would better remain here and complete his term. I do not know of any one else whom I could recommend for the place.

Very truly yours

Dear Sir:- I was just in to see my bro. about the matter and he gave me the note that you left him. Now you be sure and hold this note and we will send the money to you If he cannot make it all by that time he said that you told him we could renew part of it. I will try and help you collect: if my bro. cannot make it maybe I will try and send you some I do not know yet if I can or not as I must pay arrears and my road tax is due this month and I would like to make the do on that if I can. but you hold it and in a month or two I will be sure and get it for you or pay it myself and

buy a heifer of him that he wants to sell.

about me owing him I do not owe him anything now but I did the first time you was here, the first part of March I had a chance to buy a cow cheap and I did not have the money then and I borrow $75<sup>00</sup> of him for several weeks and a party owed me $75<sup>00</sup> and promised me that and I did not get it and have not got it yet but I have a judgment note against him due 13th of this month do not know if I can collect it or not he is a tough nut. now if you doubt this or think I am trying to bluff you come here and I will show you the note. when you was here the first time I owed him about $50<sup>00</sup> and the following Tuesday 2 days after you was here I straightened up with him, but he sold $25<sup>00</sup> worth of seed corn for me and sent it to Price N. Y. and he has not got it yet but it is good. he worked for the man about a year or more. but he told me this morning that he had sold some pigs and if they would send the money in time he thought he could pay quite some on it. but I will see that you get it. If I had the money now I would give it to you but I am not filled with money like some I never let a note or check go to protest in my life and never intend to if I can prevent it unless I forget it or something that I am not responsible for, and since this is going on I think you judge me by him but please don't judge one bro. by another perhaps you would not like that <sup>over</sup> to you yourself as I am not-responsible for what my bro. does I trust this will be satisfactory to you and assuring you that you will receive the money as soon as I can get it to you I remain

Replying to your letter of the 8th inst. relative to Charles Brown, I have to advise that we have heard nothing regarding his being drafted. If any papers came here for him from the war department they were remailed to you at once. We have no recollection of having mailed any such papers to you, so until some action is taken in his case, I see no cause for any anxiety on your part regarding his being drafted.

Dear friend:- I have your letter about your son Charles going home. His time has expired but he agreed to remain under the outing through the summer and I think it would be better for him to do this. If he wants to go home in the fall, I can arrange for him to go then. He is well, getting along nicely and earning good wages.
