INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

Dear Sir:-

Mollie

Little Plumie was taken with an infection in her right hand and is suffering very much we have had the family physician and he opened it tonight to give her relief poising but he thinks it will not be serious as we had it attended to at once, but of course the child is helpless she can't dress herself and cries a great part of the time.

I will send her report to you with this letter but will not ask her to sign it.

Mrs. C. Matens
Malvern
Penn

and he found a good fit of Guss he says it will be over a week before she will be better and perhaps longer she does not seem to know how it happened or remember anything that hurt the head until it started ^{to} swell and pain her; the doctor says it is blood

Dear Mr. Francis: -

On Wednesday I visited Mollie Liali Plume and found that she has indeed a bad looking hand due to infection. It seems to be much better and does not pain her as much. I called to see Dr. Hayter, the physician, but found he was out. I will make an effort to see him or call him by phone.

I have asked Mrs. Matens to keep you posted as to any developments and also to continue the visits to the doctor.

Since this seems to be the improvement, I think it best to keep her where she is - under the same treatment.

Very respectfully.

L. M. Johnston -
