I received your letter the July Thideth well it is my wish that they should return home we live just about $\frac{3}{4}$ a mile from public school and then if they are well advanced in their studies we can place them in High school in Appleton 14 miles from our home so we have decided we should have them home so will now look for them to be home whenever you have them ready. I was awfully sorry to have Carlisle close its school for we think it the best school, but what was its purpose for I think its all right too, they needed for hospital, so will you except our many thanks for the help towards our children I remain Ever Your friend
