The law provides:

"That no part of this appropriation, or any other appropriation provided for herein except appropriations made pursuant to treaties, shall be used to educate children of less than one-fourth Indian blood whose parents are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they live and where there are adequate free-school facilities provided and the facilities of the Indian schools are needed for pupils of more than one-fourth Indian blood." (Act of August 1, 1914.)

EXTRACTS FROM SCHOOL RULES.

If the facilities of a school are not needed as provided in the above paragraph, children showing any Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, and who if debarred from Government schools could not obtain an education, may be enrolled in the day and boarding schools of their reservation; these children, however, may not be transferred to nonreservation schools without special permission from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Before enrolling a pupil superintendents must satisfy themselves whether he has left any other school without permission and whether he has been expelled for cause from any other school. A pupil who has been expelled for cause from any Indian school may be reenrolled in any Indian school only with permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

"The Secretary of the Interior may in his discretion withhold rations, clothing, and other annuities from Indian parents or guardians who refuse to or neglect to send or keep their children of proper school age in some school during a reasonable portion of each year." West Chester, Pa.

Dear Charlotte:

I have your letter saying that you have decided to stay in school until its close this coming summer instead of going to the hospital in March as we had previously arranged. Mr. Lipps is away just now but I feel quite sure that he will approve of your move, because I know that he feels that our girls who go to the large hospitals are not always as well prepared in school work as they should be. You are still young and you could really take two years more of high school or even complete the course before beginning your nursing career. Personally I should not be disappointed if you would decide to complete the high school work before entering the hospital. However, you can decide this matter later on. For the present I shall be glad to arrange for you to remain right with Mrs. Taylor until you make up your mind what you want to do. We are glad to have Miss Johnston's good reports about you.

Superintendent O. H. Lippo.
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Mr. Lippo:

I have decided to stay here all during the year instead of going to the hospital in March.

I think I shall get more out of going to school a while longer. I can hardly bear the thought of ever having to stop going to school. I like the High School very well.

I had a letter from the directress of the Episcopal Hospital, and she told me to send for my uniforms.
I wrote and told her I had decided to wait a while longer before entering the hospital.

If you have no objections I shall be very glad to finish my first year in high school.

Very respectfully,
Charlotte Smith

Dear friend:-

I have Miss Johnston's report of her visit with you West Chester girls. She has sent me your school reports in full. Your marks in English and Biology are good and your mark in French, passing. Your mark in Geometry however is only 70.

I want you to work a little harder and see if you cannot send me a much better report next month. I do not want my girls who are attending High School under the cutting to make just passing marks. I want them to be among the best in the class.

You may not know it but your teachers and school mates here are watching your progress. If you work hard and make good marks, we will all be proud of you. Remember this and hereafter apply yourself to your studies harder than ever.

With my regards to you, I am Very truly yours

Dear Madam:-- When the school is closed the first of September, a check for $19.48 which is the amount due Charlotte Smith on our books, will be sent to her. This with what she saves this summer from her wages, will be cared for as you and she think best. I would advise that she buy War Savings Stamps.

Carlisle Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:—

I want to thank you and Miss Johnston for consenting to let Charlotte Smith remain with me.
Charlotte is delighted. When Mr. Willebeck first told her she would hardly let herself believe it was true, until I came back home with my daughter Sunday, and verified it. I do not would like to put it toward a Liberty Bond. Then she surely could not spend it foolishly but would have it for future use, when she might need it more. If not enough for a bond, yet, she would pay monthly to the bank until it was clear. Would this plan meet your approval?

Since I started her on her Thrift stamps she has almost filled her second book. She earned some while I was in the hospital with my daughter, by helping Mr.
Willebeck clean the Automobile.

Think either of you will regret it. I am sure I will not, if Charlotte continues as grateful, willing and happy as she has been so far.

You say you will put full responsibility up to me Sept. 1st. Does that mean I am to give Charlotte's money all to her, or retain the usual proportion to be given to her later? She also was wondering what would be done with the money in your charge now? She does not know how much it is, but said she

She has not spent any of her regular salary yet, but expects to next week, for shoes.

She has been receiving the extra clothing you have been sending her and is so glad for it all. The new goods we will not make up until we return home.
The daughter, who has just been ill, has taken a dressmaking course and designs and makes all her own clothes. She has offered to help Charlotte and teach her how. She will write to you direct, in a few days.
Sincerely yours, Eleanor T. Willenbaker

Mr. C. B. Teel, Tras. A. d. in Charge - Carlisle Indian School.

Dear Sir:-

I regret that a misunderstanding on my part has caused you any inconvenience. I understood Miss Johnston to say the reports were to be sent in on the exact month, from date of arrival of Charlotte to me. Hence I was waiting until July 15 - to report. -

I said I would give Charlotte $15. for the first month and gradually increase her, as I thought she deserved it. I am sending you a check for 7.50 for the full amount due her to July 1st. I will start her new month now from July 1st and give her $16.⁰⁰ She is satisfied for me to send you the full 7.50 without giving her any from it, but will take her allowance from next check - for July.

She has not asked for any money, and has only spent for stamps and writing material from the supply she brought with her.

She has earned nearly $5.⁰⁰ extra doing the extras I mentioned in my last letter, running errands, etc.; from that amount I have bought her a bathing suit, after giving her the tight, hose, cap, etc. to go with it. The balance she is using to buy Thrift stamps with.

2 I started her with one, same as I did my daughters, and have offered all three of them ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~find~~ ^{find} one on every new book, as an incentive to use their odd change in this manner.

It is a pleasure to encourage Charlotte this way, as she is so grateful for all ~~the~~ ^{the} Carlisle has done for her, that she tries in every way to do just what you want her to do, and obeys me without any question. She never thinks of going out at night and always asks permission to go away from the porch even in day-time.

We have taken her to the movies with us a couple of evenings, and to evening service at The Methodist Church. My oldest daughter took her in bathing for her first Ocean dip, - The other day when it was extremely calm. Charlotte was amusingly surprised at herself, - to find "that as long as she kept tight hold of Miss Alice's hand," she was not a bit afraid. Then the shower bath after was such a new experience, she hated to get from under it.

Naturally we are having our own amusement watching her, in all these new experiences. Fortunately she has a keen sense of humor, and just giggles over everything. A fact which also makes our task of helping her a much easier one.

I hope these reports are filled out to your satisfaction.

Sincerely yours,
Leonor T. Millerbeck.

For the Company.

NOTE—The Company's charge is based upon the character of the property, of which its value is an element, and its value must be declared in writing by the shipper unless its character is otherwise disclosed. When goods are hidden from view by wrapping, boxing or other means and the company is not notified of the character thereof, the shipper's declaration of value may be made by notation, "not exceeding $50.00" or "not exceeding $50.00 or 50 cents per pound, actual weight."

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of the receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignor, the consignee and all carriers handling this shipment, and shall apply to any reconsignment or return thereof.

2. The rate charged for carrying said property is dependent upon the actual value of the property which must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and applies only upon property of an actual value not exceeding fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds. If the actual value is greater than fifty dollars for any shipment of one hundred pounds or less, or exceeds fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of one hundred pounds, such actual value must be specifically stated in writing by the shipper, and excess charges for such greater value must be paid therefor in accordance with the lawfully published tariffs of the Company.

3. Said property is accepted as merchandise only, and the Company shall not be liable for the loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt, as the Company does not transport such articles except through its money department.

4. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for —

- a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage or evaporation.
- b. The death, injury or escape of live freight.

5. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the Company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by —

- a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.
- b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
- c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing or addressing.
- d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards and dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in Customs warehouse.
- e. The examination by, or partial delivery to, the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.

f. Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the Company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

6. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

7. If no express company has an agency at the point of destination, said property may be carried to the agency nearest or most convenient thereto and the consignee notified.

8. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the point of delivery or at the point of origin within four months and suits must be instituted within two years after delivery, or, in case of failure to deliver after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed.

Unless claims are so made and suits so brought the carrier shall not be liable.

9. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper, the Company may, at its option, return the property to the consignor and collect the charges for transportation both ways.

10. The Company shall not be required to make free delivery at points where it maintains no free delivery service nor at any point beyond its established and published delivery limits.

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries.

11. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the Company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations and customs of oversea and foreign carriers, custodians and governments, their employees and agents.

12. The Company shall not be liable for any loss, damage or delay to said shipments over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations or customs.

13. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assessable with foreign, governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers or depositories, and there held pending examination, assessments and payments, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the Company, shall have become a lien on the property.

Dear Madam:

I have your letter relative to future plans for Charlotte Smith, and have consulted with Miss Johnston and given her case considerable thought. Your plans for her seem so good that I have decided to allow her to remain with you to finish her High School and then to enter the Chestnut Hill Hospital. Anything that we can plan for her would not be better than what you have outlined.

I want to thank you here for your personal interest in Charlotte, and I hope that she may not disappoint you, and some day be able to repay you for all you are willing to do for her. I will retain her on the rolls until September 1st, after which time she will be entirely under your care. Thanking you again for your great interest, I am

Trav. Aud. in Charge

123 N. Upsal Street, Permanotown,
Ta.

Dear Sir:-

I am at the above address, for a week or so, having come up on a hurried sick call with one of my daughters whom I have taken to the Chestnut Hill Hospital. The rest of the family are at the Palatine Apartments with Charlotte Smith.

I wish to speak about Charlotte.

I have liked her so much from the first that I would like very much to be able to bring her to Permanotown with me in the Fall and let her finish her High School Course at our wonderful school here. It is one of the most complete schools around

Charlotte is very anxious to come, but says she will do whatever Miss Johnston is best for her.

If let come to me, I would give her $10. a month while at school. She would have her own bed room, and private bathroom with all the hot and cold water she wanted. My daughters would also help her with ^{her} ~~their~~ studies. I assure you her work would never interfere with her studies or make her late for school. The school is within a few blocks of my home, so except in very bad weather, she could always walk it.

Charlotte liked the people she was with last winter very much, but said it was so terribly lonely. That they were such strict quakers, they never had a bit of music, not even a victrola, and she loves much. That being one things my daughters are realizing in, we are seldom without it, and they were surprised to hear what a sweet little voice Charlotte has, and often get her to come in and sing with them.

Then too, to take her required hot bath, she had to carry the water up three stories by the pail full and said she was exhausted by the time the tub had enough in it, she did not enjoy the bath much.

She was nearly always late for school because she had to take the milk pail to the milkman's before school and call for it - coming home, no matter what time she left nor what the weather.
The same milkman delivered the milk to all the neighbors but Mrs. Taylor insisted on Charlotte's going again. I imagine she received or less teasing from the nates about it, for she seems very sensitive about it.

Also the Taylors being such strict old-fashioned Quakers, they would not spend one cent for a Lord or Thrift stamp to help the war, and discouraged any such idea of Charlotte's.
She is now on her second book of Thrift stamps, saved since she came to me, not from her wages, but little extras, she has earned, and she is so proud of them.

I do not mean this to be disparaging to Mrs. Taylor, but to show a few reasons why Charlotte is hoping she won't have to go back again.
She speaks most highly of 18 Mrs. J. H. Taylor and her daughter, breads the loveliness there.

She has been so very obedient since with me, that you need have no fear of her doing anything in Germantown that you would object to.

She wants to continue her nursing course after leaving High School.

Our Chestnut Hill Hospital is one of the prettiest and best equipped Hospitals in this section of the country. One of your girls a Miss Orle (?) graduated from there a few years ago. Miss Le Terre said she was very much liked by everyone and one of their best pupils, and with your consent she would be very glad to receive Charlotte at any time. Since Miss Orle graduated, they have their operating room, and everything of the latest for all possible needs, and have increased the nursing course to three years, instead of $2\frac{1}{2}$.

Should Charlotte come to me and go to the Hospital from here, she could count this as her home - to come back to, on any of her days or hours off duty. We live only about fifteen minutes trolley ride from the Hospital.

I wish you would think this well over, talk it over with Miss Johnson and get Charlotte's own opinion on it. Then let me know your decision - as early as possible.
I am genuinely interested in the girl and would be glad to help in her advancement.

My daughter is now at same Hospital. I am ed to say her trouble settled in pneumonia, instead of something even more serious as we first feared. All going well, we hope to be able to take her back to Ocean City in a week or so.

My business accounts with you about Charlotte, may be a little late as I came away in such a rush with Gerviere, that I never thought of those papers. If you wish to send me duplicate papers to my German town address I can send you her salary from here, if you prefer.

I am hoping you will consider my request for keeping Charlotte, favorably.
I do not think you will regret it.

Sincerely Yours,
(Mrs. Clark) Eleanor T. Whillebuck
