Mr. W. W. Bennett,
Supt. Potawatomi Agency,
Laona, Wisconsin.

Dear Mr. Bennett:

Inam enclosing herewith application of James Crawford, on your roll as Mokechiwum, or something similar, to be enrolled at Carlisle school.
He comes in voluntarily and seeks to be sent away to this particular school, and as he has always attended the Keshena school, I am taking the liberty of making out his papers and approving same, sending him along with the class which leaves here tomorrow night. It is requested that you affix your approval, with a statement that there are no near relatives to sign for this lad. He has a brother somewhere on this reservation, also an aunt and grandmother. Any of these will sign for him if you think it necessary, if they can be brought in, but it is thought Carlisle will accept him with the joint approval of yourself and Superintendent Nicholson. When papers are completed please forward to Superintendent Francis at Carlisle.

Very respectfully,

W. W. Bennett
Assistant Superintendent.
