INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations, or Indian schools, to nonreservation schools.

Dear friend:-

I have your letter saying that your daughter Lizzie has written you to send her $8 so that she can buy a musical instrument and that she would like to have the money at once as she must learn to play the instrument before the 14th of next month. You say you do not have the money and you want me to get her work so she can earn the amount she needs.

Lizzie is attending school every day and does not have time to work for wages now. I think she can get along without the instrument until she can earn enough to pay for it herself. I will be glad to send her under the cutting this summer if she wants to do this.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

Dear Sir: Just a few words. About my daughter Lizzie House who has been here in a few more months to be five years and her name I am never ashamed to mention. Last week I received her letter and asked me for $8 for which to buy her self some music instrument—

She need it soon as she want to learn before Dec. 14

Now it is hard for me as I want her to learn music as well as so many things besides. Now can't you get her work
