Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Yahani has a most peculiar disposition. It is difficult to tell just what her ability is - that is how capable she might be. Every thing she does is done well. She seems to be perfect in matters of neatness and cleanliness. Is a beautiful ironer. She says but very little and does not make any effort (apparently) to come out of her shell of reserve or timidity. She likes her home and seems to be happy and contented. Just how much she has learned is hard to tell for she may have known little or much. She takes her own time over doing some things - never has her letter (home) ready. It always has to be wanted or called for. She should return to Carib for the winter. This winter of 1914-1915, was the first winter in Public School. L.M. Johnston.

Mr. John Francis

Yahnie Youngbird

Care Mrs. H. W. Scott
Coatesville, Pa.

Dear Yahnie:-

I have your letter and am sorry to learn that you are not contented. The main reason for your discontent seems to be that you do not want to attend school.

You say that the reason you do not want to go to school is because it is only for such a short time as you expect to go home in June. Now, Yahnie, this would be the very reason I would give for your attending school. When you go home in June, you will not likely go to school any more and you should use every opportunity you have now for attending school and try to learn all you can before you must stop for good.

We had your own interests in view when we placed you in a home where you could attend a country school. Your teachers say you are diffident and it was thought you would get along better in a country school than you would in a town school where the pupils in your grade would be much younger than you. I think a great deal of your dissatisfaction is due to the fact that you had decided in your own mind that you would not attend school this year. Now just make up your mind that this is the thing you must do and I know you will be contented.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

RFD. Coatesville, Pa.

Dear Mrs. Scott,- I have the enclosed letter from Yahnne and knowing that she has not been real rugged for the last year, I believe it is best that you return her to the school. Will you please do this at once and let me know when to expect her. I believe she has funds in your hands to defray her travelling expenses. I can arrange to send you another girl about the first of April. It does not seem wise to disturb any one's school work here just now.

Very truly yours
