Levi St. Cyr, Winnebago, class '91 who has held the position of interpreter and assistant clerk at Winnebago agency since his graduation, has been promoted to the position of lease clerk at the same agency. Frank Beaver, class '03, has taken his place as interpreter.

36. 1909

Levi St. Cyr took his departure on Monday evening for Greenwood S. D., where he is going to try a hand at his new position, which is that of assistant clerk at the Yankton agency. Each one urged Levi to try and not like his job well enough to remain permanently. His family is still here awaiting his decision on this point. We're guessing he will plan to dislike it just enough to come back. He'll never be satisfied any other place than right here in Winnebago.

Dear friend:-

I have just received the blank sent to you to fill out and am glad to know you are doing well. I have heard good reports about you but I believe this is the first word I have had direct from you.

I am writing to know if I could get from you a photograph of your home. I have already quite a collection of pictures of our graduates and ex-students but would like to have a few more. I would appreciate your help in getting either a photograph of your home or of yourself and family.

Wishing you continued success in your work,

Mr. M. Friedman, Supt.

U. S. Indian School,

Carlisle, Penn.

Dear Friend:-

I can furnished you with photographs of my homes and my family just as soon as I can get around to it. I wish to state that what little education gained by myself is a great value to me and I can claim that I have used it to full force. A great many people have been lead to believe that the return students of Carlisle all fell and good for nothing. The fact is that the large percentage of them are doing nicely and the best they can. I have been trying to set example to my tribesmen and connected with all the tribal affairs. I have council ed with them on tribal matters as a chairman of the tribal council, and I have a reputation in my community that Carlisle will never be ashamed of. I have my own homes nicely furnished with all necessaries and consider myself one of the good citizens of our town. Wishing you continued success in your work. I am

Respectfully Yours,
