Fred Peake, Class 1892, is now located at White Earth, Minnesota. He says:

"I wish to thank you for the book relating to graduates and returned students. It is deserving of great credit for imparting the information it does. I have not been in touch with the Carlisle School for some time, yet at heart I feel deeply interested in the great school. It is the greatest factor in the emancipation of the Indians. It has given a part of the race a great start for assimilation and citizenship in the American Government. I wish Carlisle great success."
